BY-LAWS OF THE MASSACHUSETTS CONGREGATIONAL CONFERENCE AND MISSIONARY SOCIETY

ARTICLE I

Terminology

Whenever in these by-laws the word "Conference" is used it shall be held to refer to the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society.

ARTICLE II

Denominational Basis

Following Congregational principles, this Conference shall under no circumstances exercise authority over churches or individuals or interfere with the government or discipline of the churches. It shall advise and counsel the churches when requested, but it is recognized that each church has the power of self-determination in all matters.

ARTICLE III

Doctrinal Basis

This Conference declares its steadfast allegiance to the faith which our fathers confessed, which, from age to age, has found its expression in the historic creeds of the Church Universal and of this Communion.

ARTICLE IV

Membership

Voting Members. Every Church or Congregation which is or shall become a member of a Congregational or a Congregational Christian Association of Churches in Massachusetts may annually choose two delegates (of whom it is suggested one shall be a layman and the other a laywoman) and these delegates, together with the pastor or pastors of each church (who shall be members ex officiis), the officers of the Conference (including the members of the Board of Trustees and any person who shall have been elected an Officer Emeritus), the committee members of the Conference and those persons who, prior to May 22, 1923, became life members of the Massachusetts Home Missionary Society, shall constitute the voting membership of the Conference; provided, however, that pastors shall have the privileges of honorary members only unless they shall have membership in Congregational Christian Associations regularly holding ministerial standing.

Honorary Members. Delegates from corresponding bodies and persons appointed to speak before the Conference, together with all persons heretofore constituted honorary members of the Massachusetts Home Missionary Society, such persons as may be made honorary members by a vote of the Board of Trustees, and such other persons as the Conference may from time to time vote to admit, shall be honorary members of the Conference, with the privilege of speaking, but without vote.

ARTICLE V

Officers

1. There shall be a Moderator, one or more vice-Moderators, a Recording Secretary, a Chairman and a vice-Chairman of the Department of Woman's Work (See Article VIII, Sec. 1, (b)), a Chairman and vice-Chairman of the Massachusetts Congregational Laymen's Council (See Article VIII, Sec. 2, (b)), all of whom shall be nominated by the Nominating Committee hereinafter provided for, and elected by ballot at each annual meeting of the Conference for a term of one year and until their respective successors are chosen.

2. The executive officers of the Conference shall be a President, a Secretary, a Treasurer, Field Secretaries, a Secretary of Missionary Education and Promotion, a Secretary of the Department of Woman's Work and a Secretary of Religious Education. These officers shall constitute the Executive Staff. They shall be nominated by the Board of Trustees meeting in executive session, and elected by ballot at each annual meeting of the Conference for a term of one year and until their respective successors are chosen. They shall bear such additional titles as the Conference or the Board of Trustees may determine.

3. "The Conference shall elect by ballot a Board of Trustees consisting of one member from each Association of churches, six members at large who shall be known for their special knowledge of financial affairs of whom one shall be chosen each even numbered year and two, — beginning with the year 1935, — each odd numbered year, the chairman and vice-chairman of the Woman's Department ex-officiis, the chairman and vice-chairman of the Massachusetts Congregational Laymen's Council ex officiis, and the Moderator ex officio." One-third of the representatives of the Associations upon the Board shall be ministers, one-third laymen, and one-third laywomen as nearly as may be. Nine members shall constitute a quorum. The term of office shall be four years, and no member having served a full term shall be eligible for re-election until after one year, but members-at-large, chosen for their knowledge of financial affairs, may serve for two consecutive terms. The present Trustees shall remain in office until the expiration of their terms.

The Conference shall from time to time designate the Associations from which Trustees are to be chosen in the successive years and determine whether the Trustee to be chosen from a particular Association in any year shall be a minister, a layman, or a laywoman.

Each Association shall be notified by the Secretary of the Conference on or before September 15 when it is its turn to propose to the nominating committee a candidate for membership upon the Board, and whether such candidate should be a minister, a layman or a laywoman, and the names of such candidates shall be reported to the Secretary before April 1, of each year. The Secretary upon the receipt of these names shall communicate them to the nominating committee on or before April 10. In case any Association fails to propose a candidate the Board of Trustees shall perform this duty. This method of choosing Trustees shall commence at the close of the 1933 Conference.

At its first meeting after each annual meeting of the Conference the Board shall choose one of its members to serve as chairman for the ensuing year. Except as otherwise provided in the charter of the Conference or in these by-laws, the Board shall administer and dispose of the property of the Conference and shall manage all its business and affairs, and all officers and agents of the Conference shall act under its direction. The Board shall cause the accounts of the Treasurer to be audited at least once each year by certified public accountants selected by the Board. Without restricting the generality of the foregoing, the Board shall in particular have the following powers:

(a) To choose a Clerk, to appoint its own meetings and form its own rules of business, to appoint sub-committees and to delegate any of its powers to such committees.

(b) To appoint and, at pleasure, remove all agents of the Conference and to define their duties.

(c) To fill any vacancy in any office of the Conference (including vacancies in the membership of the Board) until the vacancy shall be filled at a succeeding meeting of the Conference.

(d) To remove any officer of the Conference (other than members of the Board) who may be guilty of disregard of his duties or of such conduct as shall be seriously prejudicial to the interests of the Conference.

(e) To direct efforts to promote missionary interest and giving among the Congregational churches of the Commonwealth.

4. The terms of all officers, save when chosen to fill vacancies, shall begin at the close of the meeting at which they are elected.

ARTICLE VI

Duties of Officers

1. The Moderator, or in his absence, one of the vice-Moderators, shall preside over all meetings of the Conference.

2. The President shall be the chief executive officer of the Conference and shall, subject to the direction of the Conference and of its Board of Trustees, have general charge of its missionary and benevolent work and of its other activities. He shall be a member ex officio of all standing committees named in the by-laws with the exception of the nominating committee. He shall have the power to delegate to members of the Staff the authority to represent him upon any of the said standing committees. He shall be the representative of the Conference and of its Board of Trustees among all the churches (both those financially independent and those aided by the funds of the Conference) and in all denominational and interdenominational gatherings (including meetings of state Superintendents) unless representation is otherwise provided. He may seek to assist pastors and churches with fraternal counsel. He shall keep informed as to opportunities for extension work through founding new churches or strengthening old ones and shall recommend to the Conference and to the Board of Trustees measures for meeting such opportunities.

3. The Secretary shall keep the records of the Conference, except as hereinafter provided, and shall assist in its general work under the direction of the President. He shall devote himself in co-operation with the Field Secretaries and under the direction of the President, to counseling with and assisting the churches in the area assigned to him, and shall perform such other duties as may be assigned to him by the Board of Trustees or the President. He shall have the custody of the records and of all bonds given by the treasurer as hereinafter provided. He shall furnish copies of the record certified under the seal of the Conference (which shall be in his keeping) to such persons as may be entitled thereto.

The Secretary shall collect and publish in connection with the annual Report of the Conference the statistics of ministers and churches and make up the official roll of the ministers and churches in accordance with the usages of the denomination. He shall present to the Conference at its annual meeting a general statistical statement of the progress of religion in the churches for the past calendar year. He shall give suitable notice to the churches of the time and place of each annual meeting, notify officers and committees of their election or appointment and fulfill such other functions as the Conference or the Board of Trustees may from time to time direct.

4. The Treasurer shall receive and hold the property of the Conference subject to the direction of the Board of Trustees and shall keep particular accounts of the Conference's funds and of the disposal thereof. He shall, under the direction of the President, assist, so far as he may be able, in the general work of the Conference and shall perform such other duties as may be assigned to him by the Board of Trustees. He shall make a report at each annual meeting of the Conference and shall make such other reports as the Conference or the Board of Trustees may from time to time require. He shall receive all contributions for benevolences sent to him by the churches and by individuals and shall disburse the same in accordance with the instructions of the donors. He shall give such bonds for the faithful performance of his duties as may from time to time be required by the Board of Trustees.

5. The Field Secretaries shall counsel with and assist the churches in the area which may from time to time be assigned to them by the Board of Trustees or the President.

6. The Secretary of Missionary Education and Promotion shall have the duty of advancing the interest of the churches in the work of missions at home and abroad. He shall, under the direction of the President, assist, so far as he may be able, in the general work of the Conference.

7. The Secretary of the Department of Woman's Work shall have special charge of promoting missionary interests and all other activities among the women of the Congregational churches of the Commonwealth. She shall, under the direction of the President, assist, so far as she may be able, in the general work of the Conference.

8. The Secretary of Religious Education shall encourage and promote the whole program of religious education as well as Christian living and Christian activities among the Congregational churches of the state. He, or she, shall, under the direction of the President. assist so far as able, in the general work of the Conference.

9. The Recording Secretary shall record the complete minutes of each annual meeting and shall transcribe and deliver the same to the Secretary. The Board of Trustees may, in their discretion, appoint a deputy to assist in the keeping of the records under the direction of the Recording Secretary.

ARTICLE VII

Retirement and Annuity

1. No person who has attained the age of seventy years shall continue as a member of the Executive Staff. With respect to employees not members of the Executive Staff, it shall be the policy of the Conference to retire every such employee upon his or her attaining the age of seventy years, provided, however, that this shall not affect the power of the Trustees temporarily to employ from time to time persons who have passed that age (including former members of the executive staff) whenever in particular cases the Trustees shall deem such temporary employment essential to the efficient conduct of the Conference's work.

2. Ordained ministers, who are members of the executive staff, shall be expected to be members of the Annuity Fund for Congregational Ministers, and the Conference shall not provide for them any other retirement annuity, except in the case of ministers who are now members under the Original Plan. Toward each annual premium in the Annuity Fund of any member of the staff the Conference shall pay each year an amount equal to 8% of the charge on his salary.

3. Lay members of the office staff shall be expected to be, so far as practicable, members of the Retirement Fund for Lay Workers, and the Conference shall pay, as the annual premium for each lay worker who is a member of the Fund, 8% of the charge on his salary. The Trustees may in their discretion grant retirement allowances to lay members of the office staff who have found it impracticable to become members of the Retirement Fund for Lay Workers.

ARTICLE VIII

Departments and Affiliated Organizations

1. There shall be a Department of Woman's Work of the Conference.
   - (a) The object of this Department shall be to help to promote the entire work of the local church and to further in every way possible the cause of Christ throughout the world. The voting members of this Department shall be the women members of the Conference, together with such other women as may be determined by the rules of the Department. The Chairman, Vice-Chairman of the Department, the District Presidents, the women members of the Board of Trustees and the members of the Business Committee, as provided by the rules of the Department, shall constitute the members of the Executive Committee of the Woman's Department. This Executive Committee shall organize the membership of the Department in whatever manner it may deem needful for the effective carrying on of the Department's work.
   - (b) The Department shall provide by its rules for the appointment of a nominating committee. This committee shall annually propose to the nominating committee of the Conference from among its membership a chairman and a vice-chairman of the Department, who shall be ex officiis members of the Board of Trustees of the Conference. It shall also nominate such other officers and committees as the rules of the Department shall require, to be elected by the Department at its annual meeting.

2. There shall be a Department of Laymen's Work of the Conference. It shall be called the Massachusetts Congregational Laymen's Council.

(a) The object of this Department shall be: To inspire higher conceptions of Christian citizenship for the development of democratic society and the world-wide Kingdom of God; to promote a richer fellowship of Congregational laymen through conferences, retreats, and other meetings and to co-operate with laymen of other denominations in significant Christian projects; to encourage organized laymen's groups and classes in all our churches, especially the smaller ones; to rally more men to the support of the church and to train men in worship and leadership in their church and community life.

(b) The Massachusetts Congregational Laymen's Council shall consist of sixty-two members — two from each of the Associations in the State and twenty members-at-large, who shall be elected annually by the State Conference. The Conference Nominating Committee shall receive the names of two members from each Association — or its Laymen's Organization — and the names of twenty members-at-large from the Executive Committee of the Massachusetts Laymen's Council. Should an Association fail to name candidates, the nominations for that Association shall be made by the Executive Committee of the Laymen's Council. The officers of this organization shall be a Chairman, a vice-Chairman, a Secretary and a Treasurer.

3. There shall be a Department of Young People's Work of the Conference.

(a) There shall be a Massachusetts Council of Pilgrim Fellowship, composed of two representatives from each Association, to be named by the Association Pilgrim Fellowship or Congregational Young People's organization of the Association, whatever its name may be, as it or its Executive Committee may determine. If the Congregational young people of any Association are unorganized, the Association Committee on Religious Education may name two delegates to the Massachusetts Council of Pilgrim Fellowship. The Council shall hold its annual meeting in May or at such other time as its Executive Committee may determine. At its annual meeting the Council shall plan the State youth program and elect its officers for the ensuing year.

(b) Unless otherwise determined by the Council, the State officers shall be (1) President, (2) four vice-Presidents, (3) Secretary, (4) Editor. The Executive Committee of Pilgrim Fellowship shall consist of (1) the officers, (2) the President of the preceding year, (3) an Adult Advisor to be chosen by the Council with the approval of the State Committee on Religious Education, and (4) one of the Secretaries of Religious Education on the staff of the Massachusetts Congregational Conference, who shall be designated as Executive Secretary of the Massachusetts Pilgrim Fellowship. The President and one of the vice-Presidents to be designated by the Executive Committee shall be ex officiis members of the Board of Trustees of the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society.

ARTICLE IX

Meetings

1. The Conference shall hold its regular annual meeting for the choice of officers, the hearing of reports, the discussion of matters of general interest and the transaction of other business at the appointed place on the third Monday of May, or at such other time in the month of May as the Board of Trustees may deem expedient.

2. Special meetings of the Conference shall be convened at such times and places as may be determined by the Board of Trustees, provided, however, that notice of any special meeting so convened shall, at least one week before the date of the meeting, be sent by mail to each of the churches connected with the Conference, posted in the general office of the Conference and printed in newspapers published in Boston, Worcester and Springfield, respectively.

3. The Moderator or, in his absence, one of the vice-Moderators or, in the absence of all of them some member of the Board of Trustees shall call the Conference to order.

4. At each annual meeting the Conference shall propose to the churches the annual contribution for the expenses of the General Council and for such expenses of the Conference and other purposes, as may be deemed equitable. The Trustees shall at each annual meeting present a recommendation as to the action to be taken at such meeting with reference to the allotment to be made at that meeting, unless the Conference shall have directed at a previous meeting that such recommendation be made by a designated committee.

ARTICLE X

Committees

1. Immediately after the opening of the annual meeting the Moderator shall appoint:

(a) A Committee on Credentials, to which all credentials shall be referred.

(b) A Business Committee, the duty of which shall be to prepare and present at each session all matters of business not presented through some other committee of the Conference.

2. The following standing committees shall be elected by viva voce vote:

(a) A Nominating Committee composed of nine members, consisting of the retiring Moderator of each annual meeting, together with eight other members, of whom at least two shall be ministers, at least two shall be women and at least two shall be laymen. Each year the Board of Trustees, meeting in executive session, shall select four persons whom they shall nominate at the annual meeting of the Conference to be elected to serve for two years. The retiring members shall not be eligible for re-election for at least one year.

This committee shall nominate all officers and committees whose nominations are not otherwise provided for in these by-laws.

(b) A Program Committee, of which the Secretary of the Conference and the pastor of the church which is to entertain the next annual meeting shall be members ex officiis. At each annual meeting two members shall be elected to serve for three years. This committee shall prepare the program for the next annual meeting and shall select the preacher of the annual sermon and the various speakers at each session.

(c) A Committee on Religious Education. At each annual meeting three members shall be elected to serve for three years. The duty of the Committee shall be to foster religious and missionary education in the churches and in the associations of Massachusetts. This Committee shall give advice and counsel in regard to the organized young people's work of the State. Among its various duties the Committee shall bear responsibility for planning and promoting summer camps and conferences.

(d) A Committee on Social Action, consisting of nine members, of whom three shall be elected at each annual meeting for a term of three years. It shall be the duty of the committee to promote interest in moral and social issues among the churches of the Conference. The committee shall be authorized to present and to support publicly such principles and measures as have been adopted by the Conference.

(e) A Committee on the Ministry consisting of thirty-one members: ten at large, three of whom shall be laymen or lay-women, two of the ten to be elected at each annual meeting for a term of five years; the remaining twenty-one to be composed of the Chairman of each Association Committee on the Ministry. It shall be the duty of this Committee to endeavor to establish and maintain high standards for our Congregational ministry and churches.

The Conference shall maintain a special roll of ministers to which names may have been transferred by the Associations. This special roll shall be in charge of the Conference Committee on the Ministry, and the presence of a name there shall constitute evidence that the man has been duly ordained and has had standing in a Congregational Association; but the Committee shall not issue credentials to a man whose name appears on this roll unless they find in concurrence with the Committee on the Ministry in his Association, that his character and qualifications are satisfactory.

(f) A Committee on Evangelism and Devotional Life, consisting of nine members, of whom three shall be elected at each annual meeting for a term of three years. It shall be the duty of the committee to serve as a cooperating agency of the national Commission on Evangelism and Devotional Life.

(g) A Missionary Committee. Each of the twenty-one Associations shall nominate a member of this Committee who shall represent the missionary committee of the Association. The term of office shall be three years, and the alphabetical list of Associations shall be divided into three groups, and these three groups shall rotate in making their elections.

In addition, there shall be six members-at-large, nominated by the Board of Trustees for a term of four years. Four of these persons shall be members of the Board of Trustees.

There shall also be three ex officiis members, representing the Woman's Department, the Layman's Council, and the Pilgrim Fellowship, respectively.

The Committee shall meet at least twice a year, and an executive committee shall be chosen, to meet as frequently as occasion requires. It shall be the duty of this Committee to advance the interest of the churches in the work of missions at home and abroad.

(h) A Committee on the Town and Country Church, consisting of nine members, of whom three shall be elected at each annual meeting for a term of three years. It shall be the duty of this Committee to co-operate with the national Commission on the Town and Country Church and to offer such practical helps and encouragement as may be possible and welcomed by our churches in the town and country areas.

3. Such other committees as the Conference may vote to constitute shall be elected by viva voce vote at each annual meeting for such terms as the Conference shall determine. The Board of Trustees shall present at each annual meeting a list of the committees the appointment of which it recommends.

4. It shall be the general practice of the Conference, without making it an arbitrary rule, that at least one-third of its committee members be lay-women and one-third laymen.

5. The reports of all committees that are to be presented to the Conference shall be furnished to the Secretary on or before April first of each year, and shall be printed and distributed to the churches not less than two weeks before the annual meeting. These reports shall not be read to the Conference save by special order, but the Program Committee may arrange for the adequate discussion of any or all the topics presented in the reports.

ARTICLE XI

Board of Ministerial Aid

The Board of Ministerial Aid shall be the agent of the Conference in the work of aiding needy ministers and their families and shall make an annual report to the Conference. On notice of a vacancy in the membership of the Board of Ministerial Aid, the Conference shall nominate a person to fill the vacancy.

ARTICLE XII

Boston Seaman's Friend Society

The Boston Seaman's Friend Society shall be the agent of the Conference in the work of promoting the spiritual and temporal welfare of seamen and shall make an annual report to the Conference. The Conference shall annually elect five members of the Society for a term of three years each.

ARTICLE XIII

Board of Pastoral Supply

The Conference shall elect nine members to represent it on the Congregational Board of Pastoral Supply, three members to be elected each year to serve for a period of three years. The Board shall, through its Secretary, make an annual report to the Conference.

ARTICLE XIV

Corporate Seal

The seal of the Conference shall consist of two or more concentric circles, with the words "Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society" around the circumference between these circles and the words "Inc., 1808" within the inner circle.

ARTICLE XV

Special Orders

1. The place of the next annual meeting shall be recommended each year by the Business Committee and designated by vote of the Conference.

2. All matters of business presented to the Conference, except those presented through duly appointed committees of the Conference, shall be referred to the Business Committee unless referred to some other committee by special vote of the Conference.

3. All matters of business referred to the Business Committee shall be reported for action before the final adjournment of the annual meeting.

4. As far as possible, all business of the Conference shall be completed by noon of the second day of the annual meeting.

ARTICLE XVI

Rules of Order

The Rules of Order shall be those of common parliamentary usage subject to the following specifications:

- (a) No member shall speak more than twice on the same question without leave of the Conference.
- (b) When a question is before the Conference the Moderator shall entertain motions only as follows: — to adjourn, to table, for the previous question, to postpone to a fixed time, to commit, to amend or to postpone indefinitely; these several motions shall have precedence in the foregoing order.

ARTICLE XVII

Amendments

1. These by-laws, except Articles II and III, may be amended at any regularly called meeting of the Conference by a two-thirds vote, provided the amendment was proposed at the preceding annual meeting of the Conference or is recommended by the Board of Trustees.

2. Articles II and III may be amended by a two-thirds vote, but only after the proposed amendment has been submitted to the Conference in writing at the previous annual meeting and notice has been sent to the several churches connected with the Conference at least three months prior to the meeting at which action is to be taken.

MINUTES OF THE
151st ANNUAL MEETING OF THE MASSACHUSETTS CONGREGATIONAL CONFERENCE AND MISSIONARY SOCIETY

May 16, 17, 1950

Central Congregational Church
Fall River, Massachusetts

TUESDAY MORNING

At nine-fifteen the Chaplain, Rev. Claude Bond of Salem, led the Conference in a memorial service for our former President, Rev. Ralph M. Timberlake, D.D. The following prayer was offered by Chaplain Bond:

"Almighty and most merciful Father, thou hast been our dwelling place in all generations. Before the mountains were brought forth or ever thou hadst formed the earth and the world, even from everlasting to everlasting, thou art God. Age after age, thy children have sought thee and have found that of thy faithfulness and loving kindness there is no end. Be thou now in our midst; take thou the veil from every heart and join us in one communion with all thy prophets and saints who have trusted in thee and were not ashamed. Not of our worthiness but of thy tender mercy, hear our prayer through Christ our Lord.

Accept our humble thanksgiving for him whom we now remember with quiet minds and reverent hearts. For his life among us, for the encouragement he gave to so many, for his devotion to thee and to thy Kingdom, we give thee thanks.

For his gracious courtesy and forbearance, for his generous understanding and sympathy, for his courageous faith and steadfast loyalty, we give thee thanks. We thank thee for his 'little, nameless, unremembered acts of kindness and love,' for his gracious influence that has reached out through many lives into many places to heal and bless.

We praise thee for thy goodness that withheld not his portion in the joys of this life and for thy guiding hand along the way of his pilgrimage. Especially do we thank thee for thy grace that kindled in him the love of thy name; that enabled him to fight the good fight, endure unto the end, and become more than conqueror through him that loveth us.

Do thou bless, as only thou canst bless, with that peace which the world can neither give nor take away, those most near and dear to him. Be thou to them, O Father of mercies, an unfailing source of comfort and strength and grant them the assurance that 'life is ever lord of death and (that) love can never lose its own!'

And finally, O Lord, as thou dost accept our humble thanksgiving for him whom we have loved and lost a while, wilt thou grant that we, being steadfast in faith, joyful through hope, and rooted in love, may be to him and to all who have died in the faith living memorials through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen."

Rev. Harry L. Meyer, pastor of the host church, gave greetings, to which the Moderator, Rev. Horace G. Robson, responded.

Mr. Robson appointed the following committees:

Business Committee: Rev. Kendig B. Cully, Haverhill, Chairman; Mrs. Axel H. Anderson, East Walpole; Mrs. Edward W. Hale, Framingham; Rev. Charles G. Christianson, Dalton; Mr. Charles G. Hansen, East Boston; Rev. Richard A. Wolff, Westwood.

Tellers: Rev. Alfred R. Winham, Amesbury, Chairman; Rev. George F. Fisher, Springfield; Rev. J. Everett Bodge, Melrose; Rev. Irving E. Howard, Worcester; Rev. Robert J. Bills, Uxbridge; Rev. Leonard W. Fowler, Athol; Rev. John G. Gaskill, Andover.

Credentials Committee: Rev. John A. Martin, West Boylston, Chairman; Rev. Floyd L. Roberts, Pittsfield; Mrs. Frank Auchter, Wilbraham; Rev. Philip M. Kelsey, Taunton; Mr. James A. Cushman, Wellfleet; Mrs. Chester A. Wheeler, Worcester.

Mr. J. Howard Hayes, Chairman of the Trustees, reported for that body, and Mr. Arthur W. Davis presented the Treasurer's report together with a statement on behalf of the Massachusetts Congregational Fund, which serves the churches of the State as an investment trust. These reports were accepted by vote.

The following Staff members were presented, and each spoke briefly: Mrs. Adolph G. Ekdahl; Rev. Kenneth D. Beckwith; Rev. Baldwin W. Callahan; Rev. John L. Lobingier, who also presented his new assistant, Rev. T. Chipman Day; and Rev. Myron W. Fowell.

Rev. Albert Buckner Coe, Minister and President of the Conference, presented his annual report and introduced two prospective members of the Staff: Rev. Earl W. Douglas, executive secretary of the Boston City Missionary Society, who will also represent the Conference in the three Suffolk Associations; and Rev. Frank E. Duddy, who is to be executive secretary of the Worcester City Missionary Society and representative of the Conference in Worcester Central, Middlesex-Mendon and Middlesex Union Associations.

The Advance Reports were accepted as printed, with the following correction in Dr. Coe's report:

I shall ask you to accept my advance report with the inclusion of this paragraph taken from my full report, the insertion to be at the end of the first paragraph concerning the Merger:

"During the past week two members of the Continuation Committee who originally visited me, upon seeing my report, came to inform me that I had misstated their case. I asked them to write out a summary of what they had said. Here is their written statement of what they originally said: 'that if the State Conference further promotes the interests of the Merger in the light of Judge Steinbrink's decision, they will use legal weapons to prevent the consummation of the Merger on the State level.' I am glad to present this as information and place it as an addition to my advance report. However, I do not change my original statement.

The following recommendations of the Trustees were adopted:

THAT the Allotment assessments for the coming year be twenty-four cents as at present: sixteen cents for the General Council and eight cents for the Conference.

THAT for the coming year the Conference take of the undesignated gifts to Our Christian World Mission a sum equivalent to 15% of the total gifts to Our Christian World Mission, plus 1% for the Boston Seaman's Friend Society.

THAT a committee of nine be established, to be known as the Committee on the Town and Country Church, three members of which shall be elected for a term of one year, three for two years, three for three years, and thereafter three persons each year for a term of three years.

Dr. Kendig B. Cully, Chairman of the Business Committee, reported resolutions on behalf of the Social Action Committee, which were acted on as follows:

DISPLACED PERSONS

Since the Displaced Persons Act was passed by Congress in June, 1948, more than 125 assurances for individuals, married couples, and families have been offered by the people of our churches, approximately 50 of which have to date had a part in this great humanitarian project. Displaced Persons have now arrived in this country to the extent of approximately one half of those provided for through assurances offered in the name of our churches. Unforeseen difficulties have resulted in a general retardation of the rate of admission of Displaced Persons into our country, and in some instances, especially where sponsors have applied for particular persons and families, the delay in their arrival has caused no little inconvenience. While we regret this, we urge continued cooperation in this vital matter.

The so-called Blanket Assurance plan, whereby Displaced Persons are allowed to enter the country through assurances offered by the denominations, is now in operation, and preliminary results indicate a greater facility in helping these people in the months ahead.

BE IT THEREFORE RESOLVED: That

1. We express appreciation to all families and churches having a part in helping with Displaced Persons;

2. We urge all churches not yet having had a part in this work to accept responsibility for at least one individual, couple, or family, before September 1, 1950.

This resolution was adopted.

GAMBLING

A recent study of gambling, conducted by the Massachusetts Citizens Committee, reveals an amazing and disturbing increase of participation in gambling activities on the part of the American people since the close of the war.

Equally disturbing is the evidence offered that gambling is now promoted as a massive, illicit business enterprise, and has come increasingly under the control of large gambling syndicates, which in turn have exercised a sinister influence on local, state, and national government.

Conservative estimates indicate that at least $12 billion and possibly as much as $21 billion, are now diverted from channels of legitimate business investments and charity, to support gamblers, while society pays a terrific toll in moral and social consequences and in destruction of human values. Therefore be it

RESOLVED: That we urge our churches to refrain from the use of gambling techniques within their own organizations. Be it further

RESOLVED: That we urge our people to:

1. Refrain from participating in gambling activities, including those based upon relatively modest amounts of money;

2. Resist and oppose patterns of gambling in organizations with which we are associated, even though for so-called good causes;

3. Insist upon the proper enforcement of Chapter 271 of the General Laws of Massachusetts, which states that gambling, the promotion and permitting of lotteries, and the selling or advertising of lottery tickets, are punishable by fines up to $2000 or imprisonment of up to one year; as well as local and federal laws against gambling.

The following amendment to this resolution was offered by Dr. Fowell:

THAT we go on record in opposition to the Beano Bill now before the General Court.

The original resolution, with the amendment, was adopted.

RACE RELATIONS

Great strides have been made toward the realization of the Christian and democratic ideal of equality of opportunity and responsibility for all. Nevertheless, we are still prone to group and generalize in our estimate of people according to a preconceived and irrational set of values, and to deny to many individuals the means for making their proper contributions to society. Therefore, be it

RESOLVED: That we underscore the need to redouble our efforts to eradicate patterns of discrimination because of age, color, race, nationality, or creed, wherever they exist as barriers to opportunity or insults to human dignity, by supporting adequate legislation and education.

This resolution was adopted.

An address, "You, Too, Can Bring Them Back Alive", was given by Rev. Mrs. Margaret Blair Johnstone of Essex Parish, Wadhams, New York.

The following greetings were received in a telegram from Mrs. Ralph M. Timberlake:

"Please extend to the 151st Annual Meeting of the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society my cordial greetings, and express my deep appreciation to the Associations, churches and individuals who have, during the past several months sent messages which have helped me realize in what high esteem so many held my husband. I am most grateful to the Board of Trustees for the beautiful illuminated scroll, which will always be cherished as a token of their affection for Ralph, and appreciation of his fifteen years as President of the Conference. Best wishes to all who are now responsible for carrying on the program of the Conference, and my prayers that the work of Christ in the Commonwealth may be strengthened under their leadership."

The session closed with hymn and prayer led, in the unavoidable absence of the Chaplain, by Rev. Roy L. Minich of Malden.

TUESDAY AFTERNOON

Dr. Roy L. Minich opened the session with devotions.

The Massachusetts Committee for the Continuation of Congregational Christian Churches presented its point of view on the Merger and the appeal, through its chairman, Rev. Joseph J. Russell of Holbrook, and the following members: Rev. Franklin G. Loehr, Rev. George W. Owen, Mr. Edward F. Mann, Mr. James A. Cushman, and Rev. Harry R. Butman.

Acting for the Business Committee, Dr. Cully presented Rev. Eugene M. Bushong, who made a statement on behalf of an informal committee in favor of an appeal on the Merger case, with a request for contributions to aid the appeal.

Dr. Cully presented the following resolutions, all of which were adopted:

GAMBLING

BE IT RESOLVED: That we urge our people to write or wire their senators and representatives in the General Court, urging the defeat of the Beano Bill.

CIVIL LIBERTIES

We believe that the greatest calamity which can befall democracy is to be seen in a concern for the means of its defense which is so great that it uses undemocratic methods in that defense. We believe that the Mundt-Nixon bill represents a type of legislation which, although well intended, would ultimately destroy the very institutions it seeks to protect. Therefore, be it

RESOLVED: That we call upon the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society to register its opposition to the Mundt-Nixon bill and all similar bills at both state and national levels, and to reaffirm our faith in true democratic practices, to meet the challenge of our times. We are specifically opposed to the national Mundt-Nixon bill and to Massachusetts House Bill No. 2205, both of which we believe represent greater dangers than those they seek to overcome.

PENAL INSTITUTIONS

We favor legislation designed to aid more largely in the rehabilitation of criminal offenders during the period of their confinement in penal institutions, and urge support of House Bill No. 2404, which would make possible more adequate work and rehabilitation programs for those confined in the Women's Reformatory in Framingham.

We also believe that the equalization of penalties for men and women upon conviction for similar crimes is in keeping with the principles of democratic government. Too long have women been penalized more heavily than men for exactly the same crimes.

We urge, therefore, further revision of laws defining criminal offenses and providing for punishment in such a way as to represent greater justice and more enlightened policies of penology.

PUBLIC SCHOOLS

RESOLVED: That we reaffirm our high regard for free public schools as a means of training children for life in a Christian, democratic society;

THAT we view these schools as partners with the churches in establishing such Christian virtues as honesty, industry, charity, justice, respect for others, obedience to law, and temperance;

THAT we view with great concern the frequent lack of proper school facilities, trained teachers, and financial support in this period of increasing school enrollment;

THAT we deplore the fact that Massachusetts has not moved ahead in recent years, as have many other states, by way of improving buildings, increasing teachers' salaries, raising educational requirements for teachers, and strengthening the morale of students and teachers.

A resolution on temperance was referred back to the Business Committee.

The following resolutions, presented by Dr. Cully, on behalf of the Social Action Committee, were adopted:

TEMPERANCE

WHEREAS the results of the use of liquor are making themselves evident throughout all our communities, and

WHEREAS the large profits of the industry result in tremendous advertising displays in magazines, newspapers, television, on the stage and in the movies, and

WHEREAS the public is subject to indignities resulting in the invasion of ordinary rights of young people and adults on the streets, in the subways, and in public conveyances:

Therefore we RECOMMEND

1. That we call attention to the legal requirements that temperance be taught in the public schools. We urge strict observance and enforcement of this law, and commend those school authorities who are heeding this law.

2. That Christian individuals be outspoken against the serving of liquor in organizations on social occasions of which they are a part.

3. That we commend the Christian Science Monitor and other periodicals for their refusal to publish liquor advertising.

4. That we commend the Massachusetts Legislature for passing House Bill 815, designed to abolish the false-front restaurants which have been saloons in disguise. We urge the full co-operation of local licensing committees and police forces in the interest of proper enforcement of this new law.

5. That we commend to ministers the preaching of temperance sermons, the securing of training relative to helping alcoholics, and the conducting of seminars and conferences to discuss matters pertaining to the prevention and control of alcoholism.

6. That we commend Alcoholics Anonymous for their effective work in the rehabilitation of alcoholics.

INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS

In view of the extent to which the nations of the world look to America at this time for leadership and practical help for the achievement of world order and peace, we recommend to our representatives in Washington the following, for consideration in our foreign policy:

1. Vigorous support of the United Nations. We do not agree with the suggestion that the United Nations be reorganized in a form which would exclude Russia and other Communist countries. Such a step would, we believe, widen the existing chasm between East and West and make war more probable. We urge, on the contrary, that the United States increase its financial support of the United Nations; that it work through the United Nations wherever possible; and that a careful study be made of proposals for strengthening the organization, such as modifying the use of the veto in the Security Council.

2. A bold and creative program of technical aid to the underdeveloped countries, to be conducted primarily through the United Nations. We support the suggestion of Senator Brien MacMahon, urging the use of the resources of all nations for the rehabilitation of the people of the world, as a first step in a broadly-conceived international action to lift the living standards of the world and to establish peace.

3. A determined effort to bring our domestic life into harmony with the Universal Declaration of Human Rights. The fact is that our struggle against totalitarianism and our advocacy of human rights are weakened by the denial of civil rights to many of our own citizens. What we are, in some areas of our American life, speaks so loudly that the people of other countries cannot hear what we say in behalf of democracy.

4. Determined exploration of the possibilities of world government. We do not urge world government as a practicable alternative to war in the years immediately ahead, but we believe that the facts of our interdependent world call for something more than lip-service to the ultimate goal of world government.

5. A refusal to accept our present differences with the Soviet Union as irreconcilable and war as inevitable. We deplore any policy which assumes that our case is wholly righteous and that the Soviet Union has no cause at all to fear or suspect the Western nations. Such an attitude is not in accord with the facts and it can have no issue save in a war of annihilation.

6. A re-examination of our approach to the problem of the control of atomic energy. We suggest that the control of atomic energy cannot be separated from the whole problem of peace. We therefore urge our government to take the lead in outlawing the use of the atomic and hydrogen bombs. As Christians we reject the theory that the mass annihilation of people is ever justifiable.

COMIC BOOKS

Whereas we recognize some progress has been made in voluntary control of undesirable comics and salacious literature, we continue to urge the establishment of local committees to check facts, write letters to magazines, censor use of pornographic pictures by calling upon newsdealers, and holding conferences. We continue to urge that censorship be exercised primarily through educational influence rather than legislation.

AMNESTY FOR CONSCIENTIOUS OBJECTORS

Some thousands of conscientious objectors to the World War II draft still have limitations upon their citizenship because of having been convicted of the felony of disobedience to the demand of military service. A considerable number are still serving prison terms because of their stand for the sake of conscience. Regardless of our opinions about military service, we agree that it is unjust to continue penalizing those who have taken seriously the traditional American belief in the integrity of conscience.

We note further that eight Presidents, beginning with Washington's pardon of the Whiskey Rebellion participants, and continuing through Franklin Roosevelt's Christmas amnesty to World War I conscientious objectors, have followed the policy of pardoning political offenders.

Therefore we urgently petition President Truman forthwith to grant full pardon and restoration of citizenship rights to these conscientious objectors.

JAPAN INTERNATIONAL CHRISTIAN UNIVERSITY FOUNDATION, INC.

WHEREAS American Christians now have an opportunity to extend the hand of Christian fellowship to the Japanese, in helping them to the reconstruction of their new democratic State, and

WHEREAS the Japan International Christian University Foundation, Inc., has been organized to establish and help to maintain a Christian University of high academic standards on a Christian basis through an appeal for $10,000,000 from the United States and Canada, and

WHEREAS the quota for the State of Massachusetts is $382,200., in which we Congregationalists desire to have our share, and

WHEREAS the General Council of the Congregational Christian Churches, American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions, and the Committee on Women's Work, have endorsed and recommended the project,

BE IT RESOLVED: That the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society endorse this project and recommend its support to our people.

The following resolution, presented by a group of individuals, was passed by a vote of 108 to 56:

RESOLVED: That the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society urge individuals to write to President Truman and members of Congress opposing the appointment of another representative to the Vatican.

We follow the recommendation of the Federal Council of Churches of Christ in America, which urges us to give special attention to the principle of the separation of Church and State, which is being challenged at this point. We take this position because:

1. We recognize that tremendous pressure is being exerted on President Truman by the Catholic Hierarchy to accredit a permanent envoy to the Vatican.

2. It is contrary to American tradition to give special recognition to any religious group. We covet no special privilege for ourselves or any one else.

3. In a time of growing totalitarian tendencies we, as Congregational Christians, interested in pure democracy, wish to take a firm stand against any possible danger towards Church and State alliance.

The following resolutions, presented by the Business Committee, were adopted:

Inasmuch as this, the 151st Annual Meeting of the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society, has enjoyed the hospitality, the spiritual and material blessings of the many groups and individuals of Fall River during its stay here, it is therefore

RESOLVED: That we extend deep appreciation and heartfelt thanks

1. To Central Church, with special recognition of the outstanding services rendered by the Hospitality and Arrangements Committee, and the pastor;

2. To the following churches, assisting in conducting meetings and the serving of luncheons: the Church of the Ascension; the First Congregational Church; and to the Masons.

3. To the many individuals outside of this fellowship who have opened their homes in order that all might find adequate lodging;

4. To the management of the Hotel Mellen, who have earnestly and graciously served many;

5. To the Press, who have given full coverage of all the meetings of the Conference;

6. To the Mayor and City officials of Fall River, especially the Police Department, for their complete co-operation in facilitating traffic problems and in giving courteous and constant attention to all our needs, even beyond the point of service.

Truly with such loyal friends to help us, our Conference has been able to complete its business free from any disturbance, and full of busy activity, joy and peace.

RESOLVED: That we express to our retiring Moderator, Rev. Horace G. Robson, our deep appreciation for his skillful, gracious and understanding leadership during the entire Annual Meeting; and to our Minister and President, the Secretary, and all others from our Boston headquarters, for their untiring and fruitful efforts on behalf of the Conference; wishing them continued health and joy in service, and promising them our prayers to God on their behalf.

On a motion made and seconded, it was VOTED: That the Conference acknowledge the invitation from Grace Church, Framingham, to hold its next Annual Meeting there, and to refer the invitation as well as any others which may be forthcoming, to the Board of Trustees and the Staff of the Conference for action.

VOTED: That the following report of the Credentials Committee be accepted:

Delegates registered	292
Ministers registered	248
Guests registered	321
Ex officio registered	30
Total	891

The Necrology for 1949-1950 was presented by the President of the Conference. (See page 103).

Rev. Douglas Horton, Minister of the General Council, addressed the Conference on "The Larger Fellowship".

This was followed by the presentation of the new Moderator, Mr. Sidney F. Law.

The closing devotions were led by Chaplain Bond, who offered the following prayer:

Almighty and Eternal God, thou Father of us all, as thou hast begun a good work in us, wilt thou perform it until the day of Jesus Christ; grant that we may ever remain steadfast in faith, united in spirit, and charitable in purpose. Draw us to thyself, O Lord, and grant us thy Holy Spirit.

Give us wisdom and strength sufficient unto our tasks, for we confess that alone we cannot bear the load of the work we have to do for Christ and thy Kingdom. Seeing, we see not and hearing, we hear not; grant us eyes to see and ears to hear and hearts to understand. We can do nothing unless thou prosper the work of our hands upon us; in our weakness make us strong, O Lord! We believe; help thou our unbelief! Restore unto us the joy of thy salvation and make us to be in spirit and in truth the living, ministering Body of Christ.

If we have here done or said that which is displeasing to thee, wilt thou forgive. We would be thine; let us never fall away from thee.

We pray thy blessing upon all thy people everywhere, that thou wouldst be pleased in thine infinite wisdom to work thy Holy and Blessed Will upon us and in us, fashioning us into one united Church. Whatever be our differences, great or small, make us ever mindful that we are all one in Christ Jesus. Let nothing break the blessed bond of union between believers, but may it be increasingly strengthened in all thy people everywhere for the sake of thy Son, our Saviour.

Finally, we commend one another to thy care and guidance as we return to our churches to do the work we have to do; may we go strengthened and sustained in the assurance that thou art sufficient unto all our need, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Adjournment was followed by a second showing of the motion picture, "Second Chance".

Reverend Albert Buckner Coe, D.D., President,

Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society,

Boston, Massachusetts.

Sir:

We have examined the balance sheets of Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society and of Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society, Trustee, as at March 31, 1950, and the related statements of income for the year ended at that date. Our examination was made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, and accordingly included such tests of the accounting records and such other auditing procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances.

The securities representing the invested funds at March 31, 1950, were verified by inspection, and we confirmed the cash in banks and in office at that date.

In our opinion, the accompanying balance sheets and related statements of income present fairly the financial position of the Society and of the Society as Trustee, respectively, at March 31, 1950, and the results of their operations for the year ended at that date in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles applied on a basis consistent with that of the preceding year.

PATTERSON, TEELE AND DENNIS

ALLOTMENT ACCOUNT

In 1927 the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and the Massachusetts Home Missionary Society were united in a single corporation. Previous to that time, the National Council of Congregational Churches and the Conference had paid their expenses for meetings and administration by thirteen cents collected for each church member. It seems right that the Conference part of our organization should still pay its own charges. Twenty-four cents per member is asked this year of the Churches. Sixteen cents of the twenty-four goes to the General Council (formerly The National Council) and eight cents is kept by the Conference. The collection of the eight cents per member is the attempt of the Conference part of our organization to pay its expenses and not to become a charge upon missionary funds.

BEQUESTS

Bequests to the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society are used to aid weak churches and to promote the work and interests of the Conference in the State. Bequests may be made permanent funds by the donor, and the Conference restricted to the use of the income only. The practice of the Conference is to divide unrestricted legacies into three equal parts. One part is used for current work, one part is added to the Permanent Legacy Fund, the income only of which is used for general purposes; and the third part is added to a Contingent Fund, the principal of which may be drawn upon to care for special undertakings or to avoid a deficit.

If, on the other hand, a testator specifies that his entire legacy is to be expended as current income and that he does not wish it invested in whole or in part, these directions will be carefully observed.

Bequests to the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society pay no Massachusetts inheritance tax.

FORM OF BEQUEST

I give to the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society incorporated under the laws of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, the sum of

....Dollars.

Aids churches financially, promotes cooperation among churches, and sponsors interchurch activities in Worcester and vicinity.

Contributions for home missions from the churches in Worcester, to be credited on the apportionment, should be sent to the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society. Contributions for the local work, given in addition to the apportionment and not to be credited as a part of it, should be sent to the treasurer of the Worcester City Missionary Society.

GRANTS FROM THE MASSACHUSETTS CONGREGATIONAL CONFERENCE AND MISSIONARY SOCIETY

1. Wherever a community is too far from a church to benefit from its privileges, the Conference encourages the establishment of regular religious services, and, if possible, the organization of a church, or a branch of a neighboring church.

2. Applications by any church for financial aid should be made by the vote of the church, and upon forms furnished by the Conference, and should have the approval of the Advisory or Grants Committee of the local Association of Churches.

3. Churches applying for aid should show that they have met in full all financial obligations to their ministers and are doing their utmost toward self-support.

4. In granting aid the Conference will appropriate different amounts according to the necessity, importance, and prospects of each field.

5. Every church aided by the Conference should consult the President or Secretary before making arrangements for pastoral service.

6. Whenever the service of the minister or other worker, for whose support an appropriation is made, shall terminate, the appropriation shall lapse, except for special reasons satisfactory to the President.

7. The Conference advocates adequate compensation for every minister and worker.

8. The Conference favors hearty co-operation with other denominations, the avoidance of overlapping and competing work, and the consolidation or federation of churches of different denominations in over-churched communities.

9. We are indicating in this copy of the Minutes the churches that received Conference grants in the year 1949-1950 by placing the reference § before the names of these churches in the section of the Minutes entitled "Associations of Churches and Ministerial Standing." In cases where the grant was discontinued during the year the letter "d" appears after the reference §. Special grants will be listed, as usual, on the following page.

STATISTICAL TABLES

EXPLANATORY

The tables which follow comprise:

1. The statistics of the churches, giving the ministers, church membership, additions removals, Sunday schools, and the amount of benevolences and expenses. These tables, in accordance with the vote of the Conference, in 1887, are made to conform to those in the Year Book.
2. The Associations of the churches, with the names of officers.
3. The Ministerial Standing, giving the date of ordination of each minister, the date of membership, the residence and his "employment."
4. The Ministerial Record containing lists of ordinations, and deaths.

The tables of the first part contain the names of all the Congregational churches in Massachusetts, the towns and cities being arranged alphabetically. If the post office name of the church and the town name differ, a cross reference on the page where the post office name would naturally be found will direct the reader to the town name. Stars before the names of churches indicate the payment of the allotment dues for the year reported.

Church members are reported as numbered January 1, 1950. Admissions and removals cover the year 1949. "Sunday school" includes total membership of officers, teachers and scholars, January 1, 1950, or when the school is in operation (if not at that date), covering "branch schools," "mission schools" and "home departments," so far as maintained by the reporting church.

The months and days in the dates of the organization of churches are omitted. They will be found in the publications of 1873, those of churches since organized being given in the "Minutes" of each year. Also the months and days in the dates of ordination and installation of ministers are omitted. The former may be found in the lists of the local Associations which follow the tables.

"Ordained" denotes the date on which the person was originally set apart to the ministry by the "laying-on of hands." "Called" denotes the date of the beginning of his present pastorate.

In accordance with the recommendation of the General Council, in the Statistical Tables pastors installed are marked "i"; pastors duly called by their churches, but not installed or recognized by council, are not marked; "y" before a pastor's name indicates that he has a yoked (double or triple) field.

Blanks in any column of figures are never equivalent to "none," but mean "no report", but blanks in the column of ministers do mean that the church has no pastor or acting pastor, and the blank is left for the convenience of those who note changes.

Under Sunday Schools, "c" denotes cradle roll.

In the final column, under valuation of church property, an asterisk * indicates that the church has a parsonage (value included), or in a very few cases that house rent for the minister is paid in addition to the stated salary. An "x" indicates that repairs were made on church property during the year.

The condensed form in which the Year Book tables are published offers the reader an opportunity for personal computation, as, for example, to find the number of female members, subtract the number of male members from the total.

In reporting the statistics of federated churches, figures given pertaining to membership and gifts on the apportionment are for the Congregational church within the federated church. Figures pertaining to average attendance, Church School enrollment, membership in young people's organizations, contributions to home expenses are usually for all the churches grouped together in the federated church.

Correspondence with the Treasurer concerning such annuity agreements is invited.

TRUST FUNDS

The Massachusetts Congregational Fund, organized during the year 1945 under the auspices of the Conference, is now administering trust funds of Congregational churches and organizations in Massachusetts aggregating $3,000,000, including the funds of the Conference.

It is not an easy matter for church or parish committees, often made up of those without broad experience in investment matters, to guard the safety of church trust funds. We welcome inquiries from Congregational churches in Massachusetts relative to caring for their trust or endowment funds.

HISTORICAL SKETCH

The Massachusetts Missionary Society was organized on May 29, 1799, in Boston. There were thirty-eight charter members, mainly followers of the theology of Samuel Hopkins. They were "impelled by a deep commiseration for the unhappy state of those who were perishing for lack of those precious means of salvation which we enjoy." Their intention was to spread "the knowledge of the glorious Gospel of Christ among the poor Heathens and in those remote parts of our country in which the inhabitants had not enjoyed the benefits of a Christian ministry and Christian ordinances," i.e., outside Massachusetts. Nathaniel Emmons, fifty-four years pastor at Franklin, was the first president.

In 1827 the Massachusetts Missionary Society and the Domestic Missionary Society of Massachusetts Proper were united under the name of the Massachusetts Missionary Society. This meant that while the Domestic Missionary Society of Massachusetts Proper lost its name, the Massachusetts Missionary Society was henceforth to work almost exclusively in Massachusetts.

The Massachusetts Missionary Society became the Massachusetts "Home" Missionary Society in 1844. This was simply to emphasize that the work of the Society had become exclusively for America and for the Massachusetts part of America.

The Massachusetts Home Missionary Society and the Massachusetts Congregational Conference were united under the name of the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society in 1927. This was the result of twenty-seven years' agitation, accelerated by a recommendation of the National Council in 1907. The charter of the Massachusetts Home Missionary Society was used as the basis for the union of the two organizations. The Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society assumes responsibility for all Congregational missionary work done in Massachusetts. It supports a staff of eleven persons who give ministerial and executive leadership to a broad program of work designed to help the churches, to develop the fellowship of the ministers and churches, and to cultivate practical support for denominational and interdenominational projects and programs.

Membership

Voting Members. Every Church or Congregation which is or shall become a member of a Congregational or a Congregational Christian Association of Churches in Massachusetts may annually choose two delegates (of whom it is suggested one shall be a layman and the other a laywoman) and these delegates, together with the pastor or pastors of each church (who shall be members ex officiis), the officers of the Conference (including the members of the Board of Trustees and any person who shall have been elected an Officer Emeritus), the committee members of the Conference and those persons who, prior to May 22, 1923, became life members of the Massachusetts Home Missionary Society, shall constitute the voting membership of the Conference; provided, however, that pastors shall have the privileges of honorary members only unless they shall have membership in Congregational Christian Associations regularly holding ministerial standing.

Honorary Members. Delegates from corresponding bodies and persons appointed to speak before the Conference, together with all persons heretofore constituted honorary members of the Massachusetts Home Missionary Society, such persons as may be made honorary members by a vote of the Board of Trustees, and such other persons as the Conference may from time to time vote to admit, shall be honorary members of the Conference, with the privilege of speaking, but without vote.

ARTICLE V

Officers

1. There shall be a Moderator, one or more vice-Moderators, a Recording Secretary, a Chairman and a vice-Chairman of the Department of Woman's Work (See Article VIII, Sec. 1, (b)), a Chairman and vice-Chairman of the Massachusetts Congregational Laymen's Council (See Article VIII, Sec. 2, (b)), all of whom shall be nominated by the Nominating Committee hereinafter provided for, and elected by ballot at each annual meeting of the Conference for a term of one year and until their respective successors are chosen.

2. The executive officers of the Conference shall be a President, a Secretary, a Treasurer, Field Secretaries, a Director of Woman's Work, a Secretary of Missions and Stewardship, and a Secretary of Religious Education. These officers shall constitute the Executive Staff. They shall be nominated by the Board of Trustees meeting in executive session, and elected by ballot at each annual meeting of the Conference for a term of one year and until their respective successors are chosen. They shall bear such additional titles as the Conference or the Board of Trustees may determine.

3. "The Conference shall elect by ballot a Board of Trustees consisting of one member from each Association of churches, six members at large who shall be known for their special knowledge of financial affairs of whom one shall be chosen each even numbered year and two, — beginning with the year 1935, — each odd numbered year, the chairman and vice-chairman of the Woman's Department ex-officiis, the chairman and vice-chairman of the Massachusetts Congregational Laymen's Council ex officiis, and the Moderator ex officio." One-third of the representatives of the Associations upon the Board shall be ministers, one-third laymen, and one-third laywomen as nearly as may be. Nine members shall constitute a quorum. The term of office shall be four years, and no member having served a full term shall be eligible for re-election until after one year, but members-at-large, chosen for their knowledge of financial affairs, may serve for two consecutive terms. The present Trustees shall remain in office until the expiration of their terms.

The Conference shall from time to time designate the Associations from which Trustees are to be chosen in the successive years and determine whether the Trustee to be chosen from a particular Association in any year shall be a minister, a layman, or a laywoman.

Each Association shall be notified by the Secretary of the Conference on or before September 15 when it is its turn to propose to the nominating committee a candidate for membership upon the Board, and whether such candidate should be a minister, a layman or a laywoman, and the names of such candidates shall be reported to the Secretary before April 1, of each year. The Secretary upon the receipt of these names shall communicate them to the nominating committee on or before April 10. In case any Association fails to propose a candidate the Board of Trustees shall perform this duty. This method of choosing Trustees shall commence at the close of the 1933 Conference.

At its first meeting after each annual meeting of the Conference the Board shall choose one of its members to serve as chairman for the ensuing year. Except as otherwise provided in the charter of the Conference or in these by-laws, the Board shall administer and dispose of the property of the Conference and shall manage all its business and affairs, and all officers and agents of the Conference shall act under its direction. The Board shall cause the accounts of the Treasurer to be audited at least once each year by certified public accountants selected by the Board. Without restricting the generality of the foregoing, the Board shall in particular have the following powers:

(a) To choose a Clerk, to appoint its own meetings and form its own rules of business, to appoint sub-committees and to delegate any of its powers to such committees.

(b) To appoint and, at pleasure, remove all agents of the Conference and to define their duties.

(c) To fill any vacancy in any office of the Conference (including vacancies in the membership of the Board) until the vacancy shall be filled at a succeeding meeting of the Conference.

(d) To remove any officer of the Conference (other than members of the Board) who may be guilty of disregard of his duties or of such conduct as shall be seriously prejudicial to the interests of the Conference.

(e) To direct efforts to promote missionary interest and giving among the Congregational churches of the Commonwealth.

4. The terms of all officers, save when chosen to fill vacancies, shall begin at the close of the meeting at which they are elected.

Duties of Officers

1. The Moderator, or in his absence, one of the vice-Moderators, shall preside over all meetings of the Conference.

2. The President shall be the chief executive officer of the Conference and shall, subject to the direction of the Conference and of its Board of Trustees, have general charge of its missionary and benevolent work and of its other activities. He shall be a member ex officio of all standing committees named in the by-laws with the exception of the nominating committee. He shall have the power to delegate to members of the Staff the authority to represent him upon any of the said standing committees. He shall be the representative of the Conference and of its Board of Trustees among all the churches (both those financially independent and those aided by the funds of the Conference) and in all denominational and interdenominational gatherings (including meetings of state Superintendents) unless representation is otherwise provided. He may seek to assist pastors and churches with fraternal counsel. He shall keep informed as to opportunities for extension work through founding new churches or strengthening old ones and shall recommend to the Conference and to the Board of Trustees measures for meeting such opportunities.

3. The Secretary shall keep the records of the Conference, except as hereinafter provided, and shall assist in its general work under the direction of the President. He shall devote himself in co-operation with the Field Secretaries and under the direction of the President, to counseling with and assisting the churches in the area assigned to him, and shall perform such other duties as may be assigned to him by the Board of Trustees or the President. He shall have the custody of the records and of all bonds given by the treasurer as hereinafter provided. He shall furnish copies of the record certified under the seal of the Conference (which shall be in his keeping) to such persons as may be entitled thereto.

The Secretary shall collect and publish in connection with the annual Report of the Conference the statistics of ministers and churches and make up the official roll of the ministers and churches in accordance with the usages of the denomination. He shall present to the Conference at its annual meeting a general statistical statement of the progress of religion in the churches for the past calendar year. He shall give suitable notice to the churches of the time and place of each annual meeting, notify officers and committees of their election or appointment and fulfill such other functions as the Conference or the Board of Trustees may from time to time direct.

4. The Treasurer shall receive and hold the property of the Conference subject to the direction of the Board of Trustees and shall keep particular accounts of the Conference's funds and of the disposal thereof. He shall, under the direction of the President, assist, so far as he may be able, in the general work of the Conference and shall perform such other duties as may be assigned to him by the Board of Trustees. He shall make a report at each annual meeting of the Conference and shall make such other reports as the Conference or the Board of Trustees may from time to time require. He shall receive all contributions for benevolences sent to him by the churches and by individuals and shall disburse the same in accordance with the instructions of the donors. He shall give such bonds for the faithful performance of his duties as may from time to time be required by the Board of Trustees.

5. The Field Secretaries shall counsel with and assist the churches in the area which may from time to time be assigned to them by the Board of Trustees or the President.

6. The Secretary of Missions and Stewardship shall have the duty of advancing the interest of the churches in the work of missions at home and abroad. He shall, under the direction of the President, assist, so far as he may be able, in the general work of the Conference.

7. The Director of Woman's Work shall have special charge of promoting missionary interests and all other activities among the women of the Congregational churches of the Commonwealth. She shall, under the direction of the President, assist, so far as she may be able, in the general work of the Conference.

8. The Secretary of Religious Education and the Associate in Religious Education, if any, shall encourage and promote the whole program of religious education as well as Christian living and Christian activities among the Congregational churches of the State. He, or she, or they, shall, under the direction of the President, assist so far as able, in the general work of the Conference.

9. The Recording Secretary shall record the complete minutes of each annual meeting and shall transcribe and deliver the same to the Secretary. The Board of Trustees may, in their discretion, appoint a deputy to assist in the keeping of the records under the direction of the Recording Secretary.

ARTICLE VII

Retirement and Annuity

1. No person who has attained the age of seventy years shall continue as a member of the Executive Staff. With respect to employees not members of the Executive Staff, it shall be the policy of the Conference to retire every such employee upon his or her attaining the age of seventy years, provided, however, that this shall not affect the power of the Trustees temporarily to employ from time to time persons who have passed that age (including former members of the executive staff) whenever in particular cases the Trustees shall deem such temporary employment essential to the efficient conduct of the Conference's work.

2. Ordained ministers, who are members of the executive staff, shall be expected to be members of the Annuity Fund for Congregational Ministers, and the Conference shall not provide for them any other retirement annuity, except in the case of ministers who are now members under the Original Plan. Toward each annual premium in the Annuity Fund of any member of the staff the Conference shall pay each year an amount equal to 8% of the charge on his salary.

3. Lay members of the office staff shall be expected to be, so far as practicable, members of the Retirement Fund for Lay Workers, and the Conference shall pay, as the annual premium for each lay worker who is a member of the Fund, 8% of the charge on his salary. The Trustees may in their discretion grant retirement allowances to lay members of the office staff who have found it impracticable to become members of the Retirement Fund for Lay Workers.

ARTICLE VIII

Departments and Affiliated Organizations

1. There shall be a Department of Woman's Work of the Conference.

   (a) The object of this Department shall be to help to promote the entire work of the local church and to further in every way possible the cause of Christ throughout the world. The voting members of this Department shall be the women members of the Conference, together with such other women as may be determined by the rules of the Department. The Chairman, Vice-Chairman of the Department, the District Presidents, the women members of the Board of Trustees and the members of the Business Committee, as provided by the rules of the Department, shall constitute the members of the Executive Committee of the Woman's Department. This Executive Committee shall organize the membership of the Department in whatever manner it may deem needful for the effective carrying on of the Department's work.

   (b) The Department shall provide by its rules for the appointment of a nominating committee. This committee shall annually propose to the nominating committee of the Conference from among its membership a chairman and a vice-chairman of the Department, who shall be ex officiis members of the Board of Trustees of the Conference. It shall also nominate such other officers and committees as the rules of the Department shall require, to be elected by the Department at its annual meeting.

2. There shall be a Department of Laymen's Work of the Conference. It shall be called the Massachusetts Congregational Laymen's Council.

(a) The object of this Department shall be: To inspire higher conceptions of Christian citizenship for the development of democratic society and the world-wide Kingdom of God; to promote a richer fellowship of Congregational laymen through conferences, retreats, and other meetings and to co-operate with laymen of other denominations in significant Christian projects; to encourage organized laymen's groups and classes in all our churches, especially the smaller ones; to rally more men to the support of the church and to train men in worship and leadership in their church and community life.

(b) The Massachusetts Congregational Laymen's Council shall consist of sixty-two members — two from each of the Associations in the State and twenty members-at-large, who shall be elected annually by the State Conference. The Conference Nominating Committee shall receive the names of two members from each Association — or its Laymen's Organization — and the names of twenty members-at-large from the Executive Committee of the Massachusetts Laymen's Council. Should an Association fail to name candidates, the nominations for that Association shall be made by the Executive Committee of the Laymen's Council. The officers of this organization shall be a Chairman, a vice-Chairman, a Secretary and a Treasurer.

3. There shall be a Department of Young People's Work of the Conference.

(a) There shall be a Massachusetts Council of Pilgrim Fellowship, composed of two representatives from each Association, to be named by the Association Pilgrim Fellowship or Congregational Young People's organization of the Association, whatever its name may be, as it or its Executive Committee may determine. If the Congregational young people of any Association are unorganized, the Association Committee on Religious Education may name two delegates to the Massachusetts Council of Pilgrim Fellowship. The Council shall hold its annual meeting in May or at such other time as its Executive Committee may determine. At its annual meeting the Council shall plan the State youth program and elect its officers for the ensuing year.

(b) Unless otherwise determined by the Council, the State officers shall be (1) President, (2) four vice-Presidents, (3) Secretary, (4) Editor. The Executive Committee of Pilgrim Fellowship shall consist of (1) the officers, (2) the President of the preceding year, (3) an Adult Advisor to be chosen by the Council with the approval of the State Committee on Religious Education, and (4) one of the Secretaries of Religious Education on the staff of the Massachusetts Congregational Conference, who shall be designated as Executive Secretary of the Massachusetts Pilgrim Fellowship. The President and one of the vice-Presidents to be designated by the Executive Committee shall be ex officiis members of the Board of Trustees of the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society.

ARTICLE IX

Meetings

1. The Conference shall hold its regular annual meeting for the choice of officers, the hearing of reports, the discussion of matters of general interest and the transaction of other business at the appointed place on the third Monday of May, or at such other time in the month of May as the Board of Trustees may deem expedient.

2. Special meetings of the Conference shall be convened at such times and places as may be determined by the Board of Trustees, provided, however, that notice of any special meeting so convened shall, at least one week before the date of the meeting, be sent by mail to each of the churches connected with the Conference, posted in the general office of the Conference and printed in newspapers published in Boston, Worcester and Springfield, respectively.

3. The Moderator or, in his absence, one of the vice-Moderators or, in the absence of all of them some member of the Board of Trustees shall call the Conference to order.

4. At each annual meeting the Conference shall propose to the churches the annual contribution for the expenses of the General Council and for such expenses of the Conference and other purposes, as may be deemed equitable. The Trustees shall at each annual meeting present a recommendation as to the action to be taken at such meeting with reference to the allotment to be made at that meeting, unless the Conference shall have directed at a previous meeting that such recommendation be made by a designated committee.

ARTICLE X

Committees

1. Immediately after the opening of the annual meeting the Moderator shall appoint:

   (a) A Committee on Credentials, to which all credentials shall be referred.

   (b) A Business Committee, the duty of which shall be to prepare and present at each session all matters of business not presented through some other committee of the Conference.

2. The following standing committees shall be elected by viva voce vote:

   (a) A Nominating Committee composed of nine members, consisting of the retiring Moderator of each annual meeting, together with eight other members, of whom at least two shall be ministers, at least two shall be women and at least two shall be laymen. Each year the Board of Trustees, meeting in executive session, shall select four persons whom they shall nominate at the annual meeting of the Conference to be elected to serve for two years. The retiring members shall not be eligible for re-election for at least one year.

   This committee shall nominate all officers and committees whose nominations are not otherwise provided for in these by-laws.

(b) A Program Committee, of which the Secretary of the Conference and the pastor of the church which is to entertain the next annual meeting shall be members ex officiis. At each annual meeting two members shall be elected to serve for three years. This committee shall prepare the program for the next annual meeting and shall select the preacher of the annual sermon and the various speakers at each session.

(c) A Committee on Religious Education. At each annual meeting three members shall be elected to serve for three years. The duty of the Committee shall be to foster religious and missionary education in the churches and in the associations of Massachusetts. This Committee shall give advice and counsel in regard to the organized young people's work of the State. Among its various duties the Committee shall bear responsibility for planning and promoting summer camps and conferences.

(d) A Committee on Social Action, consisting of nine members, of whom three shall be elected at each annual meeting for a term of three years. It shall be the duty of the committee to promote interest in moral and social issues among the churches of the Conference. The committee shall be authorized to present and to support publicly such principles and measures as have been adopted by the Conference.

(e) A Committee on the Ministry consisting of thirty-one members: ten at large, three of whom shall be laymen or lay-women, two of the ten to be elected at each annual meeting for a term of five years; the remaining twenty-one to be composed of the Chairman of each Association Committee on the Ministry. It shall be the duty of this Committee to endeavor to establish and maintain high standards for our Congregational ministry and churches.

The Conference shall maintain a special roll of ministers to which names may have been transferred by the Associations. This special roll shall be in charge of the Conference Committee on the Ministry, and the presence of a name there shall constitute evidence that the man has been duly ordained and has had standing in a Congregational Association; but the Committee shall not issue credentials to a man whose name appears on this roll unless they find in concurrence with the Committee on the Ministry in his Association, that his character and qualifications are satisfactory.

(f) A Committee on Evangelism and Devotional Life, consisting of nine members, of whom three shall be elected at each annual meeting for a term of three years. It shall be the duty of the committee to serve as a cooperating agency of the national Commission on Evangelism and Devotional Life.

(g) A Missionary Committee. Each of the twenty-one Associations shall nominate a member of this Committee who shall represent the missionary committee of the Association. The term of office shall be three years, and the alphabetical list of Associations shall be divided into three groups, and these three groups shall rotate in making their elections.

In addition, there shall be six members-at-large, nominated by the Board of Trustees for a term of one year. Four of these persons shall be members of the Board of Trustees.

There shall also be three ex officiis members, representing the Woman's Department, the Layman's Council, and the Pilgrim Fellowship, respectively.

The Committee shall meet at least twice a year, and an executive committee shall be chosen, to meet as frequently as occasion requires. It shall be the duty of this Committee to advance the interest of the churches in the work of missions at home and abroad.

(h) A Committee on the Town and Country Church, consisting of nine members, of whom three shall be elected at each annual meeting for a term of three years. It shall be the duty of this Committee to co-operate with the national Commission on the Town and Country Church and to offer such practical helps and encouragement as may be possible and welcomed by our churches in the town and country areas.

(i) A Conference Center Committee. The operation and management of the Conference Center (to be known as "Conference Center" or some other name yet to be decided upon) shall be in the hands of a State Conference Committee, to be called the Conference Center Committee, as the agency of the Conference, responsible to the Board of Trustees. This Committee shall consist of thirty members—approximately one-third ministers, one-third laymen, and one-third lay-women—one member from each Association to be nominated annually by the Association, and nine members-at-large, to be nominated by the State Conference Nominating Committee for three-year terms, three to be elected each year —one minister, one layman, one lay-woman.

The Chairman of the Conference Center Committee shall be a member ex officio of the Board of Trustees of the State Conference and shall make a report at each meeting of the Board of Trustees.

The Conference Center Committee shall elect its own officers and sub-committee chairmen and may co-opt such additional persons as may be necessary to the effective functioning of the committees.

No member, elected or appointed, having served a full term of three consecutive years, shall be eligible to succeed himself until after the lapse of one year.

3. Such other committees as the Conference may vote to constitute shall be elected by viva voce vote at each annual meeting for such terms as the Conference shall determine. The Board of Trustees shall present at each annual meeting a list of the committees the appointment of which it recommends.

4. It shall be the general practice of the Conference, without making it an arbitrary rule, that at least one-third of its committee members be lay-women and one-third laymen.

5. The reports of all committees that are to be presented to the Conference shall be furnished to the Secretary on or before April first of each year, and shall be printed and distributed to the churches not less than two weeks before the annual meeting. These reports shall not be read to the Conference save by special order, but the Program Committee may arrange for the adequate discussion of any or all the topics presented in the reports.

ARTICLE XI

Board of Ministerial Aid

The Board of Ministerial Aid shall be the agent of the Conference in the work of aiding needy ministers and their families and shall make an annual report to the Conference. On notice of a vacancy in the membership of the Board of Ministerial Aid, the Conference shall nominate a person to fill the vacancy.

ARTICLE XII

Boston Seaman's Friend Society

The Boston Seaman's Friend Society shall be the agent of the Conference in the work of promoting the spiritual and temporal welfare of seamen and shall make an annual report to the Conference. The Conference shall annually elect five members of the Society for a term of three years each.

ARTICLE XIII

Board of Pastoral Supply

The Conference shall elect nine members to represent it on the Congregational Board of Pastoral Supply, three members to be elected each year to serve for a period of three years. The Board shall, through its Secretary, make an annual report to the Conference.

ARTICLE XIV

Corporate Seal

The seal of the Conference shall consist of two or more concentric circles, with the words "Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society" around the circumference between these circles and the words "Inc., 1808" within the inner circle.

ARTICLE XV

Special Orders

1. The place of the next annual meeting shall be recommended each year by the Business Committee and designated by vote of the Conference.

2. All matters of business presented to the Conference, except those presented through duly appointed committees of the Conference, shall be referred to the Business Committee unless referred to some other committee by special vote of the Conference.

3. All matters of business referred to the Business Committee shall be reported for action before the final adjournment of the annual meeting.

4. As far as possible, all business of the Conference shall be completed by noon of the second day of the annual meeting.

ARTICLE XVI

Rules of Order

The Rules of Order shall be those of common parliamentary usage subject to the following specifications:

(a) No member shall speak more than twice on the same question without leave of the Conference.

(b) When a question is before the Conference the Moderator shall entertain motions only as follows: — to adjourn, to table, for the previous question, to postpone to a fixed time, to commit, to amend or to postpone indefinitely; these several motions shall have precedence in the foregoing order.

ARTICLE XVII

Amendments

1. These by-laws, except Articles II and III, may be amended at any regularly called meeting of the Conference by a two-thirds vote, provided the amendment was proposed at the preceding annual meeting of the Conference or is recommended by the Board of Trustees.

2. Articles II and III may be amended by a two-thirds vote, but only after the proposed amendment has been submitted to the Conference in writing at the previous annual meeting and notice has been sent to the several churches connected with the Conference at least three months prior to the meeting at which action is to be taken.

MINUTES OF THE 152ND ANNUAL MEETING OF THE MASSACHUSETTS CONGREGATIONAL CONFERENCE AND MISSIONARY SOCIETY

May 13, 14, 15, 1951

Grace Congregational Church
Framingham, Massachusetts

SUNDAY AFTERNOON

Dedication services were held at our new Conference Center with an estimated ten thousand in attendance. Inspection of the house and grounds was from three to five p.m. At five p.m., there was an organ recital given by Charles L. Hickman of Central Church, Worcester, and Miss Shirley Collins of Chestnut Street Church, Worcester. The service of dedication was at six p.m., with music by a large choir directed by Mr. Hickman, with Miss Collins at the organ. Invocation was by Rev. Edward W. Hale of Framingham; the dedicatory address by Rev. Dr. Frederick M. Meek, pastor of Old South Church, Boston; the dedicatory prayer by Rev. Dr. Albert Buckner Coe; and benediction by Rev. John Whitney MacNeil of Grace Church, Framingham.

At seven-forty-five p.m., Roland Hayes, tenor, gave a concert in the Framingham Municipal Auditorium, to a capacity audience.

The offering for the Conference Center Fund in cash and pledges amounted to $12,452.

MONDAY MORNING

The Conference began with registration and review of exhibits at eight-thirty a.m. At nine-fifteen the Chaplain, Rev. Chalmers Coe of Amherst, led the service of worship, which was followed by greetings from the host pastor, Rev. John Whitney MacNeil, and response from Rev. Dr. Roy L. Minich, acting Moderator.

Dr. Minich appointed the following committees:

Business Committee: Rev. Robert M. Grey of Woburn, Chairman; Mr. William F. Farley of Manomet; Rev. Lester G. Myers, Brockton; Mrs. Albert W. Patton, Pittsfield; Rev. Walter A. Telfer, Holyoke; Mr. Arthur E. Wiltsie, Springfield; Mrs. Edwin E. Aiken of Baldwinville.

Credentials Committee: Rev. Stephen C. Lang, Somerville, Chairman; Mr. Robert Appleton, Boston; Mrs. Lynn Rockwell, South Wellfleet; Rev. Harold L. Nevers, Pittsfield.

Ushers: Rev. Paul E. Callahan, Ballard Vale; Rev. Robert E. Crawford, Fitchburg; Rev. John D. Mowrey, Shelburne Falls; and Rev. Allyn K. Wadleigh, Oxford.

Rev. Dr. Kendig B. Cully of Haverhill, Chairman of the Trustees, presented the report of that Board with recommendations for amendments to the By-Laws, and it was voted that the report be accepted and its recommendations referred to the Business Committee, to be presented to the Conference later in the meeting.

On recommendation of the Trustees it was voted

THAT the Allotment assessments for the year be twenty-four cents per member, as at present.

Also on recommendation of the Trustees it was voted

THAT the Conference retain 15% of the gifts to Our Christian World Mission, plus 1% for the Boston Seaman's Friend Society.

The Treasurer's report was presented by Mr. Arthur W. Davis, together with the auditor's report, and these were accepted as printed. Mr. Davis also made a statement concerning the availability of the Massachusetts Congregational Fund as a medium of investment for the churches of the Conference. This Fund now exceeds four million dollars.

Presenting the Advance Reports as printed, Dr. Myron W. Fowell pointed out that paragraph 2, page 25, in the report of the Town and Country Church Committee, should be omitted, as it is a repetition. The Reports were accepted, with this change.

Dr. Coe was presented by the Moderator, and in turn introduced the members of his staff, each of whom spoke briefly. Dr. Coe then presented his report, emphasizing the lines of work that need to be undertaken in view of the fact that our Conference has "the dignity of age and the responsibility of size."

Rev. Robert M. Grey of Woburn, Chairman of the Business Committee, introduced the following resolution:

> WHEREAS it is the purpose of the Conference to conduct its business intelligently, therefore be it
> RESOLVED: That those who address the meeting do so as if moved by a strong desire to be heard and understood.

This resolution was accepted by applause, without formal action.

At eleven-thirty Dr. Samuel C. Kincheloe of Chicago Theological Seminary spoke on "The Sociology of Grace—In the City."

The session closed at twelve-ten with hymn and prayer led by the Chaplain.

MONDAY EVENING

At six-thirty p.m. a supper for women was served in the Memorial Auditorium, followed at eight o'clock by the evening session of the Annual Meeting of the Department of Woman's Work, in Grace Church. TUESDAY MORNING

At eight-thirty a communion service was led by Rev. Dr. Albert Buckner Coe, with a communion meditation by Rev. William J. Rees of Lowell.

The business session opened with prayer by the Chaplain.

Rev. John R. Chapman made a statement on a Vital Program of Evangelism.

The Business Committee introduced the changes in the By-Laws as proposed by the Trustees, which were adopted as follows:

THAT the first sentence of Article V, Section 2, of the Conference By-Laws, which now reads: "The Executive officers of the Conference shall be a President, a Secretary, a Treasurer, Field Secretaries, a Secretary of Missionary Education and Promotion, a Secretary of the Department of Woman's Work and a Secretary of Religious Education," be changed to read: "The executive officers of the Conference shall be a President, a Secretary, a Treasurer, Field Secretaries, a Director of Woman's Work, a Secretary of Missions and Stewardship, and a Secretary of Religious Education."

THAT the first sentence of Article VI, Section 6, which now reads: "The Secretary of Missionary Education and Promotion shall have the duty . . . etc.," be changed to read: "The Secretary of Missions and Stewardship shall have the duty . . . etc."

THAT the first sentence of Article VI, Section 7, which now reads: "The Secretary of the Department of Woman's Work shall have special charge . . . etc.," be changed to read: "The Director of Woman's Work shall have special charge . . . etc."

THAT the words italicized be added to Article VI, Section 8, so that it shall read as follows: "The Secretary of Religious Education and the Associate in Religious Education, if any, shall encourage and promote the whole program of religious education as well as Christian living and Christian activities among the Congregational churches of the state. He, or she, or they, shall, under the direction of the President, assist so far as able, in the general work of the Conference."

THAT Article X, Section 2, (g), paragraph two, which now reads: "In addition, there shall be six members-at-large, nominated by the Board of Trustees for a term of four years. Four of these persons shall be members of the Board of Trustees," be changed to read: "In addition, there shall be six members-at-large, nominated by the Board of Trustees for a term of one year. Four of these persons shall be members of the Board of Trustees."

On recommendation of the Trustees it was also voted

THAT the following provisions for the operation and management of the Conference Center be made as an amendment and addition to the By-Laws of the Conference:

The operation and management of the Conference Center (to be known as "Conference Center" or some other name yet to be decided upon) shall be in the hands of a State Conference Committee, to be called the Conference Center Committee, as the agency of the Conference, responsible to the Board of Trustees. This Committee shall consist of thirty members—approximately one-third ministers, one-third laymen, and one-third lay-women—one member from each Association to be nominated annually by the Association, and nine members-at-large, to be nominated by the State Conference Nominating Committee for three-year terms, three to be elected each year—one minister, one layman, one lay-woman.

The Chairman of the Conference Center Committee shall be a member ex officio of the Board of Trustees of the State Conference and shall make a report at each meeting of the Board of Trustees.

The Conference Center Committee shall elect its own officers and sub-committee chairmen and may co-opt such additional persons as may be necessary to the effective functioning of the committees.

No member, elected or appointed, having served a full term of three consecutive years, shall be eligible to succeed himself until after the lapse of one year.

The report of the Nominating Committee was presented by Rev. Howard E. Pomeroy. There being no further nominations, the officers were elected by ballot, as printed on page 16. Committees of the Conference and officers of the Laymen's Council were elected by acclaim. (See pages 18–28.) The Laymen's Council was authorized to fill vacancies in its representation by Associations.

The Business Committee reported on behalf of the Social Action Committee a resolution on grain for India, and it was adopted as follows:

GRAIN FOR INDIA

For many months India has been in desperate need of grain, because of a critical shortage in her domestic production caused by flood and other factors. Meantime, we have had in storage millions of tons of surplus wheat which might have been related to the needs of the people of India. On February 12, 1951, President Truman called on the Congress to take immediate steps to send food to India. However, effective steps yet remain to be taken. It is our conviction that American help should be extended to India without delay, as an expression of the Christian good will of the people of America to the people of India. Therefore be it

RESOLVED: That we urge Congress to hasten the passage of effective legislation necessary for expediting the sending of American grain to India, and urge the implementation of this resolution by the sending of the following telegram from the Secretary of the Conference to our senators and representatives in Washington:

"The Massachusetts Congregational Conference, having a constituency of 600 churches, 190,000 members, urges Massachusetts delegation in Congress to use every effort to have food relief sent to India immediately."

Also on behalf of the Social Action Committee, the Business Committee introduced the following resolutions, all of which were adopted:

TEMPERANCE

WHEREAS problems associated with the sale of beverage alcohol continue to increase in seriousness, as more and more people under the influence of intoxicating liquor interfere with the lives and liberties of other people and contribute to the burden of social welfare in many communities, therefore be it

RESOLVED: That we

1. Urge upon our churches the necessity for more adequate programs of education against the evil effects of beverage alcohol;

2. Urge our ministers to try to be as helpful as possible in guiding alcoholics in their communities to the facilities and services available for their rehabilitation;

3. Urge our law enforcement agencies to enforce more strictly the existing laws designed to regulate and control the liquor traffic.

PENAL INSTITUTIONS

We believe that a serious need exists in Massachusetts for a more genuine approach to the problems related to the handling of criminal offenders, particularly in regard to their commitment to penal institutions and in respect to their rehabilitation.

We therefore urge support for House Bill 48, providing for an investigation and study by a special commission of the laws of the Commonwealth relating to the sentencing, treatment, and release of prisoners.

We trust that as a result of this study, more effective methods may be developed for preventing crime and for reclaiming all types of criminal offenders. We believe that more adequate provisions should be made for an effective spiritual ministry through more adequate provisions for the services of chaplains among those confined to penal institutions.

GAMBLING

During the past year significant gains have been made by way of exposing the evils of organized gambling in America and by way of curtailing gambling activities. Therefore be it

RESOLVED: That we

1. Express our appreciation to the members of the Massachusetts General Court for defeating the various legislative proposals designed to legalize and extend the practices of gambling.

2. Express appreciation to the members of the Legislative Committee of the Council of Churches, to the cooperating denominations, churches, and other organizations that assisted in the campaign to defeat the state lottery referendum in November, 1950.

3. Express appreciation to the members of the Kefauver Committee in the United States Senate for their exposure of organized gambling and of many of those responsible for it in the United States.

4. Express appreciation to our Massachusetts newspapers for their editorial opposition to gambling and for their generous sharing with their readers of the crucial facts relative to the gambling evil.

Be it further

RESOLVED: That we urge all of our churches and our people

1. To refrain from participating in activities of a gambling nature;

2. To resist and oppose patterns of gambling in organizations with which we are associated;

3. To call upon enforcement agencies to enforce the state laws against gambling where they are being violated.

DISPLACED PERSONS

Since the Displaced Persons Act was passed by Congress in June, 1948, an estimated 500 Displaced Persons have been brought to Massachusetts through the cooperation of our churches and Congregational families. We have had most generous and effective cooperation in helping these people from the Displaced Persons Committee and members of the East Walpole church. Generous and substantial help, financial and personal, has also been given by a number of interested friends. Some of these have served as interpreters, temporary sponsors, and have shared the use of their cars to help us in our Displaced Persons work.

Therefore be it

RESOLVED: That we

1. Express sincere appreciation to the East Walpole church and its Displaced Persons Committee, and to other individuals who have had a share in this important work;

2. Express appreciation especially to the churches and to the individuals and families who have served as sponsors for Displaced Persons since June, 1948.

Be it further

RESOLVED: That we urge our churches to continue their support of this program until it shall have been completed.

PUBLIC SCHOOLS

We appreciate the progress made in some communities in the direction of improved public school buildings and increased salaries for teachers. We commend the Massachusetts General Court for passing Chapter 276 of the Acts of 1951, establishing standards of certification of teachers in Massachusetts public schools. However, we regret that Massachusetts still lags behind many of the other states by way of securing needed improvement in its educational facilities. We commend to the people in our churches a greater interest in the problems and needs of our public schools.

CIVIL RIGHTS AND RACE RELATIONS

We believe that Christians in times of international crisis have a great opportunity to lead their community thinking in terms of calm, rational and tolerant regard for the views of others, relying on the power of the truth to prevail over errors. Therefore, in this time of world confusion, we retain our faith in the traditional American civil liberties and civil rights which have weathered many storms. We urge the defeat of any legislation aimed at curtailing them.

We urge the support of the program of civil rights outlined in the report of the President's Committee on Civil Rights, and entitled, "To Secure These Rights." Progress in implementing this report has been achieved in the armed forces. We congratulate the armed forces in view of the progress made in reducing segregation and strongly recommend continued efforts to wipe it out wherever it exists.

The important recommendation for Federal fair employment practice remains to be enacted. It is gratifying to note that Massachusetts has enacted both fair employment practice laws and fair education practice laws, and they have received wide support throughout the Commonwealth.

We urge our churches to exercise their consciences in the light of Christian teachings on the matter of race, and to be ever on their guard against the danger of wittingly or unwittingly condoning or supporting racial separateness in any form.

The Resolution on International Relations, after amendment, was adopted as follows:

INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS

Realizing that the future of our nation and the world, the decision between peace and war, will be determined by the trend of international developments within the next few years, and especially by adherence to fundamental Christian principles in our dealings with other peoples, we strongly urge our citizens as well as our leaders in Washington to endorse the following recommendations in the field of foreign policy:

1. Support of the United Nations. The hope of resolving international tensions and removing conflicts which are always likely to arise among nations rests with the willingness of states to abide by the rulings of the world organization or the ability of the United Nations to enforce its decisions. We recommend, therefore, that in the formulation of its foreign policy, the United States make every effort to work with and through the United Nations. We suggest that greater emphasis on spiritual values within the United Nations could improve its practical usefulness and help to combat fanatical religious tensions in many areas threatening to lead to explosions and cruelty. In this connection we urge our leaders to use their influence to encourage United Nations member states to grant unqualified religious freedom to their citizens, generally, and to religious minorities in their midst, in particular.

2. War and Peace: The outbreak of armed conflict in Korea, since our last Annual Meeting, prompts us to point to this clear lesson, shown twice in thirty years, that military victory is no solution to international difficulties. It is therefore imperative that we keep in mind the constant necessity of emphasizing the moral and spiritual principles which must underlie any genuine peace; and that we seek to give them substance through practical measures of aid and assistance, such as the Point 4 Program, and by supporting the declaration of human rights as proposed through the United Nations, in applications both at home and abroad.

3. Forceful leadership in the constant fight against hunger, disease, poverty, illiteracy and general backwardness. This fight is both a humane and Christian obligation and a wise long-range measure to prevent the kind of widespread despair which so often leads to the growth of false ideologies, revolutions and wars.

4. Exchange of students and teachers: The program of exchanging students and teachers provides vast possibilities of promoting better understanding between the United States and other countries.

MANAGEMENT AND LABOR

WHEREAS: The present and future welfare of many communities in our Commonwealth is closely linked with the problems of understanding and good will in industries of this area; and

WHEREAS: Justice and a sense of achievement in the earning of livelihood are important aspects of the Christian ideal of wholesome daily living; therefore be it

RESOLVED: That the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society urges management and labor to approach their mutual tensions in a spirit of determination to find just and fair solutions in the interests of the common good; and

Be it further

RESOLVED: That we offer our good offices to help representatives of labor and management to explore and to determine the facts which underlie industrial tensions in Massachusetts.

Resolutions of appreciation were presented by Mrs. Albert W. Patton of the Business Committee, and were adopted as follows:

RESOLVED: That we express our sincere appreciation to all who have carried the responsibility of promoting and purchasing our Conference Center at Framingham; and also to those who are committed to the task of raising the funds necessary for paying for the property, the financing of needed improvements and the establishing of reserve funds for further maintenance.

Be it further

RESOLVED: That we commend the people of our churches for their responsiveness in contributing to the Conference Center funds and urge upon them the necessity of continued support.

Furthermore:

We express our appreciation for the contribution made to the program of our Annual Meeting by the Dedication program on Sunday afternoon;

And express our hope that an annual event of some nature be held at the Center, whereby we may bring together our Massachusetts Congregational family in a similar fashion as that of Sunday afternoon.

RESOLVED: That we extend our deep and heartfelt appreciation

1. To Grace Congregational Church, with special recognition of the outstanding services rendered by the Hospitality and Arrangements Committee, and the pastor;

2. To Wesley Methodist Church for its gracious and efficient cooperation with Grace Church in extending hospitality to the delegates of this Conference;

3. To Plymouth and Edwards Churches, Framingham, to the Congregational churches of Natick, Holliston and Hopkinton, and to the Federated Church, Ashland, for their kindly entertainment of delegates;

4. To Mr. John R. Macomber for his kindness and neighborly spirit in making available to the Conference, for parking, Raceland;

5. To Mr. H. S. Owen for making ready the pastures of the State Conference Center for parking during the period of the State meetings;

6. To Chief McCarthy of the Framingham Police Department and his staff of officers, for their courtesy and patience and warmth of friendliness to the delegates, ministers and visitors attending the State Conference meetings;

7. To the Press, who have given full coverage of all the meetings of the Conference.

It was also voted

THAT, forasmuch as these resolutions are intended for the guidance of our churches throughout the State, we recommend that this body request the ministers of the various churches to read or otherwise publicize them.

The report of the Credentials Committee, presented by Rev. Stephen C. Lang, showed an attendance of 281 ministers, 394 delegates, 433 guests, 23 members ex officiis, a total of 1131. The total number of churches represented was 336.

At ten-forty-five the following seminars were held:

(1) This Job of Getting Church School Teachers (How About Apprentice Teachers?)—Leader: Miss Mildred Widber

At eleven-forty-five an offering for the Board of Ministerial Aid was received, totalling $258.04.

Dr. Fowell received, on behalf of the Conference staff, a bouquet of flowers from Grace Church, and Dr. Coe was presented with a Telechron clock, also the gift of Grace Church.

The Acting Moderator, Dr. Roy L. Minich, was given a hearty vote of thanks.

The closing address, "Preaching During an Earthquake," was given by Rev. Dr. Halford E. Luccock of Yale Divinity School.

Devotions, with the following closing prayer, were led by Chaplain Coe:

Almighty and everlasting God, who hast established thy Church, and hast built it upon the foundation of the apostles and prophets, Jesus Christ himself being the chief corner stone, increase and multiply the strength and devotion of thy people; recall us to the heritage of our faith and to thy most holy Word; and so support the walls of Zion that thy Church may be the stronghold of thy righteousness and the true home of the redeemed, both now and always; through him who is our only Saviour and our Lord, even Jesus Christ, to whom, with thee and the Holy Ghost, be all honor and glory, world without end. Amen.

*Income paid direct to church by Massachusetts Congregational Fund.

Reverend Albert Buckner Coe, D.D., President,

Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society,

Boston, Massachusetts.

Sir:

We have examined the balance sheets of Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society and of Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society, Trustee, as at March 31, 1951, and the related statements of income for the year ended at that date. Our examination was made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, and accordingly included such tests of the accounting records and such other auditing procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances.

The securities representing the invested funds at March 31, 1951, were verified by inspection, and we confirmed the cash in banks and in offices at that date.

As of April 1, 1950, all restricted funds ($221,016.58), held by the Society, and unexpended income of such funds, were transferred to the Society as Trustee.

In our opinion, the accompanying balance sheets and related statements of income present fairly the financial position of the Society and of the Society as Trustee, respectively, at March 31, 1951, and the results of their operations for the year ended at that date in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles applied on a basis consistent with that of the preceding year.

PATTERSON, TEELE AND DENNIS

ALLOTMENT ACCOUNT

In 1927 the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and the Massachusetts Home Missionary Society were united in a single corporation. Previous to that time, the National Council of Congregational Churches and the Conference had paid their expenses for meetings and administration by thirteen cents collected for each church member. It seems right that the Conference part of our organization should still pay its own charges. Twenty-four cents per member is asked this year of the Churches. Sixteen cents of the twenty-four goes to the General Council (formerly The National Council) and eight cents is kept by the Conference. The collection of the eight cents per member is the attempt of the Conference part of our organization to pay its expenses and not to become a charge upon missionary funds.

BEQUESTS

Bequests to the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society are used to aid weak churches and to promote the work and interests of the Conference in the State. Bequests may be made permanent funds by the donor, and the Conference restricted to the use of the income only. The practice of the Conference is to divide unrestricted legacies into three equal parts. One part is used for current work, one part is added to the Permanent Legacy Fund, the income only of which is used for general purposes; and the third part is added to a Contingent Fund, the principal of which may be drawn upon to care for special undertakings or to avoid a deficit.

If, on the other hand, a testator specifies that his entire legacy is to be expended as current income and that he does not wish it invested in whole or in part, these directions will be carefully observed.

Bequests to the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society pay no Massachusetts inheritance tax.

FORM OF BEQUEST

I give to the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society incorporated under the laws of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, the sum of ....Dollars.

GRANTS FROM THE MASSACHUSETTS CONGREGATIONAL CONFERENCE AND MISSIONARY SOCIETY

1. Wherever a community is too far from a church to benefit from its privileges, the Conference encourages the establishment of regular religious services, and, if possible, the organization of a church, or a branch of a neighboring church.

2. Applications by any church for financial aid should be made by the vote of the church, and upon forms furnished by the Conference, and should have the approval of the Advisory or Grants Committee of the local Association of Churches.

3. Churches applying for aid should show that they have met in full all financial obligations to their ministers and are doing their utmost toward self-support.

4. In granting aid the Conference will appropriate different amounts according to the necessity, importance, and prospects of each field.

5. Every church aided by the Conference should consult the President or Secretary before making arrangements for pastoral service.

6. Whenever the service of the minister or other worker, for whose support an appropriation is made, shall terminate, the appropriation shall lapse, except for special reasons satisfactory to the President.

7. The Conference advocates adequate compensation for every minister and worker.

8. The Conference favors hearty co-operation with other denominations, the avoidance of overlapping and competing work, and the consolidation or federation of churches of different denominations in over-churched communities.

9. We are indicating in this copy of the Minutes the churches that received Conference grants in the year 1950-1951 by placing the reference § before the names of these churches in the section of the Minutes entitled "Associations of Churches and Ministerial Standing." In cases where the grant was discontinued during the year the letter "d" appears after the reference §. Where the pastor's service ended during the year, the reference "†" appears. Special grants will be listed, as usual, on the following page.

STATISTICAL TABLES

EXPLANATORY

The tables which follow comprise:

1. The statistics of the churches, giving the ministers, church membership, additions, removals, Sunday school membership, and the amount of benevolences and expenses. These tables, in accordance with the vote of the Conference in 1887, are made to conform to those in the Year Book;

2. The Associations of the churches, with the names of officers;

3. The Ministerial Standing, giving the date of ordination of each minister, the date of membership in the Association, the residence and his "employment";

4. The Ministerial Record, containing lists of ordinations and deaths.

The tables of the first part contain the names of all the Congregational churches in Massachusetts, the towns and cities being arranged alphabetically. In cases where the post office name of the church and the town differ, heavy type indicates the postal address, and a cross reference on the page where the post office name would naturally be found will direct the reader to the town name.

Church members are reported as numbered January 1, 1951. Admissions and removals cover the year 1950. "Sunday school" includes total membership of officers, teachers and scholars January 1, 1951, or when the school is in operation (if not at that date), covering "branch schools", "mission schools" and "home departments" so far as maintained by the reporting church.

The months and days in the dates of the organization of churches are omitted. They will be found in the publications of 1873, those of churches since organized being given in the "Minutes" of each year. Also the months and days in the dates of ordination and installation of ministers are omitted. The former may be found in the lists of the local Associations which follow the tables.

Abbreviations in schedule headings are:

"Ord." — Ordained
"Cld." — Called
"Ma," — Male
"To." or "T." — Total
"Ab." — Absentee
"C." — Confession
"D." — Death
"L." — Letter

Reference marks are used as follows:

[] Around a pastor's name signify he is not in full standing as a Congregational Christian minister, nor a denominational licentiate, nor an approved lay preacher, nor a candidate in care of a local association.

y Pastor serves more than one church.
i Pastor installed by Council.
r Pastor recognized by Council.
m Approximate number of men.
c Sunday School membership includes Cradle Roll.
x Includes cost of new building or improvements.
—No answer can be given.
* Value of church property includes parsonage.
★ Per Capita paid in full by church.

|| When a church has made no report, items of membership in church, Sunday School and young people's organizations, also home expense and value of property, are inserted from the previous Year Book and marked || in the first column of the statistical report. This is done that these items may be included in the summaries and comparative tables, thus minimizing the danger of falsifying the comparisons.

Under church "Members" the number "Absent" are included in the "Total." Amount of "Home Expenses ' includes all salaries, together with missionary aid received, operating expenses and repairs for church, Sunday School, choir and parish. An x before "Value Church Property" denotes expenditures for new buildings or improvements during the year. The total expended is given at the end of the Conference schedule.

In reporting the statistics of federated churches, figures given pertaining to membership and gifts on the apportionment are for the Congregational church within the federated church. Figures pertaining to average attendance, Church School enrollment, membership in young people's organizations, contributions to home expenses are usually for all the churches grouped together in the federated church.

MASSACHUSETTS CONVENTION OF CONGREGATIONAL MINISTERS

Dates from the earliest times of the colony. Annual Business and Public meeting in King's Chapel, Boston at 10:30 A.M. in May, on the day appointed, with addresses. At this service a collection is taken, which, with the income of the convention fund, is distributed to the needy widows and daughters of deceased Congregational ministers.

Every minister of a Congregational church in Massachusetts (whether Trinitarian or Unitarian) is ex officio a member of the convention.

OFFICERS: — Rev. Charles H. Stem, Harvard Church, Brookline, Moderator; Rev. Henry Wilder Foote, 22 Highland St., Cambridge, Treasurer; to either of whom applications for aid may be addressed.

Rev. Claude Bond, 59 Federal St., Salem, Scribe.

AUDITOR: — Mr. Thomas Todd.

MASSACHUSETTS CONGREGATIONAL CHARITABLE SOCIETY

Incorporated in 1786. Organized to hold the funds of the convention. Composed of fifteen clergymen and fifteen laymen, elected from both branches of the Congregational body. Aids the needy widows and unmarried daughters of deceased Congregational clergymen who have had settlement in Massachusetts. Mr. Charles S. Bolster, Boston, President; Harold S. Davis, Boston, Vice-President; Rev. Charles E. Park, Boston, Secretary; Stephen W. Phillips, Salem, Treasurer; Rev. Charles E. Park, Rev. Charles C. Merrill, Rev. Henry W. Foote, Rev. Ashley D. Leavitt, Committee on Appropriations.

Applications for aid should be made to Rev. Charles E. Park, 347 Marlboro St., Boston.

CONDITIONAL GIFTS

The Conference receives conditional gifts, subject to annuity agreements with the donors, and encourages this method for those who wish any part of their property to be applied to our work after their death, and desire an assured income from their property for themselves, or for others whom they may designate as beneficiaries, as long as they live. Correspondence with the Treasurer concerning such annuity agreements is invited.

TRUST FUNDS

The Massachusetts Congregational Fund, organized during the year 1945 under the auspices of the Conference, is now administering trust funds of Congregational churches and organizations in Massachusetts aggregating $4,000,000, including the funds of the Conference.

It is not an easy matter for church or parish committees, often made up of those without broad experience in investment matters, to guard the safety of church trust funds. We welcome inquiries from Congregational churches in Massachusetts relative to caring for their trust or endowment funds.

Davis, Treasurer, 14 Beacon St., Boston 8.

The "Minutes" are sent to the churches by direction of the Conference, with distribution of one copy to every minister, one to every church clerk, one to every Conference official or committee member, one to each local Association official named within, and one to every life member of the Massachusetts Home Missionary Society. As long as the edition lasts, other copies may be secured by Massachusetts Congregationalists without charge, and by others for twenty-five cents, upon application to the Secretary, Rev. Myron W. Fowell, 14 Beacon St., Boston 8. It is suggested that every church preserve a copy of the "Minutes" with its other records.

Copies of the Advance Reports may also be secured by making application to the Secretary.

The national Year Book is available, free of charge, to church clerks and retired ministers upon request to the General Council Office, 287 Fourth Avenue, New York City 10. Lists of Representative Laymen and copies of the By-Laws of the Massachusetts Laymen's Council are available at the Conference office.

HISTORICAL SKETCH

The Massachusetts Missionary Society was organized on May 29, 1799, in Boston. There were thirty-eight charter members, mainly followers of the theology of Samuel Hopkins. They were "impelled by a deep commiseration for the unhappy state of those who were perishing for lack of those precious means of salvation which we enjoy." Their intention was to spread "the knowledge of the glorious Gospel of Christ among the poor Heathens and in those remote parts of our country in which the inhabitants had not enjoyed the benefits of a Christian ministry and Christian ordinances," i.e., outside Massachusetts. Nathaniel Emmons, fifty-four years pastor at Franklin, was the first president.

In 1827 the Massachusetts Missionary Society and the Domestic Missionary Society of Massachusetts Proper were united under the name of the Massachusetts Missionary Society. This meant that while the Domestic Missionary Society of Massachusetts Proper lost its name, the Massachusetts Missionary Society was henceforth to work almost exclusively in Massachusetts.

The Massachusetts Missionary Society became the Massachusetts "Home" Missionary Society in 1844. This was simply to emphasize that the work of the Society had become exclusively for America and for the Massachusetts part of America.

The Massachusetts Home Missionary Society and the Massachusetts Congregational Conference were united under the name of the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society in 1927. This was the result of twenty-seven years' agitation, accelerated by a recommendation of the National Council in 1907. The charter of the Massachusetts Home Missionary Society was used as the basis for the union of the two organizations. The Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society assumes responsibility for all Congregational missionary work done in Massachusetts. It supports a staff of eleven persons who give ministerial and executive leadership to a broad program of work designed to help the churches, to develop the fellowship of the ministers and churches, and to cultivate practical support for denominational and interdenominational projects and programs.

At the Annual Meeting of 1952 it was voted by a large majority of those present and voting to change the name of the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society to the "Massachusetts Congregational Christian Conference." A number of legal steps, however, remain to be taken before this change is accomplished.

BY-LAWS OF THE MASSACHUSETTS CONGREGATIONAL CONFERENCE AND MISSIONARY SOCIETY

ARTICLE I

Terminology

Whenever in these by-laws the word "Conference" is used it shall be held to refer to the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society.

ARTICLE II

Denominational Basis

Following Congregational principles, this Conference shall under no circumstances exercise authority over churches or individuals or interfere with the government or discipline of the churches. It shall advise and counsel the churches when requested, but it is recognized that each church has the power of self-determination in all matters.

ARTICLE III

Doctrinal Basis

This Conference declares its steadfast allegiance to the faith which our fathers confessed, which, from age to age, has found its expression in the historic creeds of the Church Universal and of this Communion.

ARTICLE IV

Membership

Voting Members. Every Church or Congregation which is or shall become a member of a Congregational or a Congregational Christian Association of Churches in Massachusetts may annually choose two delegates (of whom it is suggested one shall be a layman and the other a laywoman) and these delegates, together with the pastor or pastors of each church (who shall be members ex officiis), the officers of the Conference (including the members of the Board of Trustees and any person who shall have been elected an Officer Emeritus), the committee members of the Conference and those persons who, prior to May 22, 1923, became life members of the Massachusetts Home Missionary Society, shall constitute the voting membership of the Conference; provided, however, that pastors shall have the privileges of honorary members only unless they shall have membership in Congregational Christian Associations regularly holding ministerial standing.

Honorary Members. Delegates from corresponding bodies and persons appointed to speak before the Conference, together with all persons heretofore constituted honorary members of the Massachusetts Home Missionary Society, such persons as may be made honorary members by a vote of the Board of Trustees, and such other persons as the Conference may from time to time vote to admit, shall be honorary members of the Conference, with the privilege of speaking, but without vote.

ARTICLE V

Officers

1. There shall be a Moderator, one or more vice-Moderators, a Recording Secretary, a Chairman and a vice-Chairman of the Department of Woman's Work (See Article VIII, Sec. 1, (b)), a Chairman and vice-Chairman of the Massachusetts Congregational Laymen's Council (See Article VIII, Sec. 2, (b)), all of whom shall be nominated by the Nominating Committee hereinafter provided for, and elected by ballot at each annual meeting of the Conference for a term of one year and until their respective successors are chosen.

2. The executive officers of the Conference shall be a President, a Secretary, a Treasurer, Field Secretaries, a Director of Woman's Work, a Secretary of Missions and Stewardship, and a Secretary of Religious Education. These officers shall constitute the Executive Staff. They shall be nominated by the Board of Trustees meeting in executive session, and elected by ballot at each annual meeting of the Conference for a term of one year and until their respective successors are chosen. They shall bear such additional titles as the Conference or the Board of Trustees may determine.

3. The Conference shall elect by ballot a Board of Trustees consisting of one member from each Association of churches, and six members-at-large who shall be known for their special knowledge of financial affairs, of whom one shall be chosen each even-numbered year and two, — beginning with the year 1935, — each odd-numbered year. The Chairman and Vice Chairman of the Woman's Department, the Chairman and Vice Chairman of the Massachusetts Laymen's Council, the President of the Massachusetts Pilgrim Fellowship and one Vice President (nominated by its executive committee), the Chairman of the Congregational Center Committee, and the Moderator shall also be members ex officiis. One-third of the representatives of the Associations upon the Board shall be ministers, one-third laymen, and one-third laywomen as nearly as may be. Nine members shall constitute a quorum. The term of office shall be four years, and no member having served a full term shall be eligible for re-election until after one year, but members-at-large, chosen for their knowledge of financial affairs, may serve for two consecutive terms. The present Trustees shall remain in office until the expiration of their terms.

The Conference shall from time to time designate the Associations from which Trustees are to be chosen in the successive years and determine whether the Trustee to be chosen from a particular Association in any year shall be a minister, a layman, or a laywoman.

Each Association shall be notified by the Secretary of the Conference on or before September 15 when it is its turn to propose to the nominating committee a candidate for membership upon the Board, and whether such candidate should be a minister, a layman or a laywoman, and the names of such candidates shall be reported to the Secretary before April 1, of each year. The Secretary upon the receipt of these names shall communicate them to the nominating committee on or before April 10. In case any Association fails to propose a candidate the Board of Trustees shall perform this duty. This method of choosing Trustees shall commence at the close of the 1933 Conference.

At its first meeting after each annual meeting of the Conference the Board shall choose one of its members to serve as chairman for the ensuing year. Except as otherwise provided in the charter of the Conference or in these by-laws, the Board shall administer and dispose of the property of the Conference and shall manage all its business and affairs, and all officers and agents of the Conference shall act under its direction. The Board shall cause the accounts of the Treasurer to be audited at least once each year by certified public accountants selected by the Board. Without restricting the generality of the foregoing, the Board shall in particular have the following powers:

(a) To choose a Clerk, to appoint its own meetings and form its own rules of business, to appoint sub-committees and to delegate any of its powers to such committees.

(b) To appoint and, at pleasure, remove all agents of the Conference and to define their duties.

(c) To fill any vacancy in any office of the Conference (including vacancies in the membership of the Board) until the vacancy shall be filled at a succeeding meeting of the Conference.

(d) To remove any officer of the Conference (other than members of the Board) who may be guilty of disregard of his duties or of such conduct as shall be seriously prejudicial to the interests of the Conference.

(e) To direct efforts to promote missionary interest and giving among the Congregational churches of the Commonwealth.

4. The terms of all officers, save when chosen to fill vacancies, shall begin at the close of the meeting at which they are elected.

ARTICLE VI

Duties of Officers

1. The Moderator, or in his absence, one of the vice-Moderators, shall preside over all meetings of the Conference.

2. The President shall be the chief executive officer of the Conference and shall, subject to the direction of the Conference and of its Board of Trustees, have general charge of its missionary and benevolent work and of its other activities. He shall be a member ex officio of all standing committees named in the by-laws with the exception of the nominating committee. He shall have the power to delegate to members of the Staff the authority to represent him upon any of the said standing committees. He shall be the representative of the Conference and of its Board of Trustees among all the churches (both those financially independent and those aided by the funds of the Conference) and in all denominational and interdenominational gatherings (including meetings of state Superintendents) unless representation is otherwise provided. He may seek to assist pastors and churches with fraternal counsel. He shall keep informed as to opportunities for extension work through founding new churches or strengthening old ones and shall recommend to the Conference and to the Board of Trustees measures for meeting such opportunities.

3. The Secretary shall keep the records of the Conference, except as hereinafter provided, and shall assist in its general work under the direction of the President. He shall devote himself in co-operation with the Field Secretaries and under the direction of the President, to counseling with and assisting the churches in the area assigned to him, and shall perform such other duties as may be assigned to him by the Board of Trustees or the President. He shall have the custody of the records and of all bonds given by the treasurer as hereinafter provided. He shall furnish copies of the record certified under the seal of the Conference (which shall be in his keeping) to such persons as may be entitled thereto.

The Secretary shall collect and publish in connection with the annual Report of the Conference the statistics of ministers and churches and make up the official roll of the ministers and churches in accordance with the usages of the denomination. He shall present to the Conference at its annual meeting a general statistical statement of the progress of religion in the churches for the past calendar year. He shall give suitable notice to the churches of the time and place of each annual meeting, notify officers and committees of their election or appointment and fulfill such other functions as the Conference or the Board of Trustees may from time to time direct.

4. The Treasurer shall receive and hold the property of the Conference subject to the direction of the Board of Trustees and shall keep particular accounts of the Conference's funds and of the disposal thereof. He shall, under the direction of the President, assist, so far as he may be able, in the general work of the Conference and shall perform such other duties as may be assigned to him by the Board of Trustees. He shall make a report at each annual meeting of the Conference and shall make such other reports as the Conference or the Board of Trustees may from time to time require. He shall receive all contributions for benevolences sent to him by the churches and by individuals and shall disburse the same in accordance with the instructions of the donors. He shall give such bonds for the faithful performance of his duties as may from time to time be required by the Board of Trustees.

5. The Field Secretaries shall counsel with and assist the churches in the area which may from time to time be assigned to them by the Board of Trustees or the President.

6. The Secretary of Missions and Stewardship shall have the duty of advancing the interest of the churches in the work of missions at home and abroad. He shall, under the direction of the President, assist, so far as he may be able, in the general work of the Conference.

7. The Director of Woman's Work shall have special charge of promoting missionary interests and all other activities among the women of the Congregational churches of the Commonwealth. She shall, under the direction of the President, assist, so far as she may be able, in the general work of the Conference.

8. The Secretary of Religious Education and the Associate in Religious Education, if any, shall encourage and promote the whole program of religious education as well as Christian living and Christian activities among the Congregational churches of the State. He, or she, or they, shall, under the direction of the President, assist so far as able, in the general work of the Conference.

9. The Recording Secretary shall record the complete minutes of each annual meeting and shall transcribe and deliver the same to the Secretary. The Board of Trustees may, in their discretion, appoint a deputy to assist in the keeping of the records under the direction of the Recording Secretary.

ARTICLE VII

Retirement and Annuity

1. No person who has attained the age of seventy years shall continue as a member of the Executive Staff. With respect to employees not members of the Executive Staff, it shall be the policy of the Conference to retire every such employee upon his or her attaining the age of seventy years, provided, however, that this shall not affect the power of the Trustees temporarily to employ from time to time persons who have passed that age (including former members of the executive staff) whenever in particular cases the Trustees shall deem such temporary employment essential to the efficient conduct of the Conference's work.

2. Ordained ministers who are members of the executive staff shall be expected to be members of the Annuity Fund for Congregational Ministers, and the Conference shall not provide for them any other retirement annuity, except in the case of ministers who are now members under the Original Plan. Toward each annual premium in the Annuity Fund of any member of the staff the Conference shall pay each year an amount equal to 8% of the charge on his salary, less such amount as the Conference shall pay the United States for his Social Security.

3. Lay members of the office staff shall be expected to be, so far as practicable, members of the Retirement Fund for Lay Workers, and the Conference shall pay, as the annual premium for each lay worker who is a member of the Fund, 8% of the charge on his salary, less such amount as the Conference shall pay the United States for his Social Security.

ARTICLE VIII

Departments and Affiliated Organizations

1. There shall be a Department of Woman's Work of the Conference.

   (a) The object of this Department shall be to help to promote the entire work of the local church and to further in every way possible the cause of Christ throughout the world. The voting members of this Department shall be the women members of the Conference, together with such other women as may be determined by the rules of the Department. The Chairman, Vice-Chairman of the Department, the District Presidents, the women members of the Board of Trustees and the members of the Business Committee, as provided by the rules of the Department, shall constitute the members of the Executive Committee of the Woman's Department. This Executive Committee shall organize the membership of the Department in whatever manner it may deem needful for the effective carrying on of the Department's work

   (b) The Department shall provide by its rules for the appointment of a nominating committee. This committee shall annually propose to the nominating committee of the Conference from among its membership a chairman and a vice-chairman of the Department, who shall be ex officiis members of the Board of Trustees of the Conference. It shall also nominate such other officers and committees as the rules of the Department shall require, to be elected by the Department at its annual meeting.

2. There shall be a Department of Laymen's Work of the Conference. It shall be called the Massachusetts Congregational Laymen's Council.

(a) The object of this Department shall be: To inspire higher conceptions of Christian citizenship for the development of democratic society and the world-wide Kingdom of God; to promote a richer fellowship of Congregational laymen through conferences, retreats, and other meetings and to co-operate with laymen of other denominations in significant Christian projects; to encourage organized laymen's groups and classes in all our churches, especially the smaller ones; to rally more men to the support of the church and to train men in worship and leadership in their church and community life.

(b) The Massachusetts Congregational Laymen's Council shall consist of sixty-two members — two from each of the Associations in the State and twenty members-at-large, who shall be elected annually by the State Conference. The Conference Nominating Committee shall receive the names of two members from each Association — or its Laymen's Organization — and the names of twenty members-at-large from the Executive Committee of the Massachusetts Laymen's Council. Should an Association fail to name candidates, the nominations for that Association shall be made by the Executive Committee of the Laymen's Council. The officers of this organization shall be a Chairman, a vice-Chairman, a Secretary and a Treasurer.

3. There shall be a Department of Young People's Work of the Conference.

(a) There shall be a Massachusetts Council of Pilgrim Fellowship, composed of two representatives from each Association, to be named by the Association Pilgrim Fellowship or Congregational Young People's organization of the Association, whatever its name may be, as it or its Executive Committee may determine. If the Congregational young people of any Association are unorganized, the Association Committee on Religious Education may name two delegates to the Massachusetts Council of Pilgrim Fellowship. The Council shall hold its annual meeting in May or at such other time as its Executive Committee may determine. At its annual meeting the Council shall plan the State youth program and elect its officers for the ensuing year.

(b) Unless otherwise determined by the Council, the State officers shall be (1) President, (2) four vice-Presidents, (3) Secretary, (4) Editor. The Executive Committee of Pilgrim Fellowship shall consist of (1) the officers, (2) the President of the preceding year, (3) an Adult Advisor to be chosen by the Council with the approval of the State Committee on Religious Education, and (4) one of the Secretaries of Religious Education on the staff of the Massachusetts Congregational Conference, who shall be designated as Executive Secretary of the Massachusetts Pilgrim Fellowship. The President and one of the vice-Presidents to be designated by the Executive Committee shall be ex officiis members of the Board of Trustees of the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society.

ARTICLE IX

Meetings

1. The Conference shall hold its regular annual meeting for the choice of officers, the hearing of reports, the discussion of matters of general interest and the transaction of other business at the appointed place on the third Monday of May, or at such other time in the month of May as the Board of Trustees may deem expedient.

2. Special meetings of the Conference shall be convened at such times and places as may be determined by the Board of Trustees, provided, however, that notice of any special meeting so convened shall, at least one week before the date of the meeting, be sent by mail to each of the churches connected with the Conference, posted in the general office of the Conference and printed in newspapers published in Boston, Worcester and Springfield, respectively.

3. The Moderator or, in his absence, one of the vice-Moderators or, in the absence of all of them some member of the Board of Trustees shall call the Conference to order.

4. At each annual meeting the Conference shall propose to the churches the annual contribution for the expenses of the General Council and for such expenses of the Conference and other purposes, as may be deemed equitable. The Trustees shall at each annual meeting present a recommendation as to the action to be taken at such meeting with reference to the allotment to be made at that meeting, unless the Conference shall have directed at a previous meeting that such recommendation be made by a designated committee.

ARTICLE X

Committees

1. Immediately after the opening of the annual meeting the Moderator shall appoint:

   (a) A Committee on Credentials, to which all credentials shall be referred.

   (b) A Business Committee, the duty of which shall be to prepare and present at each session all matters of business not presented through some other committee of the Conference.

2. The following standing committees shall be elected by viva voce vote:

   (a) A Nominating Committee composed of nine members, consisting of the retiring Moderator of each annual meeting, together with eight other members, of whom at least two shall be ministers, at least two shall be women and at least two shall be laymen. Each year the Board of Trustees, meeting in executive session, shall select four persons whom they shall nominate at the annual meeting of the Conference to be elected to serve for two years. The retiring members shall not be eligible for re-election for at least one year.

   This committee shall nominate all officers and committees whose nominations are not otherwise provided for in these by-laws.

(b) A Program Committee, of which the Secretary of the Conference and the pastor of the church which is to entertain the next annual meeting shall be members ex officiis. At each annual meeting two members shall be elected to serve for three years. This committee shall prepare the program for the next annual meeting and shall select the preacher of the annual sermon and the various speakers at each session.

(c) A Committee on Religious Education. At each annual meeting three members shall be elected to serve for three years. The duty of the Committee shall be to foster religious and missionary education in the churches and in the associations of Massachusetts. This Committee shall give advice and counsel in regard to the organized young people's work of the State. Among its various duties the Committee shall bear responsibility for planning and promoting summer camps and conferences.

(d) A Committee on Social Action, consisting of nine members, of whom three shall be elected at each annual meeting for a term of three years. It shall be the duty of the committee to promote interest in moral and social issues among the churches of the Conference. The committee shall be authorized to present and to support publicly such principles and measures as have been adopted by the Conference.

(e) A Committee on the Ministry consisting of thirty-one members: ten at large, three of whom shall be laymen or lay-women, two of the ten to be elected at each annual meeting for a term of five years; the remaining twenty-one to be composed of the Chairman of each Association Committee on the Ministry. It shall be the duty of this Committee to endeavor to establish and maintain high standards for our Congregational ministry and churches.

The Conference shall maintain a special roll of ministers to which names may have been transferred by the Associations. This special roll shall be in charge of the Conference Committee on the Ministry, and the presence of a name there shall constitute evidence that the man has been duly ordained and has had standing in a Congregational Association; but the Committee shall not issue credentials to a man whose name appears on this roll unless they find in concurrence with the Committee on the Ministry in his Association, that his character and qualifications are satisfactory.

(f) A Committee on Evangelism and Devotional Life, consisting of nine members, of whom three shall be elected at each annual meeting for a term of three years. It shall be the duty of the committee to serve as a cooperating agency of the national Commission on Evangelism and Devotional Life.

(g) A Missionary Committee. Each of the twenty-one Associations shall nominate a member of this Committee who shall represent the missionary committee of the Association. The term of office shall be three years, and the alphabetical list of Associations shall be divided into three groups, and these three groups shall rotate in making their elections.

In addition, there shall be six members-at-large, nominated by the Board of Trustees for a term of one year. Four of these persons shall be members of the Board of Trustees.

There shall also be three ex officiis members, representing the Woman's Department, the Layman's Council, and the Pilgrim Fellowship, respectively.

The Committee shall meet at least twice a year, and an executive committee shall be chosen, to meet as frequently as occasion requires. It shall be the duty of this Committee to advance the interest of the churches in the work of missions at home and abroad.

(h) A Committee on the Town and Country Church, consisting of nine members, of whom three shall be elected at each annual meeting for a term of three years. It shall be the duty of this Committee to co-operate with the national Commission on the Town and Country Church and to offer such practical helps and encouragement as may be possible and welcomed by our churches in the town and country areas.

(i) A Conference Center Committee. The operation and management of the Conference Center (to be known as "Conference Center" or some other name yet to be decided upon) shall be in the hands of a State Conference Committee, to be called the Conference Center Committee, as the agency of the Conference, responsible to the Board of Trustees. This Committee shall consist of thirty members—approximately one-third ministers, one-third laymen, and one-third lay-women—one member from each Association to be nominated annually by the Association, and nine members-at-large, to be nominated by the State Conference Nominating Committee for three-year terms, three to be elected each year —one minister, one layman, one lay-woman.

The Chairman of the Conference Center Committee shall be a member ex officio of the Board of Trustees of the State Conference and shall make a report at each meeting of the Board of Trustees.

The Conference Center Committee shall elect its own officers and subcommittee chairmen and may co-opt such additional persons as may be necessary to the effective functioning of the committees.

No member, elected or appointed, having served a full term of three consecutive years, shall be eligible to succeed himself until after the lapse of one year.

3. Such other committees as the Conference may vote to constitute shall be elected by viva voce vote at each annual meeting for such terms as the Conference shall determine. The Board of Trustees shall present at each annual meeting a list of the committees the appointment of which it recommends.

4. It shall be the general practice of the Conference, without making it an arbitrary rule, that at least one-third of its committee members be lay-women and one-third laymen.

5. The reports of all committees that are to be presented to the Conference shall be furnished to the Secretary on or before April first of each year, and shall be printed and distributed to the churches not less than two weeks before the annual meeting. These reports shall not be read to the Conference save by special order, but the Program Committee may arrange for the adequate discussion of any or all the topics presented in the reports.

ARTICLE XI

Board of Ministerial Aid

The Board of Ministerial Aid shall be the agent of the Conference in the work of aiding needy ministers and their families and shall make an annual report to the Conference. On notice of a vacancy in the membership of the Board of Ministerial Aid, the Conference shall nominate a person to fill the vacancy.

ARTICLE XII

Boston Seaman's Friend Society

The Boston Seaman's Friend Society shall be the agent of the Conference in the work of promoting the spiritual and temporal welfare of seamen and shall make an annual report to the Conference. The Conference shall annually elect five members of the Society for a term of three years each.

ARTICLE XIII

Board of Pastoral Supply

The Conference shall elect nine members to represent it on the Congregational Board of Pastoral Supply, three members to be elected each year to serve for a period of three years. The Board shall, through its Secretary, make an annual report to the Conference.

ARTICLE XIV

Corporate Seal

The seal of the Conference shall consist of two or more concentric circles, with the words "Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society" around the circumference between these circles and the words "Inc., 1808" within the inner circle.

ARTICLE XV

Special Orders

1. The place of the next annual meeting shall be recommended each year by the Business Committee and designated by vote of the Conference.

2. All matters of business presented to the Conference, except those presented through duly appointed committees of the Conference, shall be referred to the Business Committee unless referred to some other committee by special vote of the Conference.

3. All matters of business referred to the Business Committee shall be reported for action before the final adjournment of the annual meeting.

4. As far as possible, all business of the Conference shall be completed by noon of the second day of the annual meeting.

ARTICLE XVI

Rules of Order

The Rules of Order shall be those of common parliamentary usage subject to the following specifications:

(a) No member shall speak more than twice on the same question without leave of the Conference.

(b) When a question is before the Conference the Moderator shall entertain motions only as follows: — to adjourn, to table, for the previous question, to postpone to a fixed time, to commit, to amend or to postpone indefinitely; these several motions shall have precedence in the foregoing order.

ARTICLE XVII

Amendments

1. These by-laws, except Articles II and III, may be amended at any regularly called meeting of the Conference by a two-thirds vote, provided the amendment was proposed at the preceding annual meeting of the Conference or is recommended by the Board of Trustees.

2. Articles II and III may be amended by a two-thirds vote, but only after the proposed amendment has been submitted to the Conference in writing at the previous annual meeting and notice has been sent to the several churches connected with the Conference at least three months prior to the meeting at which action is to be taken.

A Laymen's Meeting was held in Old South Church, beginning with supper at six-thirty p.m. The evening's program was a panel discussion, "Six Questions on the Church and a Challenge."

WEDNESDAY MORNING

The Conference joined in an interdenominational program in the Memorial Auditorium for the Fiftieth Anniversary of the Massachusetts Council of Churches. Rev. Chester A. Wheeler led devotions, and the speakers were Congressman A. Clayton Powell of New York and Dr. George A. Buttrick, pastor of Madison Avenue Presbyterian Church, New York.

A Social Action Luncheon was served in Memorial Auditorium, followed by a discussion of "The Church and Our Economic Life." The Chairman was Rev. Myron W. Fowell of the Massachusetts Congregational Conference; and the speakers were Rev. Lex King Souter, First Congregational Church, Fall River, and Mr. William H. Miernyk, Staff Economist, Committee of New England of the National Planning Association.

WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON

The Conference session opened at two-fifteen p.m. with hymn and prayer led by the Chaplain, Rev. Ralph H. Winn, South Hadley. Rev. Oliver Powell brought greetings from the host church, to which the Moderator, Rev. Roy L. Minich, made response.

Mrs. Sherman Frost made a brief statement on Hospitality House at Fort Devens, sponsored by the Massachusetts Council of Churches.

Business Committee: Rev. John P. Robertson, Braintree, Chairman; Rev. George E. Beilby, Williamstown; Mr. Francis M. Loud, Weymouth; Mrs. John C. Rundlett, Melrose; Rev. Donald A. Simpson, Springfield; Mr. Julian Steele, Boston.

Credentials Committee: Rev. Howard F. Boardman, North Amherst, Chairman; Rev. Robert J. Hodgen, Gilbertville; Mr. Edward C. Perry, Lynn.

The Chairman of the Business Committee presented the following resolution, which was adopted:

WHEREAS approximately 5,000 Protestant clergymen and lay members have gathered in the City of Worcester for the Annual Meetings of the Massachusetts Congregational Conference, the Massachusetts Universalist Convention, the Methodist Conference, the Massachusetts Inter-Church Convention and

WHEREAS the Inter-Church Convention commemorates the 50th Anniversary of the founding of the Massachusetts Council of Churches, therefore be it

RESOLVED: That the Massachusetts Congregational Conference at its 153rd Annual Meeting extend greetings to its sister churches and congratulations to the Massachusetts Council of Churches on this historic occasion; and be it further

RESOLVED: That copies of this resolution be appropriately distributed.

The Treasurer presented his report which was accepted by vote.

Mrs. Myron H. Clark reported for the Board of Trustees, and presented recommendations from the Board. It was voted

THAT this report be accepted.

Rev. Russell B. Richardson reported for the Congregational Center Committee.

This was followed by introduction of the staff members by Dr. Coe, after which he gave his annual report as Minister and President of the Conference, with special emphasis upon defense of the Council for Social Action.

It was voted that the Advance Reports be accepted as printed.

The recommendations from the Board of Trustees were presented by Mrs. Clark and were adopted as follows:

THAT the Conference take from the undesignated gifts to Our Christian World Mission an amount sufficient to make the total appropriation to the Conference equal to 15% of the total giving to Our Christian World Mission, plus 1% for the Boston Seaman's Friend Society.

THAT the Allotment assessments for the year be twenty-four cents per member, as at present: sixteen cents for the General Council and eight cents for the Conference.

THAT, acting in accordance with the provisions of Article XVII of the By-Laws, Article VII, Section 2, of the By-Laws be amended by adding to the end thereof, and that Article VII, Section 3, of the By-Laws be amended by adding at the end of the first sentence thereof, the words "less such amount as the Conference shall pay the United States for his Social Security," so that Article VII, Section 2 and Section 3, shall read as follows:

"2. Ordained ministers who are members of the executive staff shall be expected to be members of the Annuity Fund for Congregational Ministers, and the Conference shall not provide for them any other retirement annuity, except in the case of ministers who are now members under the Original Plan. Toward each annual premium in the Annuity Fund of any member of the staff the Conference shall pay each year an amount equal to 8% of the charge on his salary, less such amount as the Conference shall pay the United States for his Social Security.

3. Lay members of the office staff shall be expected to be, so far as practicable, members of the Retirement Fund for Lay Workers, and the Conference shall pay, as the annual premium for each lay worker who is a member of the Fund, 8% of the charge on his salary, less such amount as the Conference shall pay the United States for his Social Security."

THAT, to make Article V, Section 3, of the By-Laws consistent with the action taken at the Fall River and Framingham Annual Meetings (whereby the President and one Vice President of the Massachusetts Pilgrim Fellowship and the Chairman of the Congregational Center Committee were designated as ex officiis members of the Board of Trustees), Section 3 be changed so as to read:

"3. The Conference shall elect by ballot a Board of Trustees consisting of one member from each Association of churches, and six members-at-large who shall be known for their special knowledge of financial affairs, of whom one shall be chosen each even-numbered year and two, — beginning with the year 1935, — each odd-numbered year. The Chairman and Vice Chairman of the Woman's Department, the Chairman and Vice Chairman of the Massachusetts Laymen's Council, the President of the Massachusetts Pilgrim Fellowship and one Vice President (nominated by its executive committee), the Chairman of the Congregational Center Committee, and the Moderator shall also be members ex officiis. One-third of the representatives of the Associations upon the Board shall be ministers. . . etc."

A recommendation that the name of the Conference be changed to "Massachusetts Congregational Conference" was amended so as to read "Massachusetts Congregational Christian Conference."

This and the further recommendation that Article I of the By-Laws be amended by striking out the words "and Missionary Society" were tabled until Thursday.

Mr. Robertson, Chairman of the Business Committee, introduced Mr. Julian Steele, who presented a resolution on industrial relations, which was adopted as follows:

INDUSTRIAL RELATIONS

WHEREAS many of our communities are suffering or being threatened with economic dislocation and consequent deterioration of social and spiritual standards due to loss of industries, particularly textile mills, essential to their well-being, and

WHEREAS these conditions are brought about by a combination of factors including differences between labor and management, obstacles in the way of modernization, and lack of understanding of the problems with resultant attitudes of bias or indifferences in the community, and

WHEREAS in our conferences with leaders of management and labor we have found them to be men of integrity and possessed of the vision and wisdom required to realize their obligations to the community and to recognize that bias and prejudice are detrimental to both management and labor, and

WHEREAS the welfare of our communities is and should be a prime concern of our churches, and

WHEREAS it is obvious that this welfare is never enhanced by public attitudes of prejudice or indifference; therefore be it

RESOLVED: That the Massachusetts Council of Churches be asked to offer moral leadership for the correction of these adverse conditions; that its clergy and laity make every effort and be given every opportunity to acquaint themselves with the nature of the problems, that without bias or prejudice toward either, they encourage labor and management to respect the basic moral rights of each other; and that they interest other community groups in helping to create a climate of understanding and good will which will make it possible for them to act cooperatively to the benefit of each other and the whole community.

Mr. Robertson introduced Rev. Donald A. Simpson, who presented a resolution on immigration laws, which after amendment was adopted as follows:

IMMIGRATION LAWS

WHEREAS the events of recent years have brought many changes in the status of nations and their peoples, resulting in new and desperate needs on the part of peoples in the old world to find a new homeland, and

WHEREAS it has been the custom of our country to receive each year numbers of immigrants from other countries on the basis of quotas agreed upon years ago, and

WHEREAS existing quota agreements and present immigration laws do not represent a realistic and equitable way of recognizing and meeting the needs of various peoples for resettlement, so that a revision of present immigration laws is most desirable at this time, and

WHEREAS Senate bill 2842 commends itself to us as a step in the right direction, because it would remove racial discriminations from our immigration law, base immigration quotas on the 1950, instead of 1920, population statistics, pool certain unused quotas and make them available for other peoples in a position to use them, remove the mortgages on certain quotas occasioned by the coming of D.P.'s, and permit the entry into our country of more people whose specialized experience and skills are urgently needed in America; therefore be it

RESOLVED: That we urge our representatives in Washington to support Senate Bill 2842, and House Bill HJR 411, allowing 7,500 more D.P.'s to enter the United States, so completing our country's commitment quota.

An address by Dr. Paul Vieth was given on the subject, "Are We Failing in Christian Education?" The session was closed with hymn and prayer by the Chaplain.

WEDNESDAY EVENING

At six p.m. members of the Conference joined with others in the Fiftieth Anniversary Dinner of the Massachusetts Council of Churches. Bishop Norman B. Nash was the speaker.

Again at eight p.m. the Council's program continued with addresses by Dr. Frank Jennings and Dr. Harold A. Bosley, pastor of the First Methodist Church, Evanston, Illinois.

THURSDAY MORNING

From seven-fifteen to seven-forty-five various groups met for prayer. At eight-thirty a communion service was conducted by the President of the Conference, with the sermon by Dr. Ashley Day Leavitt.

At nine-fifteen the Chaplain led the Conference in prayer, after which an address on "The Grass Roots of Protestantism" was given by Dr. Ralph L. Williamson of Cornell University.

Rev. Leonard W. Fowler presented the report of the Nominating Committee. The officers, as listed on page 16, were elected by ballot, 332 ballots being cast. A unanimous voice vote accepted and adopted the Nominating Committee's report for Conference committees, etc., as reported on pages 19–28. It was voted

THAT in the case of vacancies in the delegation-at-large to the 1952 General Council, Dr. Coe be authorized to make selections from the list of alternates prepared by the Nominating Committee.

Statements regarding the New England Panel of the Committee on Free Church Polity and Unity were presented by Dr. M. Russell Boynton and Rev. Harry R. Butman.

Recommendations of the Trustees which had been tabled at Wednesday's session were taken up and adopted as follows:

THAT the name of the corporation be changed to "Massachusetts Congregational Christian Conference."

THAT Article I of the By-Laws be amended by inserting the word "Christian" and striking out the words "and Missionary Society," so as to read: "Whenever in these By-Laws the word 'Conference' is used it shall be held to refer to the Massachusetts Congregational Christian Conference."

Mr. Robertson presented the following resolutions, which were accepted with one dissenting vote:

Be it RESOLVED: That the Massachusetts Congregational Conference in Annual Meeting assembled, on May 21, 1952, recommend to the General Council that while the proposed merger of the Congregational Christian Churches with the Evangelical and Reformed Church is in abeyance, no definitive action, and no action of any sort should be taken, pending final judgment of the courts, which would in any way conflict with the due process of law or jeopardize the rights and standing of the General Council in the eyes of the law.

Be it RESOLVED: That we recommend that the General Council either (a) request the Committee on Free Church Polity and Unity, that in connection with its study of the principles for the spiritual and legal methods for the participation of free autonomous fellowships in the ecumenical movement, it include in its duties the drawing up, in consultation with the Evangelical and Reformed Church, of a tentative constitution for union with them that would be consistent with the principles set down by the Committee, or (b) appoint a special Committee for that purpose; said tentative constitution to be presented to the churches for discussion and to the General Council of 1954.

On behalf of the Social Action Committee, the Business Committee presented a resolution on Relations with Japan, which after amendment was unanimously adopted as follows:

RELATIONS WITH JAPAN

WHEREAS we look with satisfaction upon the recent enactment of a peace treaty with Japan and we believe that this represents a forward step in the establishment of an enduring community of nations, and

WHEREAS we recognize that Japan needs more continued help from America, therefore be it

RESOLVED: That we urge our representatives in Washington to support such measures as would encourage the establishment of a healthy Japanese peace economy, and to be on guard against the kind of economic policies which would prevent Japan from achieving economic recovery and which might force her into closer relations with Communist China.

Dr. Robert Wood Coe presented the cause of the Board of Ministerial Aid, and an offering was received amounting to $225.

Dr. Paul S. McElroy introduced Dr. Albert J. Penner, who spoke on "The Task of the Church in Evangelism."

The session closed with hymn and prayer by the Chaplain.

At twelve-fifteen members of the Conference joined in a World Friendship Luncheon as part of the Interdenominational program. Rev. Baldwin W. Callahan presided, and Dr. Adolphe Keller of the World Council of Churches spoke on "The World Mission of the Church."

THURSDAY AFTERNOON

From two-fifteen to three-forty-five eighteen seminars were held, as part of the Interdenominational program.

At three-forty-five the Conference reconvened, and was led in a hymn and prayer by the Chaplain.

Rev. Donald A. Simpson, for the Business Committee, presented a resolution on Arab Refugees, which was adopted as follows:

ARAB REFUGEES

WHEREAS American Christians have a great responsibility for the 750,000 Arab refugees whose homeless plight, as a result of the recent Palestinian crisis, is one of the outstanding human tragedies of our time, and

WHEREAS they are victims of population displacements related to war and shifting national boundaries, resulting from the operation of forces beyond their control, and

WHEREAS we, as Christians, must bear our share of responsibility for the plights and needs of these unfortunate people; therefore be it

RESOLVED: That we call upon our Congregational Christian Service Committee and the National Council of Churches of Christ in America, to find ways and means of effectively publicizing the plight of these people and of bringing to bear the full weight of Christian conscience in helping to find a solution for this human tragedy.

And be it further

RESOLVED: That our individual churches designate a two-weeks period for the collection of clothing for these refugees, and notify American Middle East Relief, Inc., Empire State Building, New York City.

A further resolution, on Social Action, was adopted as follows:

SOCIAL ACTION

WHEREAS we believe that the ideals of Jesus Christ and the ethical principles set forth in the Christian gospel represent the best guidance we have for the solution of social problems, and

WHEREAS we believe that most of the present ills of society can be traced to the materialism and secularism of our society and the unwillingness and inability of our people and their leaders to apply Christian ethics to our problems, and

WHEREAS we believe that our churches, working under the guidance of our social action leaders — local, state and national — may be of tremendous help in bringing about greater consideration for the Christian approach in social questions; therefore be it

RESOLVED: That we urge our churches and our people to give more thought, more prayer, more time and effort to our social action work, in our local churches and associations, through our State Committee, and the departments of the State Conference, and in cooperation with the essential work of the Congregational Council for Social Action; and be it further

RESOLVED: That we go on record as favoring the continuance of the Council for Social Action.

Mr. Francis M. Loud presented a resolution on Temperance, which was adopted as follows:

TEMPERANCE

WHEREAS intemperance is an increasingly disturbing factor in American life, contributing to the widespread breakdown of family life, an increase in industrial and traffic accidents, crimes and delinquency, and

WHEREAS the increasingly effective advertising of liquor tends to increase the social problems associated with it; be it therefore

RESOLVED: That we call upon our ministers and churches to provide more adequate education concerning the evils and dangers associated with the use of alcohol, commending temperance as a wise rule of prudence in respect to intoxicating liquors; and be it further

RESOLVED: That we call upon local commissions and the state Alcoholic Beverage Control Commission to exercise the utmost of caution in respect to the granting of liquor licenses, and that we request of law enforcement agencies a more faithful enforcement of Massachusetts laws relating to liquor violations.

Mr. Loud then presented resolutions on Gambling and on Corruption, which were adopted as follows:

GAMBLING

WHEREAS during the past year significant gains have been made by way of exposing the evils of organized gambling, therefore be it

RESOLVED That:

We express our appreciation to the Massachusetts General Court for defeating in its present session various legislative proposals designed to legalize and extend the scope of gambling in Massachusetts;

We call upon our churches for continued education against the evils of gambling;

We request law enforcement agencies for a more faithful enforcement of Massachusetts law, especially Chapters 137 and 271, with respect to lotteries, raffles and other types of illegal gambling.

CORRUPTION

WHEREAS we are continually made aware of corruption in high places of authority both in public and private life, and

WHEREAS we believe that the foundations of American democracy are based on the Christian principles of honesty, integrity and service to one's fellow men be it

RESOLVED: That this Conference urge prompt and vigorous action through duly constituted officials and agencies in stamping out these corruptive influences whenever and wherever they may appear; and be it further

RESOLVED: That if it is necessary to create, through governmental action, special agencies or commissions to bring about these results, that this Conference ask its Social Action Committee, in the name of the Conference, to take such steps as may implement this resolution.

Mr. Robertson presented a resolution on Rehabilitation for Prisoners, which was adopted as follows:

REHABILITATION FOR PRISONERS

WHEREAS great numbers of juveniles and adults in the penal and correctional institutions of our Commonwealth are in dire need of the ministry of Christian friendliness, and

WHEREAS practically all of these persons will be returned to the communities upon release from these institutions; be it

RESOLVED: That the churches of this Conference give serious concern to the unusual problems of these people, and that they be urged to develop and carry forward a sponsorship plan to help them, through the Social Action Committees of the Conference, Associations and churches; be it further

RESOLVED: That this Conference recognizes with appreciation the work already done in this area of need by the Social Ethics Department of the Boston University School of Theology and that we look with favor toward the further extension of this program among other denominations.

A resolution on Civil Liberties was presented by Mr. Simpson, and also one on Race Relations. These were adopted as follows:

CIVIL LIBERTIES

WHEREAS there has been a tendency on the part of many people to apply irresponsibly such labels and epithets as "Communist" and "subversive" to all persons of liberal views who dare to speak in the interest of social justice and reform, and

WHEREAS the concept of "guilt by association" and the readiness of many to consider individuals or organizations to be guilty of subversive conduct merely because they have been accused, endanger basic civil rights and interfere with normal American courses of thought and action; therefore be it

RESOLVED: That we condemn the kind of loose talk in public utterances and loose wording in legislation, purporting to control subversives, which results in unnecessary injury to innocent people and which makes for fear and confusion among the friends of freedom at home and abroad.

RACE RELATIONS

WHEREAS we are justly proud of what our denomination has accomplished through its educational institutions in the interest of genuine brotherhood, and

WHEREAS there remains a great opportunity for continued leadership, particularly through individual churches, by encouraging non-white Christians in their parishes, who are not affiliated with a church, to join the local churches; and by recognizing and encouraging potential leadership in such groups to be more active in church affairs; we express the hope that the time is at hand when more of our churches and denominational boards will avail themselves of the contributions that individuals of minority groups can make by serving them; and

WHEREAS our Christian conscience cannot rest until the brotherhood of man is a reality in every phase of human relations and all men are recognized for their brotherhood, through their common father, God; be it therefore

RESOLVED: That we call upon our churches to continue in the great tradition of Congregationalism in the field of race relations.

It was then voted

THAT all of the resolutions offered by the Social Action Committee be adopted as a group.

It was also voted

THAT all resolutions to be presented at an annual meeting of the Conference be printed, as far as possible, in the Advance Reports.

THAT each annual report of the Board of Trustees, with such recommendations as are to be presented to the annual meeting, be included in the Advance Reports.

A rising vote of thanks was given in appreciation of the work of the Social Action Committee.

Mr. Robertson presented the following resolution, which was unanimously adopted:

HOST CHURCH

Inasmuch as this, the 153rd Annual Meeting of the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society, has enjoyed the hospitality, the spiritual and material blessings of the many groups and individuals of Worcester during its stay here, it is therefore

RESOLVED: That we extend our deep appreciation and heartfelt thanks

1. To Central Church, with special recognition of the outstanding services rendered by the Hospitality and Arrangements Committees, the Minister, officers, members, Minister of Music, office staff, sexton, and choir;

2. To the various churches and the officials of the Worcester Memorial Auditorium who have assisted in its conduct of meetings and the serving of luncheons; Epworth Methodist Church, Old South Church, and Wesley Methodist Church;

3. To the combined choirs of fifteen different churches for their magnificent contribution to the success of the 50th Anniversary program;

4. To the many individuals outside of this fellowship who have opened their homes in order that all might find adequate lodging;

5. To the management of the several hotels who have earnestly and graciously served our people;

6. To the members of the press, who have given more than adequate coverage to the meetings of the Conference;

7. To the Mayor and city officials of Worcester, and the Police Department, for their cooperation in facilitating traffic problems and in giving courteous attention to our many needs. And be it further

8. RESOLVED: That we express to our Moderator, Rev. Dr. Roy L. Minich, our deep appreciation for his sacrificial, gracious and understanding leadership during the entire Annual Meeting; and to our Minister and President, Rev. Dr. Albert Buckner Coe, and all others from our Boston Office for their untiring and fruitful efforts on behalf of the Conference, wishing them continued health and joy in service, and promising them our prayers; Be it further

9. RESOLVED: That inasmuch as the resolutions adopted by this Annual Meeting are intended for the guidance of our churches throughout the State, we recommend that this body request the ministers and/or delegates of the various churches to read and publicize them.

Rev. Howard F. Boardman offered the following report for the Credentials Committee:

Delegates	347
Ministers	303
Guests	410
Ex Officiis	36
Total	1096

The total number of churches represented was 346.

Dr. David McKeith, Jr., executive Vice President of the American Board, spoke on "The Church and the Present World Crisis."

A motion picture, "More For Peace," was shown.

THURSDAY EVENING

A Fellowship Dinner was served in Memorial Auditorium. The program included the recognition of new ministers in Massachusetts, and recognition of ministers in their fiftieth year of ordination. Of the latter group, Rev. Christie G. Tokas and Rev. Burton L. Hess were present, Mr. Hess responding on behalf of the group. Following a brief musical program by Central Church Choir under the direction of Mr. Charles Hickman, a closing address was given by Mrs. Douglas Horton, on "What America Needs From the Churches."

The Conference closed with a hymn and the following prayer by the Chaplain:

God of righteousness and justice, who hast called us to be thine alone, with a heartening sense of community we bespeak thy benediction upon us. From our togetherness we go now, each to serve thee in his own way and his own place, knowing that every place and way thou hast made. Strengthen among us, therefore, the bond of unity that none need walk alone. As thou hast bound us to thyself, so bind us one to the other in the wonder of thy love, that we may ever, in utter confidence, know ourselves to be strong whose strength is placed in thee. Make us to be articulate spokesmen for thy way, that all who look to us for Christian nurture may see thee in us. Fill us with thy truth and make thy church a power for peace by our commitment to Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

REVEREND ALBERT BUCKNER COE, D.D., President

BOSTON, MASSACHUSETTS.

We have examined the balance sheets of Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society and of Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society, Trustee, as at March 31, 1952, and the related statements of income for the year ended at that date. Our examination was made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, and accordingly included such tests of the accounting records and such other auditing procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances.

The securities representing the invested funds at March 31, 1952, were verified by inspection, and we confirmed the cash in banks and in offices at that date.

In our opinion, the accompanying balance sheets and related statements of income present fairly the financial position of the Society and of the Society as Trustee, respectively, at March 31, 1952, and the results of their operations for the year ended at that date in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles applied on a basis consistent with that of the preceding year.

PATTERSON, TEELE AND DENNIS

ALLOTMENT ACCOUNT

In 1927 the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and the Massachusetts Home Missionary Society were united in a single corporation. Previous to that time, the National Council of Congregational Churches and the Conference had paid their expenses for meetings and administration by thirteen cents collected for each church member. It seems right that the Conference part of our organization should still pay its own charges. Twenty-four cents per member is asked this year of the Churches. Sixteen cents of the twenty-four goes to the General Council (formerly The National Council) and eight cents is kept by the Conference. The collection of the eight cents per member is the attempt of the Conference part of our organization to pay its expenses and not to become a charge upon missionary funds.

BEQUESTS

Bequests to the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society are used to aid weak churches and to promote the work and interests of the Conference in the State. Bequests may be made permanent funds by the donor, and the Conference restricted to the use of the income only. The practice of the Conference is to divide unrestricted legacies into three equal parts. One part is used for current work, one part is added to the Permanent Legacy Fund, the income only of which is used for general purposes; and the third part is added to a Contingent Fund, the principal of which may be drawn upon to care for special undertakings or to avoid a deficit.

If, on the other hand, a testator specifies that his entire legacy is to be expended as current income and that he does not wish it invested in whole or in part, these directions will be carefully observed.

Bequests to the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society pay no Massachusetts inheritance tax.

FORM OF BEQUEST

I give to the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society incorporated under the laws of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, the sum of .... Dollars.

GRANTS FROM THE MASSACHUSETTS CONGREGATIONAL CONFERENCE AND MISSIONARY SOCIETY

1. Wherever a community is too far from a church to benefit from its privileges, the Conference encourages the establishment of regular religious services, and, if possible, the organization of a church, or a branch of a neighboring church.

2. Applications by any church for financial aid should be made by the vote of the church, and upon forms furnished by the Conference, and should have the approval of the Advisory or Grants Committee of the local Association of Churches.

3. Churches applying for aid should show that they have met in full all financial obligations to their ministers and are doing their utmost toward self-support.

4. In granting aid the Conference will appropriate different amounts according to the necessity, importance, and prospects of each field.

5. Every church aided by the Conference should consult the President or Secretary before making arrangements for pastoral service.

6. Whenever the service of the minister or other worker, for whose support an appropriation is made, shall terminate, the appropriation shall lapse, except for special reasons satisfactory to the President.

7. The Conference advocates adequate compensation for every minister and worker.

8. The Conference favors hearty co-operation with other denominations, the avoidance of overlapping and competing work, and the consolidation or federation of churches of different denominations in over-churched communities.

9. We are indicating in this copy of the Minutes the churches that received Conference grants in the year 1951-1952 by placing the reference § before the names of these churches in the section of the Minutes entitled "Associations of Churches and Ministerial Standing." In cases where the grant was discontinued during the year the letter "d" appears after the reference §. Where the pastor's service ended during the year, the reference "†" appears. Special grants will be listed, as usual, on the following page.

STATISTICAL TABLES

EXPLANATORY

The tables which follow comprise:

1. The statistics of the churches, giving the ministers, church membership, additions, removals, Sunday school membership, and the amount of benevolences and expenses. These tables, in accordance with the vote of the Conference in 1887, are made to conform to those in the Year Book;

2. The Associations of the churches, with the names of officers;

3. The Ministerial Standing, giving the date of ordination of each minister, the date of membership in the Association, the residence and his "employment";

4. The Ministerial Record, containing lists of ordinations and deaths.

The tables of the first part contain the names of all the Congregational churches in Massachusetts, the towns and cities being arranged alphabetically. In cases where the post office name of the church and the town differ, heavy type indicates the postal address (or in some cases, the political township), and a cross reference on the page where the post office name would naturally be found will direct the reader to the town name.

Church members are reported as numbered January 1, 1952. Admissions and removals cover the year 1951. "Sunday school" includes total membership of officers, teachers and scholars January 1, 1952, or when the school is in operation (if not at that date), covering "branch schools", "mission schools" and "home departments" so far as maintained by the reporting church.

The months and days in the dates of the organization of churches are omitted. They will be found in the publications of 1873, those of churches since organized being given in the "Minutes" of each year. Months and days in the dates of ordination of Congregational ministers may be found in the lists of the local Associations which follow the tables.

Abbreviations in schedule headings are:

"Ord." — Ordained
"Cld." — Called
"Ma." — Male
"To." or "T." — Total
"Ab." — Absentee
"C." — Confession
"D." — Death
"L." — Letter

Reference marks are used as follows:

[] Around a pastor's name signify he is not in full standing as a Congregational Christian minister, nor a denominational licentiate, nor an approved lay preacher, nor a candidate in care of a local association.

y Pastor serves more than one church.
i Pastor installed by Council.
r Pastor recognized by Council.
m Approximate number of men.
c Sunday School membership includes Cradle Roll.
x Includes cost of new building or improvements.
—No answer can be given.
* Value of church property includes parsonage.
★ Per Capita paid in full by church.

|| When a church has made no report, items of membership in church, Sunday School and young people's organizations, also home expense and value of property, are inserted from the previous Year Book and marked || in the first column of the statistical report. This is done that these items may be included in the summaries and comparative tables, thus minimizing the danger of falsifying the comparisons.

Under church "Members" the number "Absent" are included in the "Total." Amount of "Home Expenses" includes all salaries, together with missionary aid received, operating expenses and repairs for church, Sunday School, choir and parish. An x before "Value Church Property" denotes expenditures for new buildings or improvements during the year. The total expended is given at the end of the Conference schedule.

In reporting the statistics of federated churches, figures given pertaining to membership and gifts on the apportionment are for the Congregational church within the federated church. Figures pertaining to average attendance, Church School enrollment, membership in young people's organizations, contributions to home expenses are usually for all the churches grouped together in the federated church.

CONDITIONAL GIFTS

The Conference receives conditional gifts, subject to annuity agreements with the donors, and encourages this method for those who wish any part of their property to be applied to our work after their death, and desire an assured income from their property for themselves, or for others whom they may designate as beneficiaries, as long as they live. Correspondence with the Treasurer concerning such annuity agreements is invited.

TRUST FUNDS

The Massachusetts Congregational Fund, organized during the year 1945 under the auspices of the Conference, is now administering trust funds of Congregational churches and organizations in Massachusetts aggregating $5,000,000, including the funds of the Conference.

It is not an easy matter for church or parish committees, often made up of those without broad experience in investment matters, to guard the safety of church trust funds. We welcome inquiries from Congregational churches in Massachusetts relative to caring for their trust or endowment funds.

HISTORICAL SKETCH

The Massachusetts Missionary Society was organized on May 29, 1799, in Boston. There were thirty-eight charter members, mainly followers of the theology of Samuel Hopkins. They were "impelled by a deep commiseration for the unhappy state of those who were perishing for lack of those precious means of salvation which we enjoy." Their intention was to spread "the knowledge of the glorious Gospel of Christ among the poor Heathens and in those remote parts of our country in which the inhabitants had not enjoyed the benefits of a Christian ministry and Christian ordinances," i.e., outside Massachusetts. Nathaniel Emmons, fifty-four years pastor at Franklin, was the first president.

In 1827 the Massachusetts Missionary Society and the Domestic Missionary Society of Massachusetts Proper were united under the name of the Massachusetts Missionary Society. This meant that while the Domestic Missionary Society of Massachusetts Proper lost its name, the Massachusetts Missionary Society was henceforth to work almost exclusively in Massachusetts.

The Massachusetts Missionary Society became the Massachusetts "Home" Missionary Society in 1844. This was simply to emphasize that the work of the Society had become exclusively for America and for the Massachusetts part of America.

The Massachusetts Home Missionary Society and the Massachusetts Congregational Conference were united under the name of the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society in 1927. This was the result of twenty-seven years' agitation, accelerated by a recommendation of the National Council in 1907. The charter of the Massachusetts Home Missionary Society was used as the basis for the union of the two organizations. The Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society assumes responsibility for all Congregational missionary work done in Massachusetts. It supports a staff of eleven persons who give ministerial and executive leadership to a broad program of work designed to help the churches, to develop the fellowship of the ministers and churches, and to cultivate practical support for denominational and interdenominational projects and programs.

BY-LAWS OF THE MASSACHUSETTS CONGREGATIONAL CONFERENCE AND MISSIONARY SOCIETY

ARTICLE I

Terminology

Whenever in these by-laws the word "Conference" is used it shall be held to refer to the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society.

ARTICLE II

Denominational Basis

Following Congregational principles, this Conference shall under no circumstances exercise authority over churches or individuals or interfere with the government or discipline of the churches. It shall advise and counsel the churches when requested, but it is recognized that each church has the power of self-determination in all matters.

ARTICLE III

Doctrinal Basis

This Conference declares its steadfast allegiance to the faith which our fathers confessed, which, from age to age, has found its expression in the historic creeds of the Church Universal and of this Communion.

ARTICLE IV

Membership

Voting Members. Every Church or Congregation which is or shall become a member of a Congregational or a Congregational Christian Association of Churches in Massachusetts may annually choose two delegates (of whom it is suggested one shall be a layman and the other a laywoman) and these delegates, together with the pastor or pastors of each church (who shall be members ex officiis), the officers of the Conference (including the members of the Board of Trustees and any person who shall have been elected an Officer Emeritus), the committee members of the Conference and those persons who, prior to May 22, 1923, became life members of the Massachusetts Home Missionary Society, shall constitute the voting membership of the Conference; provided, however, that pastors shall have the privileges of honorary members only unless they shall have membership in Congregational Christian Associations regularly holding ministerial standing.

Honorary Members. Delegates from corresponding bodies and persons appointed to speak before the Conference, together with all persons heretofore constituted honorary members of the Massachusetts Home Missionary Society, such persons as may be made honorary members by a vote of the Board of Trustees, and such other persons as the Conference may from time to time vote to admit, shall be honorary members of the Conference, with the privilege of speaking, but without vote.

ARTICLE V

Officers

1. There shall be a Moderator, one or more vice-Moderators, a Recording Secretary, a Chairman and a vice-Chairman of the Department of Woman's Work (See Article VIII, Sec. 1, (b)), a Chairman and vice-Chairman of the Massachusetts Congregational Laymen's Council (See Article VIII, Sec. 2, (b)), all of whom shall be nominated by the Nominating Committee hereinafter provided for, and elected by ballot at each annual meeting of the Conference for a term of one year and until their respective successors are chosen.

2. The executive officers of the Conference shall be a President, a Secretary, a Treasurer, Field Secretaries, a Director of Woman's Work, a Secretary of Missions and Stewardship, and a Secretary of Religious Education. These officers shall constitute the Executive Staff. They shall be nominated by the Board of Trustees meeting in executive session, and elected by ballot at each annual meeting of the Conference for a term of one year and until their respective successors are chosen. They shall bear such additional titles as the Conference or the Board of Trustees may determine.

3. The Conference shall elect by ballot a Board of Trustees consisting of one member from each Association of churches, and six members-at-large who shall be known for their special knowledge of financial affairs, of whom one shall be chosen each even-numbered year and two, — beginning with the year 1935, — each odd-numbered year. The Chairman and Vice Chairman of the Woman's Department, the Chairman and Vice Chairman of the Massachusetts Laymen's Council, the President of the Massachusetts Pilgrim Fellowship and one Vice President (nominated by its executive committee), the Chairman of the Congregational Center Committee, and the Moderator shall also be members ex officiis. One-third of the representatives of the Associations upon the Board shall be ministers, one-third laymen, and one-third laywomen as nearly as may be. Nine members shall constitute a quorum. The term of office shall be four years, and no member having served a full term shall be eligible for re-election until after one year, but members-at-large, chosen for their knowledge of financial affairs, may serve for two consecutive terms. The present Trustees shall remain in office until the expiration of their terms.

The Conference shall from time to time designate the Associations from which Trustees are to be chosen in the successive years and determine whether the Trustee to be chosen from a particular Association in any year shall be a minister, a layman, or a laywoman.

Each Association shall be notified by the Secretary of the Conference on or before September 15 when it is its turn to propose to the nominating committee a candidate for membership upon the Board, and whether such candidate should be a minister, a layman or a laywoman, and the names of such candidates shall be reported to the Secretary before April 1, of each year. The Secretary upon the receipt of these names shall communicate them to the nominating committee on or before April 10. In case any Association fails to propose a candidate the Board of Trustees shall perform this duty. This method of choosing Trustees shall commence at the close of the 1933 Conference.

At its first meeting after each annual meeting of the Conference the Board shall choose one of its members to serve as chairman for the ensuing year. Except as otherwise provided in the charter of the Conference or in these by-laws, the Board shall administer and dispose of the property of the Conference and shall manage all its business and affairs, and all officers and agents of the Conference shall act under its direction. The Board shall cause the accounts of the Treasurer to be audited at least once each year by certified public accountants selected by the Board. Without restricting the generality of the foregoing, the Board shall in particular have the following powers:

(a) To choose a Clerk, to appoint its own meetings and form its own rules of business, to appoint sub-committees and to delegate any of its powers to such committees.

(b) To appoint and, at pleasure, remove all agents of the Conference and to define their duties.

(c) To fill any vacancy in any office of the Conference (including vacancies in the membership of the Board) until the vacancy shall be filled at a succeeding meeting of the Conference.

(d) To remove any officer of the Conference (other than members of the Board) who may be guilty of disregard of his duties or of such conduct as shall be seriously prejudicial to the interests of the Conference.

(e) To direct efforts to promote missionary interest and giving among the Congregational churches of the Commonwealth.

4. The terms of all officers, save when chosen to fill vacancies, shall begin at the close of the meeting at which they are elected.

ARTICLE VI

Duties of Officers

1. The Moderator, or in his absence, one of the vice-Moderators, shall preside over all meetings of the Conference.

2. The President shall be the chief executive officer of the Conference and shall, subject to the direction of the Conference and of its Board of Trustees, have general charge of its missionary and benevolent work and of its other activities. He shall be a member ex officio of all standing committees named in the by-laws with the exception of the nominating committee. He shall have the power to delegate to members of the Staff the authority to represent him upon any of the said standing committees. He shall be the representative of the Conference and of its Board of Trustees among all the churches (both those financially independent and those aided by the funds of the Conference) and in all denominational and interdenominational gatherings (including meetings of state Superintendents) unless representation is otherwise provided. He may seek to assist pastors and churches with fraternal counsel. He shall keep informed as to opportunities for extension work through founding new churches or strengthening old ones and shall recommend to the Conference and to the Board of Trustees measures for meeting such opportunities.

3. The Secretary shall keep the records of the Conference, except as hereinafter provided, and shall assist in its general work under the direction of the President. He shall devote himself in co-operation with the Field Secretaries and under the direction of the President, to counseling with and assisting the churches in the area assigned to him, and shall perform such other duties as may be assigned to him by the Board of Trustees or the President. He shall have the custody of the records and of all bonds given by the treasurer as hereinafter provided. He shall furnish copies of the record certified under the seal of the Conference (which shall be in his keeping) to such persons as may be entitled thereto.

The Secretary shall collect and publish in connection with the annual Report of the Conference the statistics of ministers and churches and make up the official roll of the ministers and churches in accordance with the usages of the denomination. He shall present to the Conference at its annual meeting a general statistical statement of the progress of religion in the churches for the past calendar year. He shall give suitable notice to the churches of the time and place of each annual meeting, notify officers and committees of their election or appointment and fulfill such other functions as the Conference or the Board of Trustees may from time to time direct.

4. The Treasurer shall receive and hold the property of the Conference subject to the direction of the Board of Trustees and shall keep particular accounts of the Conference's funds and of the disposal thereof. He shall, under the direction of the President, assist, so far as he may be able, in the general work of the Conference and shall perform such other duties as may be assigned to him by the Board of Trustees. He shall make a report at each annual meeting of the Conference and shall make such other reports as the Conference or the Board of Trustees may from time to time require. He shall receive all contributions for benevolences sent to him by the churches and by individuals and shall disburse the same in accordance with the instructions of the donors. He shall give such bonds for the faithful performance of his duties as may from time to time be required by the Board of Trustees.

5. The Field Secretaries shall counsel with and assist the churches in the area which may from time to time be assigned to them by the Board of Trustees or the President.

6. The Secretary of Missions and Stewardship shall have the duty of advancing the interest of the churches in the work of missions at home and abroad. He shall, under the direction of the President, assist, so far as he may be able, in the general work of the Conference.

7. The Director of Woman's Work shall have special charge of promoting missionary interests and all other activities among the women of the Congregational churches of the Commonwealth. She shall, under the direction of the President, assist, so far as she may be able, in the general work of the Conference.

8. The Secretary of Religious Education and the Associate in Religious Education, if any, shall encourage and promote the whole program of religious education as well as Christian living and Christian activities among the Congregational churches of the State. He, or she, or they, shall, under the direction of the President, assist so far as able, in the general work of the Conference.

9. The Recording Secretary shall record the complete minutes of each annual meeting and shall transcribe and deliver the same to the Secretary. The Board of Trustees may, in their discretion, appoint a deputy to assist in the keeping of the records under the direction of the Recording Secretary.

ARTICLE VII

Retirement and Annuity

1. No person who has attained the age of seventy years shall continue as a member of the Executive Staff. With respect to employees not members of the Executive Staff, it shall be the policy of the Conference to retire every such employee upon his or her attaining the age of seventy years, provided, however, that this shall not affect the power of the Trustees temporarily to employ from time to time persons who have passed that age (including former members of the executive staff) whenever in particular cases the Trustees shall deem such temporary employment essential to the efficient conduct of the Conference's work.

2. Ordained ministers who are members of the executive staff shall be expected to be members of the Annuity Fund for Congregational Ministers, and the Conference shall not provide for them any other retirement annuity, except in the case of ministers who are now members under the Original Plan. Toward each annual premium in the Annuity Fund of any member of the staff the Conference shall pay each year an amount equal to 8% of the charge on his salary, less such amount as the Conference shall pay the United States for his Social Security.

3. Lay members of the office staff shall be expected to be, so far as practicable, members of the Retirement Fund for Lay Workers, and the Conference shall pay, as the annual premium for each lay worker who is a member of the Fund, 8% of the charge on his salary, less such amount as the Conference shall pay the United States for his Social Security.

ARTICLE VIII

Departments and Affiliated Organizations

1. There shall be a Department of Woman's Work of the Conference.
   (a) The object of this Department shall be to help to promote the entire work of the local church and to further in every way possible the cause of Christ throughout the world. The voting members of this Department shall be the women members of the Conference, together with such other women as may be determined by the rules of the Department. The Chairman, Vice-Chairman of the Department, the District Presidents, the women members of the Board of Trustees and the members of the Business Committee, as provided by the rules of the Department, shall constitute the members of the Executive Committee of the Woman's Department. This Executive Committee shall organize the membership of the Department in whatever manner it may deem needful for the effective carrying on of the Department's work.

   (b) The Department shall provide by its rules for the appointment of a nominating committee. This committee shall annually propose to the nominating committee of the Conference from among its membership a chairman and a vice-chairman of the Department, who shall be ex officiis members of the Board of Trustees of the Conference. It shall also nominate such other officers and committees as the rules of the Department shall require, to be elected by the Department at its annual meeting.

2. There shall be a Department of Laymen's Work of the Conference. It shall be called the Massachusetts Congregational Laymen's Council.

(a) The object of this Department shall be: To inspire higher conceptions of Christian citizenship for the development of democratic society and the world-wide Kingdom of God; to promote a richer fellowship of Congregational laymen through conferences, retreats, and other meetings and to co-operate with laymen of other denominations in significant Christian projects; to encourage organized laymen's groups and classes in all our churches, especially the smaller ones; to rally more men to the support of the church and to train men in worship and leadership in their church and community life.

(b) The Massachusetts Congregational Laymen's Council shall consist of sixty-two members — two from each of the Associations in the State and twenty members-at-large, who shall be elected annually by the State Conference. The Conference Nominating Committee shall receive the names of two members from each Association — or its Laymen's Organization — and the names of twenty members-at-large from the Executive Committee of the Massachusetts Laymen's Council. Should an Association fail to name candidates, the nominations for that Association shall be made by the Executive Committee of the Laymen's Council. The officers of this organization shall be a Chairman, a vice-Chairman, a Secretary and a Treasurer.

3 There shall be a Department of Young People's Work of the Conference.

(a) There shall be a Massachusetts Council of Pilgrim Fellowship, composed of two representatives from each Association, to be named by the Association Pilgrim Fellowship or Congregational Young People's organization of the Association, whatever its name may be, as it or its Executive Committee may determine. If the Congregational young people of any Association are unorganized, the Association Committee on Religious Education may name two delegates to the Massachusetts Council of Pilgrim Fellowship. The Council shall hold its annual meeting in May or at such other time as its Executive Committee may determine. At its annual meeting the Council shall plan the State youth program and elect its officers for the ensuing year

(b) Unless otherwise determined by the Council, the State officers shall be (1) President, (2) four vice-Presidents, (3) Secretary, (4) Editor. The Executive Committee of Pilgrim Fellowship shall consist of (1) the officers, (2) the President of the preceding year, (3) an Adult Advisor to be chosen by the Council with the approval of the State Committee on Religious Education, and (4) one of the Secretaries of Religious Education on the staff of the Massachusetts Congregational Conference, who shall be designated as Executive Secretary of the Massachusetts Pilgrim Fellowship. The President and one of the vice-Presidents to be designated by the Executive Committee shall be ex officiis members of the Board of Trustees of the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society.

ARTICLE IX

Meetings

1. The Conference shall hold its regular annual meeting for the choice of officers, the hearing of reports, the discussion of matters of general interest and the transaction of other business at the appointed place on the third Monday of May, or at such other time in the month of May as the Board of Trustees may deem expedient.

2. Special meetings of the Conference shall be convened at such times and places as may be determined by the Board of Trustees, provided, however, that notice of any special meeting so convened shall, at least one week before the date of the meeting, be sent by mail to each of the churches connected with the Conference, posted in the general office of the Conference and printed in newspapers published in Boston, Worcester and Springfield, respectively.

3. The Moderator or, in his absence, one of the vice-Moderators or, in the absence of all of them some member of the Board of Trustees shall call the Conference to order.

4. At each annual meeting the Conference shall propose to the churches the annual contribution for the expenses of the General Council and for such expenses of the Conference and other purposes, as may be deemed equitable. The Trustees shall at each annual meeting present a recommendation as to the action to be taken at such meeting with reference to the allotment to be made at that meeting, unless the Conference shall have directed at a previous meeting that such recommendation be made by a designated committee.

ARTICLE X

Committees

1. Immediately after the opening of the annual meeting the Moderator shall appoint:

   (a) A Committee on Credentials, to which all credentials shall be referred.

   (b) A Business Committee, the duty of which shall be to prepare and present at each session all matters of business not presented through some other committee of the Conference.

2. The following standing committees shall be elected by viva voce vote:

   (a) A Nominating Committee composed of nine members, consisting of the retiring Moderator of each annual meeting, together with eight other members, of whom at least two shall be ministers, at least two shall be women and at least two shall be laymen. Each year the Board of Trustees, meeting in executive session, shall select four persons whom they shall nominate at the annual meeting of the Conference to be elected to serve for two years. The retiring members shall not be eligible for re-election for at least one year.

   This committee shall nominate all officers and committees whose nominations are not otherwise provided for in these by-laws.

(b) A Program Committee, of which the Secretary of the Conference and the pastor of the church which is to entertain the next annual meeting shall be members ex officiis. At each annual meeting two members shall be elected to serve for three years. This committee shall prepare the program for the next annual meeting and shall select the preacher of the annual sermon and the various speakers at each session.

(c) A Committee on Religious Education. At each annual meeting three members shall be elected to serve for three years. The duty of the Committee shall be to foster religious and missionary education in the churches and in the associations of Massachusetts. This Committee shall give advice and counsel in regard to the organized young people's work of the State. Among its various duties the Committee shall bear responsibility for planning and promoting summer camps and conferences.

(d) A Committee on Social Action, consisting of nine members, of whom three shall be elected at each annual meeting for a term of three years. It shall be the duty of the committee to promote interest in moral and social issues among the churches of the Conference. The committee shall be authorized to present and to support publicly such principles and measures as have been adopted by the Conference.

(e) A Committee on the Ministry consisting of thirty-one members: ten at large, three of whom shall be laymen or lay-women, two of the ten to be elected at each annual meeting for a term of five years; the remaining twenty-one to be composed of the Chairman of each Association Committee on the Ministry. It shall be the duty of this Committee to endeavor to establish and maintain high standards for our Congregational ministry and churches.

The Conference shall maintain a special roll of ministers to which names may have been transferred by the Associations. This special roll shall be in charge of the Conference Committee on the Ministry, and the presence of a name there shall constitute evidence that the man has been duly ordained and has had standing in a Congregational Association; but the Committee shall not issue credentials to a man whose name appears on this roll unless they find in concurrence with the Committee on the Ministry in his Association, that his character and qualifications are satisfactory.

(f) A Committee on Evangelism and Devotional Life, consisting of nine members, of whom three shall be elected at each annual meeting for a term of three years. It shall be the duty of the committee to serve as a cooperating agency of the national Commission on Evangelism and Devotional Life.

(g) A Missionary Committee. Each of the twenty-one Associations shall nominate a member of this Committee who shall represent the missionary committee of the Association. The term of office shall be three years, and the alphabetical list of Associations shall be divided into three groups, and these three groups shall rotate in making their elections.

In addition, there shall be six members-at-large, nominated by the Board of Trustees for a term of one year. Four of these persons shall be members of the Board of Trustees.

There shall also be three ex officiis members, representing the Woman's Department, the Layman's Council, and the Pilgrim Fellowship, respectively.

The Committee shall meet at least twice a year, and an executive committee shall be chosen, to meet as frequently as occasion requires. It shall be the duty of this Committee to advance the interest of the churches in the work of missions at home and abroad.

(h) A Committee on the Town and Country Church, consisting of nine members, of whom three shall be elected at each annual meeting for a term of three years. It shall be the duty of this Committee to co-operate with the national Commission on the Town and Country Church and to offer such practical helps and encouragement as may be possible and welcomed by our churches in the town and country areas.

(i) A Conference Center Committee. The operation and management of the Conference Center (to be known as "Conference Center" or some other name yet to be decided upon) shall be in the hands of a State Conference Committee, to be called the Conference Center Committee, as the agency of the Conference, responsible to the Board of Trustees. This Committee shall consist of thirty members—approximately one-third ministers, one-third laymen, and one-third lay-women—one member from each Association to be nominated annually by the Association, and nine members-at-large, to be nominated by the State Conference Nominating Committee for three-year terms, three to be elected each year —one minister, one layman, one lay-woman.

The Chairman of the Conference Center Committee shall be a member ex officio of the Board of Trustees of the State Conference and shall make a report at each meeting of the Board of Trustees.

The Conference Center Committee shall elect its own officers and sub-committee chairmen and may co-opt such additional persons as may be necessary to the effective functioning of the committees.

No member, elected or appointed, having served a full term of three consecutive years, shall be eligible to succeed himself until after the lapse of one year.

3. Such other committees as the Conference may vote to constitute shall be elected by viva voce vote at each annual meeting for such terms as the Conference shall determine. The Board of Trustees shall present at each annual meeting a list of the committees the appointment of which it recommends.

4. It shall be the general practice of the Conference, without making it an arbitrary rule, that at least one-third of its committee members be lay-women and one-third laymen.

5. The reports of all committees that are to be presented to the Conference shall be furnished to the Secretary on or before April first of each year, and shall be printed and distributed to the churches not less than two weeks before the annual meeting. These reports shall not be read to the Conference save by special order, but the Program Committee may arrange for the adequate discussion of any or all the topics presented in the reports.

ARTICLE XI

Board of Ministerial Aid

The Board of Ministerial Aid shall be the agent of the Conference in the work of aiding needy ministers and their families and shall make an annual report to the Conference. On notice of a vacancy in the membership of the Board of Ministerial Aid, the Conference shall nominate a person to fill the vacancy.

ARTICLE XII

Boston Seaman's Friend Society

The Boston Seaman's Friend Society shall be the agent of the Conference in the work of promoting the spiritual and temporal welfare of seamen and shall make an annual report to the Conference. The Conference shall annually elect five members of the Society for a term of three years each.

ARTICLE XIII

Board of Pastoral Supply

The Conference shall elect nine members to represent it on the Congregational Board of Pastoral Supply, three members to be elected each year to serve for a period of three years. The Board shall, through its Secretary, make an annual report to the Conference.

ARTICLE XIV

The seal of the Conference shall consist of two or more concentric circles, with the words "Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society" around the circumference between these circles and the words "Inc., 1808" within the inner circle.

1. The place of the next annual meeting shall be recommended each year by the Business Committee and designated by vote of the Conference.

2. All matters of business presented to the Conference, except those presented through duly appointed committees of the Conference, shall be referred to the Business Committee unless referred to some other committee by special vote of the Conference.

3. All matters of business referred to the Business Committee shall be reported for action before the final adjournment of the annual meeting.

4. As far as possible, all business of the Conference shall be completed by noon of the second day of the annual meeting.

ARTICLE XVI

Rules of Order

The Rules of Order shall be those of common parliamentary usage subject to the following specifications:

(a) No member shall speak more than twice on the same question without leave of the Conference.

(b) When a question is before the Conference the Moderator shall entertain motions only as follows: — to adjourn, to table, for the previous question, to postpone to a fixed time, to commit, to amend or to postpone indefinitely; these several motions shall have precedence in the foregoing order.

ARTICLE XVII

Amendments

1. These by-laws, except Articles II and III, may be amended at any regularly called meeting of the Conference by a two-thirds vote, provided the amendment was proposed at the preceding annual meeting of the Conference or is recommended by the Board of Trustees.

2. Articles II and III may be amended by a two-thirds vote, but only after the proposed amendment has been submitted to the Conference in writing at the previous annual meeting and notice has been sent to the several churches connected with the Conference at least three months prior to the meeting at which action is to be taken.

Dr. Henry Smith Leiper of New York delivered the address of the evening, "The Church Needs Laymen."

TUESDAY MORNING

The Conference was called to order at nine-fifteen by Mr. Robert Shoemaker, Moderator.

Devotions were led by the Chaplain, Rev. Samuel Young.

Dr. John Homer Miller, host pastor, brought greetings, to which response was made by the Moderator.

Business — Rev. Chauncey E. Blossom, Aburndale, Chairman; Mr. Robert C. Ames, North Amherst; Rev. Rolland G. Ewing, Boston; Mrs. Ralph Harrington, Natick; Rev. Oliver Powell, Worcester.

Credentials — Rev. Allan H. Gates, Chesterfield, Chairman; Mr. Henry S. Allen, East Longmeadow; Rev. J. Osborne Crowe, Ipswich; Mrs. B. Paul Pardy, Maynard.

The report of the Board of Trustees, presented by its Chairman, Rev. Byron L. Whipple, was received and placed on file.

Mr. Arthur W. Davis presented his report as Treasurer, and it was accepted. Mr. Davis also reported on the progress of the Massachusetts Congregational Fund.

Reporting for the Conference Center Committee, Rev. John L. Lobingier said that cash contributions to date totaled $100,035.

Dr. Albert Buckner Coe, President and Minister of the Conference, was introduced by the Moderator and, in turn, introduced the members of the Staff.

Dr. Coe then presented his annual report, which was received with enthusiasm.

Dr. Myron W. Fowell moved acceptance of the Advance Reports, as printed, with the understanding that acceptance does not imply adoption of any resolutions contained therein. It was so voted.

Mr. Whipple, for the Trustees, introduced two motions, both of which were adopted.

THAT the Conference take from the undesignated gifts to Our Christian World Mission an amount sufficient to make the total appropriation to the Conference equal to 15% of the total giving to Our Christian World Mission, plus 1% for the Boston Seaman's Friend Society.

THAT the Allotment assessments for the year of twenty-eight cents, eight cents for the Conference and twenty cents for the General Council, be accepted as a recommendation of the Trustees.

A third recommendation of the Trustees was adopted unanimously, as follows:

WHEREAS the Conference at its annual meeting in May 1952, by vote of all but six of its members present and voting, authorized the change of its name from Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society to Massachusetts Congregational Christian Conference; and

WHEREAS the provisions of Chapter 155, Section 10 of the General Laws with respect to the change of the name of a religious corporation were satisfied by a two-thirds vote of the voting members so far as ministers and delegates were concerned but not so far as committee members of the Conference were concerned because two-thirds of such members were not present and voting at said Conference;

NOW, therefore, since the provisions of Chapter 155, Section 10 of the General Laws cannot be strictly satisfied, it is VOTED: That the proper officers of the corporation be authorized to petition the Commissioner of Corporations and Taxation for the change of name of the corporation from Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society to Massachusetts Congregational Christian Conference, all in accordance with the provisions of Chapter 180, Section 11 of the General Laws.

Rev. Chauncey E. Blossom, Chairman of the Business Committee, introduced Mrs. Homer Washburn of Hadley, the newly elected representative of ADVANCE in Massachusetts, who urged support of ADVANCE, and Rev. John A. Harrer, who extended to all an invitation to the One Hundredth Anniversary celebration of the American Congregational Association, to be held on May 25, 1953.

A telegram of congratulations from the Greater Springfield Council of Churches was read.

A resolution from Middlesex Union Association was presented by the Scribe, Rev. Robert C. Crawford, as follows:

WHEREAS the General Council at its last meeting abolished the Unit System for electing its delegates and substituted direct election by Associations from nominees submitted by each church in the Association, and

WHEREAS Middlesex Union Association has adopted a plan for electing its delegates under the new constitutional provisions, and

WHEREAS it might be helpful to other Associations to benefit from this study made by Middlesex Union, and

WHEREAS Middlesex Union has suggested certain amendments to the General Council Constitution relating to the election of delegates, therefore be it

RESOLVED: That the Trustees are requested to provide copies of this plan for all Association Scribes and if they deem it advisable, copies for individual churches and that the Scribes be asked to present the subject at the fall meetings of their Associations, and be it further

RESOLVED: That the Trustees be requested to study the suggestions of the Middlesex Union and any other proposals, and if they deem it advisable, to file the amendments with the General Council in time for action at its 1954 meeting.

An amendment to refer this matter to the Trustees, without opinion, was adopted and the resolution so amended was voted.

A resolution of the Committee on Evangelism and Devotional Life, as printed on page 26 in the Advance Reports, was referred to the afternoon business session.

In a Seminar on "Our Ministry to Students," led by Prof. Robert S. Illingworth of Barre, the following spoke briefly: Dr. Sydney M. Temple, Chaplain, University of Massachusetts, Amherst; Rev. J. Edgar Edwards, Boston, Student Christian Movement of New England; Rev. Robert C. Dodds, Minister to Students, First Congregational Church, Cambridge.

The session closed with hymn and prayer, led by the Chaplain.

TUESDAY AFTERNOON

At 12:15 a Missionary Luncheon aas served in Community Hall, Hope Church, with Rev. Robert N. Foster of Fitchburg presiding. An address, "The World Menace and the World Mission," was given by Dr. Henry Smith Leiper of the Missions Council, New York.

The afternoon session opened with hymn and prayer, led by the Chaplain.

A panel discussion on "Religion and Public Education" was presented by the Committee on Religious Education, with the following persons participating: Dr. John Leslie Lobingier, Boston, Chairman; Rev. Oliver Powell, Worcester; Rev. Erwin L. Shaver, Chicago; Prof. J. Paul Williams, South Hadley; Mr. Russell L. Williams, Springfield.

Dr. Frederick Meek, Vice Moderator, was introduced.

The Chairman of the Business Committee re-introduced the resolution of the Committee on Evangelism from page 26, Advance Reports, and it was voted that this resolution be referred back to the Business Committee for clarification.

The Business Committee next introduced the resolution of the Social Action Committee on International Relations, which was amended. (After further amendment at a later session, the resolution was adopted as it appears in the minutes of the Wednesday morning session.

Mrs. Harrington presented a resolution of the Social Action Committee on Juvenile Delinquency, which was adopted as follows:

Inasmuch as there is a general rise in juvenile delinquency throughout the state and since much of it manifests itself in the early years of childhood

WE RECOMMEND: That the churches of our Conference concern themselves with a more thoroughgoing program of character training for children and guidance for parents in the interest of Christian family life. This program should include week-day activities, adapted to all ages of children and youth, such as are being carried on by a number of our churches with excellent results by way of correcting tendencies toward delinquency.

Although a beginning has been made in the program, presented last year by the Social Action Committee of the Conference

WE RECOMMEND: That the churches work out with the proper authorities, ways in which they may be of assistance to juveniles and adults within the correctional and penal institutions of our state and that they take a deeper interest than they have yet shown in the parolees from these institutions.

Rev. Rolland G. Ewing, on behalf of the same committee, presented a resolution on Constitutional Rights, which was adopted as follows:

WHEREAS deep anxieties and fears have been aroused in the minds of our people by the ominous threats and tensions of our present international situation

AND WHEREAS such anxieties and fears tend to lead into repressive and unfair measures and procedures that flout the Constitution of our nation and to undermine the fundamental human rights which it defines and seeks to guarantee

AND WHEREAS we hold as part of our Christian faith a belief in the dignity and worth, the freedom and responsibility of each individual human being

AND WHEREAS we concur in the resolution of the General Board of the National Council of Churches adopted by an overwhelming vote at its March meeting, warning against abuse of the Congressional power to investigate

AND WHEREAS we look to the National Council for continuing leadership in this field, therefore be it

RESOLVED: That we commend to our churches the extensive use of the excellent materials prepared and made available by the Massachusetts Council of Churches on "The Roots of Freedom" and the fundamental importance of our Constitutional rights and liberties

AND WHEREAS we are so unalterably opposed to communism or any other totalitarian system of thought and practice that we feel we must not substitute such repressive principles and methods for the Constitutional freedoms which have made our nation the great democracy that it is, therefore be it

RESOLVED: That we renew our devotion to the fundamental freedoms and make known our opposition to anything which denies or threatens them in our respective communities, our Commonwealth, our nation and throughout the world.

Continuing for the Social Action Committee, Rev. Oliver Powell read the resolution on Social Action in Industrial Relations, which was adopted as follows:

WHEREAS tensions and conflicts in the area of labor-management relations constitute an ever-present threat of economic and social disruption affecting the public welfare, domestic production, international trade and national security, and

WHEREAS prosperity, progress and the material well-being of individuals and communities depend upon the satisfactory resolution of the causes of these tensions and conflicts, and

WHEREAS this should be dealt with as a problem in human relations and Christian ethics, which can only be solved by full understanding and acceptance of the responsibility of labor and management to each other and of both to the community and of the community to them, and

WHEREAS moral leadership in the community is a responsibility of the churches; be it

RESOLVED: That we accept and fulfill this obligation by instituting programs designed to create a climate of understanding and dispel the prejudices, suspicions and distrusts which prevent constructive, cooperative action; that such problems include study and discussion of labor and management problems on all levels; labor and management forums, panels and off-the-record conferences; and the employment of such other techniques as may be developed and found efficacious.

The resolution on Temperance Education and Liquor Control, read by Mr. Robert Ames, was adopted as follows:

TEMPERANCE EDUCATION AND LIQUOR CONTROL

WHEREAS the problem of intemperance is becoming increasingly widespread in the United States and is a contributing factor in crime, traffic accidents, divorce and broken homes, and ill health, and

WHEREAS the colorful and glamorous advertising of liquor stirs the imagination of youth and creates a distorted conception of the nature and value of alcoholic beverages, be it

RESOLVED: That more effective educational programs are needed in our churches and affiliated organizations, schools and colleges to share with young people and adults the facts and dangers related to the use of alcohol and that more emphasis be given in such programs to the principle of total abstinence as a wise rule of personal conduct in respect to alcoholic beverages,

Be it also RESOLVED: That we call upon the Committee on Legislation of the Massachusetts Council of Churches to give consideration to such varied systems of handling the sale of alcoholic beverages as are in operation in Sweden and certain American states in which the handling of the sale of liquor seems not to be accompanied by such disastrous consequences as are inherent in the present method in operation in Massachusetts.

Mr. Blossom presented a resolution on Gambling, which was adopted. (After an amendment at a later session, this resolution was as it appears in the minutes of the Wednesday morning session.)

Mr. Blossom introduced the following resolution on behalf of Mr. Charles Norris of Northampton, and it was adopted:

WHEREAS legislation has been introduced in the Congress of the United States, the intent of which is to permit an additional number of immigrants above the regular quotas of the countries of their origin to enter the United States and

WHEREAS a special quota is there under allotted to the Netherlands, who also have a refugee problem, be it

RESOLVED: That the Massachusetts Congregational Christian Conference endorse and approve the spirit which has prompted the entering of this act and the principle involved and that copies of this resolution be sent to the Senators and Congressmen representing the Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

At four-fifteen a motion picture, "The Hidden Heart," emphasizing how a person grows by giving, was presented.

At eight o'clock, the worship service was led by the Chaplain, with music by the Chancel Choir and Quartet of Hope Church.

It was voted that the Secretary send, on behalf of the Conference, a letter of sympathy to Rev. John Gratton, who is ill.

Dr. Frank E. Duddy presented "A Pictorial View of New Churches in Massachusetts and Other States."

Brief addresses were given as follows: "The Church Goes to the Towns of the West," Rev. Merton L. Rymph of Lakeville; "Must the Students Be Without the Church?" Rev. Robert C. Dodds, Harvard University; "The Part of the Layman," Mr. Donald E. Wilbur, Wellesley Hills.

The session closed with hymn and prayer, led by the Chaplain.

WEDNESDAY MORNING

Communion was conducted at eight-thirty, with Dr. Albert Buckenr Coe leading, and meditation by Rev. Alden S. Mosshammer of Springfield.

The report of the Nominating Committee was presented by Rev. Leonard W. Fowler, Chairman, and was accepted. Ballots were passed and the election was completed, resulting in the unanimous choice of those listed on pages 19–28.

The Business Committee again introduced a resolution from the Committee on Evangelism, which, after revision, was adopted as follows:

WHEREAS working at the specific tasks of the church should be a part of each member's church life and

WHEREAS we should be alert to provide opportunities to work for our new members as they are welcomed into our fellowship and

WHEREAS our younger members will be only as strong and resourceful as their direct responsibilities and experiences permit them to grow, be it

RESOLVED: That we urge each member church of the Massachusetts Congregational Christian Conference to provide, at its own discretion, a specific plan of rotation amongst the various official committees and boards of the churches (or parishes or societies, which in some cases, represent the financial interests of the church) in order that it may become customary to consider that after an office-holder, as described above, has served one full term, a year shall elapse before his reelection to the same office.

Mr. Julian D. Steele, the newly elected Vice Moderator, took charge at this point, in the absence of the Moderator and Vice Moderator.

The resolution on International Relations, adopted at the Tuesday afternoon session, was further amended, and in its final form was adopted as follows:

Believing that one indispensable condition of the Kingdom of God is the brotherhood of man, and realizing that in this world brotherhood is not only of persons but also by nations and ultimately through a community of nations, we endorse continued support and loyalty to the United Nations for the achievement of these aims:

1. the strengthening of the bonds of cooperation with other nations and the machinery of international justice and peace;
2. the prevention of aggression and the avoidance of general war;
3. the development of standards of human rights and the policies of trade and assistance.

Admitting the present inability of the United Nations to stop the "cold war," to regulate and reduce armaments, and to assure collective security, we acknowledge our share of responsibility for its failures and commit ourselves to the search for ways to improve its structure, increase its influence, and accomplish its aims.

The prevention of general war is as important as the prevention of communist aggression. A military victory could be just as disastrous as an ideological defeat in loss of life, commonwealth, freedom and security. We therefore urge our government to avoid actions that would extend the war beyond Korea, yet resolutely to resist the communist encroachment, but, above all, to consider and to act within the framework of the emerging international community. We reject unilateral policies that will give our friends cause to mistrust us and others reason to fear us.

We commend the efforts of the Massachusetts Council of Churches and our own Social Action committee to publicize the Universal Declaration of Human Rights. We urge each church to study, discuss, understand, and bear witness to this international bill of rights.

The strongest weapon in the world today against Communism is the Christian way of life. To this end, we therefore urge a heightened support of our Christian World Mission as one means of bringing home to those under Communist domination the true meaning of such a way of life.

We likewise support the Voice of America as a means of bringing home to those under Communist rule the virtues of the democratic way of life, asking that it be financed wisely and administered free from political, religious or social bias.

In providing assistance to other nations, we feel that more is to be gained by making possible mututal trade than by giving direct financial aid, and even more by sharing the techniques, freedoms and faiths that have made America strong.

The final form of the Social Action Committee's resolution on gambling was adopted as follows:

GAMBLING

WHEREAS we believe that substantial gains have been made in recent years through public education and state and national legislation designed to discourage and control gambling, therefore be it

RESOLVED: That we express our appreciation to the Massachusetts General Court and to the United States Congress for legislation passed recently to help control gambling. Especially we commend the leadership of Attorney General George Fingold and his supporters in their unrelenting efforts to oppose and curb gambling in this Commonwealth. We call upon our churches for continued education against the evils of gambling. We ask law enforcement agencies, local, state and national, for a faithful enforcement of the laws against gambling.

A resolution on Human Rights, submitted by Rev. Lex Souter, Rev. Frank C. Van Cleef, Jr., Rev. Earl Douglas, Rev. Herbert Brautigam, Rev. Alfred Winham and Mr. Julian Steele, was adopted as follows:

DECLARATION OF HUMAN RIGHTS

WHEREAS the Declaration of Human Rights, as adopted by the Assembly of the United Nations, was an effort to extend the principles of the Declaration of Independence and the American Constitution and Bill of Rights to the world community, and

WHEREAS it further represents the developing Christian conscience on Human Rights, and

WHEREAS we feel that the action which our government took in formulating this Declaration at the instigation of the Federal Council's Commission on a Just and Durable Peace, should not go by default to the Communist to exploit in their false propaganda, therefore be it

RESOLVED: That the Massachusetts Congregational Conference regrets the recent action of our government in declaring its intention to refuse to sign the Human Rights Convention.

We ask our members and churches to urge their Congressmen and Senators to bring about the reconsideration of this intention. We further ask that copies of this resolution be sent to the President of the United States, to the Secretary of State, and to Senators Saltonstall and Kennedy.

Mr. Robert Ames of North Amherst introduced the following resolution, which was adopted:

WHEREAS delegates and ministers share in a wealth of benefits, by attending State Conferences, which are deprived the bulk of church members, be it

RESOLVED: That ministers be urged to take back to their respective parishes the information, fellowship and inspiration received from the Conference.

It is further suggested that this important extension of the Conference benefits be shared with church members through a sermon or the sharing of the pulpit with lay delegates within a week or two of the close of the Conference.

Resolutions of thanks were presented by Rev. Oliver Powell and adopted as follows:

EXPRESSION OF APPRECIATION

WHEREAS this 154th Annual Meeting of the Massachusetts Congregational Christian Conference has been received so graciously, cared for so adequately, and blessed so richly by its hosts during its stay, be it

RESOLVED that we extend this expression of profound appreciation and sincere thanks

1. To Hope Church, its Ministers, its members, its officers, sexton, its staff, its organist, choir and director, and its committees on arrangements and hospitality for all the attention lavished upon us and for their concern for our comfort and conveniences, and for the many courtesies extended to us;

2. To the Ministers, the officers, the staff and the members of Wesley Methodist and First Baptist Churches for the cordial reception accorded sessions of our Conference in providing meeting places and serving meals;

3. To the management of the several hotels who accommodated our people so graciously;

4. To the individuals outside of our Congregational fellowship who opened their homes to provide lodging;

5. To the members of the press for their competent coverage of the sessions of our Conference;

6. To the Mayor of Springfield, other city officials, the Police Department, and all others who extended their generous cooperation in making our stay in the city so pleasurable. Be it further

7. RESOLVED: That we extend to our Moderator, Robert C. Shoemaker, in his presiding over the sessions of the Conference our admiration of his competent handling of an exacting assignment, and our deepest appreciation of his perceptive enthusiastic and warmly human leadership during the past year; and to our Minister and President, Reverend Doctor Albert Buckner Coe, his staff, and all workers at Conference headquarters, our gratitude for their dedicated and valorous work in behalf of the Conference, assuring them that they are in our thoughts and prayers.

At ten forty-five, the Committee on Town and Country Churches presented a panel discussion, "The Fellowship of Churches." Participants were: Rev. Benjamin F. Andrew of Lunenburg, Rev. Thomas E. Pardue of Shelburne Falls, Rev. Robert L. Young of Westhampton and Mr. Karlton C. Johnson of Colrain.

Dr. Percy L. Julian of Chicago gave an inspiring address, "A Scientist Looks at Our World."

The session closed with prayer by Dr. Albert Buckner Coe.

WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON

A largely attended Social Action Luncheon was served in Community Hall, Hope Church. Rev. Lex King Souter presided. Dr. Myron W. Fowell spoke on "Massachusetts Social Action Projects," especially appealing for books for the new prison library at Norfolk. Dr. Herman F. Reissig of the Council for Social Action, New York, gave an address on "Freedom and Security."

The conference reconvened at three o'clock, with hymn and prayer, led by the Chaplain.

The Committee on Evangelism, of which Rev. William J. Hamilton of West Roxbury is Chairman, presented a panel discussion with seven eight-minute presentations:

"The Christian Witness," Reverend H. Gardner Andersen, Walpole

"The Outreach of the Church into the Community," Reverend Clarence W. Fuller, Melrose

"The Assimilation of People into the Church," Reverend Paul S. McElroy, Danvers

"The Plan of Retreat," Reverend Raymond E. Gibson, Pittsfield

"Visitation Evangelism," Reverend John R. Chapman, Leominster

"Evangelism in the Home," Mrs. Ralph P. Hussey, Weston

Twenty minute question and answer period

Rev. Allen H. Gates offered the following report for the Credentials Committee:

Delegates......	263
Ministers......	241
Guests.........	323
Ex Officiis......	34
Total......	861

The following resolution was adopted:

WHEREAS there is a continual need for education in the area of freedom and security, and

WHEREAS Dr. Herman Reissig's address has stated the issues clearly, be it

RESOLVED: That the full text of Dr. Reissig's address be mailed to the churches

Dr. Julian's address will also be available for those who would like to have a copy of it.

CLOSING PRAYER BY CHAPLAIN AT STATE CONFERENCE

Go with us, O God, as we return again to the scenes of our everyday labors. May we take with us from these days spent together fresh enthusiasm and renewed zeal for the work of thy church and kingdom. In the days to come may we prove to be workmen who need not to be ashamed.

And may the Lord bless us and keep us; the Lord make his face to shine upon us and be gracious unto us; the Lord lift up his countenance upon us and give us peace; in our going out and in our coming in; in our lying down and in our rising up; in our triumphs and in our defeats; in our labor and in our leisure, until we stand before him to receive his final judgment upon our lives, according to that which we have done.

And unto God the Father, Son and Holy Spirit be all praise and glory, now and for evermore. Amen.

*Income paid direct to church by Massachusetts Congregational Fund.

May 14, 1953

Reverend Albert Buckner Coe, D.D., President

Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society

Boston, Massachusetts.

We have examined the balance sheets of Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society and of Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society, Trustee, as at March 31, 1953, and the related statements of income for the year ended at that date. Our examination was made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, and accordingly included such tests of the accounting records and such other auditing procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances.

The securities representing the invested funds at March 31, 1953, were verified by inspection, and we confirmed the cash in banks and in office at that date.

In our opinion, the accompanying balance sheets and related statements of income present fairly the financial position of the Society and of the Society as Trustee, respectively, at March 31, 1953, and the results of their operations for the year ended at that date, in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles applied on a basis consistent with that of the preceding year.

PATTERSON, TEELE AND DENNIS

ALLOTMENT ACCOUNT

In 1927 the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and the Massachusetts Home Missionary Society were united in a single corporation. Previous to that time, the National Council of Congregational Churches and the Conference had paid their expenses for meetings and administration by thirteen cents collected for each church member. It seems right that the Conference part of our organization should still pay its own charges. Twenty-eight cents per member is asked this year of the Churches. Twenty cents of the twenty-eight goes to the General Council (formerly The National Council) and eight cents is kept by the Conference. The collection of the eight cents per member is the attempt of the Conference part of our organization to pay its expenses and not to become a charge upon missionary funds.

BEQUESTS

Bequests to the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society are used to aid weak churches and to promote the work and interests of the Conference in the State. Bequests may be made permanent funds by the donor, and the Conference restricted to the use of the income only. The practice of the Conference is to divide unrestricted legacies into three equal parts. One part is used for current work, one part is added to the Permanent Legacy Fund, the income only of which is used for general purposes; and the third part is added to a Contingent Fund, the principal of which may be drawn upon to care for special undertakings or to avoid a deficit.

If, on the other hand, a testator specifies that his entire legacy is to be expended as current income and that he does not wish it invested in whole or in part, these directions will be carefully observed.

Bequests to the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society pay no Massachusetts inheritance tax.

1. Wherever a community is too far from a church to benefit from its privileges, the Conference encourages the establishment of regular religious services, and, if possible, the organization of a church, or a branch of a neighboring church.

2. Applications by any church for financial aid should be made by the vote of the church, and upon forms furnished by the Conference, and should have the approval of the Advisory or Grants Committee of the local Association of Churches.

3. Churches applying for aid should show that they have met in full all financial obligations to their ministers and are doing their utmost toward self-support.

4. In granting aid the Conference will appropriate different amounts according to the necessity, importance, and prospects of each field.

5. Every church aided by the Conference should consult the President or Secretary before making arrangements for pastoral service.

6. Whenever the service of the minister or other worker, for whose support an appropriation is made, shall terminate, the appropriation shall lapse, except for special reasons satisfactory to the President.

7. The Conference advocates adequate compensation for every minister and worker.

8. The Conference favors hearty co-operation with other denominations, the avoidance of overlapping and competing work, and the consolidation or federation of churches of different denominations in over-churched communities.

9. We are indicating in this copy of the Minutes the churches that received Conference grants in the year 1952-1953 by placing the reference § before the names of these churches in the section of the Minutes entitled "Associations of Churches and Ministerial Standing." In cases where the grant was discontinued during the year the letter "d" appears after the reference §. Where the pastor's service ended during the year, the reference "†" appears. Special grants will be listed, as usual, on the following page.

STATISTICAL TABLES

EXPLANATORY

The tables which follow comprise:

1. The statistics of the churches, giving the ministers, church membership, additions, removals, Sunday school membership, and the amount of benevolences and expenses. These tables, in accordance with the vote of the Conference in 1887, are made to conform to those in the Year Book;
2. The Associations of the churches, with the names of officers;
3. The Ministerial Standing, giving the date of ordination of each minister, the date of membership in the Association, the residence and his "employment";
4. The Ministerial Record, containing lists of ordinations and deaths.

The tables of the first part contain the names of all the Congregational churches in Massachusetts, the towns and cities being arranged alphabetically. In cases where the post office name of the church and the town differ, heavy type indicates the postal address (or in some cases, the political township), and a cross reference on the page where the post office name would naturally be found will direct the reader to the town name.

Church members are reported as numbered January 1, 1953. Admissions and removals cover the year 1952. "Sunday school" includes total membership of officers, teachers and scholars January 1, 1953, or when the school is in operation (if not at that date), covering "branch schools", "mission schools" and "home departments" so far as maintained by the reporting church.

The months and days in the dates of the organization of churches are omitted. They will be found in the publications of 1873, those of churches since organized being given in the "Minutes" of each year. Months and days in the dates of ordination of Congregational ministers may be found in the lists of the local Associations which follow the tables.

Abbreviations in schedule headings are:

"Ord." — Ordained
"Cld." — Called
"To." or "T." — Total
"Ab." — Absentee
"C." — Confession
"D." — Death
"L." — Letter

Reference marks are used as follows:

[] Around a pastor's name signify he is not in full standing as a Congregational Christian minister, nor a denominational licentiate, nor an approved lay preacher, nor a candidate in care of a local association.

y Pastor serves more than one church.
i Pastor installed by Council.
r Pastor recognized by Council.
c Sunday School membership includes Cradle Roll.
x Includes cost of new building or improvements.
—No answer can be given.
* Value of church property includes parsonage.
★ Per Capita paid in full by church.

‖ When a church has made no report, items of membership in church, Sunday School and young people's organizations, also home expense and value of property, are inserted from the previous Year Book and marked ‖ in the first column of the statistical report. This is done that these items may be included in the summaries and comparative tables, thus minimizing the danger of falsifying the comparisons.

Under church "Members" the number "Absent" are included in the "Total." Amount of "Home Expenses" includes all salaries, together with missionary aid received, operating expenses and repairs for church, Sunday School, choir and parish. An x before "Value Church Property" denotes expenditures for new buildings or improvements during the year. The total expended is given at the end of the Conference schedule.

In reporting the statistics of federated churches, figures given pertaining to membership and gifts on the apportionment are for the Congregational church within the federated church. Figures pertaining to average attendance, Church School enrollment, membership in young people's organizations, contributions to home expenses are usually for all the churches grouped together in the federated church.

CONDITIONAL GIFTS

The Conference receives conditional gifts, subject to annuity agreements with the donors, and encourages this method for those who wish any part of their property to be applied to our work after their death, and desire an assured income from their property for themselves, or for others whom they may designate as beneficiaries, as long as they live. Correspondence with the Treasurer concerning such annuity agreements is invited.

TRUST FUNDS

The Massachusetts Congregational Fund, organized during the year 1945 under the auspices of the Conference, is now administering trust funds of Congregational churches and organizations in Massachusetts aggregating $5,000,000, including the funds of the Conference.

It is not an easy matter for church or parish committees, often made up of those without broad experience in investment matters, to guard the safety of church trust funds. We welcome inquiries from Congregational churches in Massachusetts relative to caring for their trust or endowment funds.

HISTORICAL SKETCH

The Massachusetts Missionary Society was organized on May 29, 1799, in Boston. There were thirty-eight charter members, mainly followers of the theology of Samuel Hopkins. They were "impelled by a deep commiseration for the unhappy state of those who were perishing for lack of those precious means of salvation which we enjoy." Their intention was to spread "the knowledge of the glorious Gospel of Christ among the poor Heathens and in those remote parts of our country in which the inhabitants had not enjoyed the benefits of a Christian ministry and Christian ordinances," i.e., outside Massachusetts. Nathaniel Emmons, fifty-four years pastor at Franklin, was the first president.

Origin of Domestic Missionary Society

In 1827 the Massachusetts Missionary Society and the Domestic Missionary Society of Massachusetts Proper (which had come into being in 1818 to "see every parish in the State well supplied with a faithful Minister of Christ"), were united under the name of the Massachusetts Missionary Society. This meant that while the Domestic Missionary Society of Massachusetts Proper lost its name, the Massachusetts Missionary Society was henceforth to work almost exclusively in Massachusetts.

The Massachusetts Missionary Society became the Massachusetts "Home" Missionary Society in 1844. This was simply to emphasize that the work of the Society had become exclusively for America and for the Massachusetts part of America.

Origin of Massachusetts Conference

The Massachusetts Home Missionary Society and the Massachusetts Congregational Conference were united under the name of the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society in 1927. This was the result of twenty-seven years' agitation, accelerated by a recommendation of the National Council in 1907. The charter of the Massachusetts Home Missionary Society was used as the basis for the union of the two organizations. The Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society assumes responsibility for all Congregational missionary work done in Massachusetts. It supports a staff of eleven persons who give ministerial and executive leadership to a broad program of work designed to help the churches, to develop the fellowship of the ministers and churches, and to cultivate practical support for denominational and interdenominational projects and programs.

BY-LAWS OF THE MASSACHUSETTS CONGREGATIONAL CHRISTIAN CONFERENCE

ARTICLE I

Terminology

Whenever in these by-laws the word "Conference" is used it shall be held to refer to the Massachusetts Congregational Christian Conference.

Denominational Basis

Following Congregational principles, this Conference shall under no circumstances exercise authority over churches or individuals or interfere with the government or discipline of the churches. It shall advise and counsel the churches when requested, but it is recognized that each church has the power of self-determination in all matters.

ARTICLE III

Doctrinal Basis

This Conference declares its steadfast allegiance to the faith which our fathers confessed, which, from age to age, has found its expression in the historic creeds of the Church Universal and of this Communion.

ARTICLE IV

Membership

Voting Members. Every Church or Congregation which is or shall become a member of a Congregational or a Congregational Christian Association of Churches in Massachusetts may annually choose two delegates (of whom it is suggested one shall be a layman and the other a laywoman) and these delegates, together with the pastor or pastors of each church (who shall be members ex officiis), the officers of the Conference (including the members of the Board of Trustees and any person who shall have been elected an Officer Emeritus), the committee members of the Conference and those persons who, prior to May 22, 1923, became life members of the Massachusetts Home Missionary Society, shall constitute the voting membership of the Conference; provided, however, that pastors shall have the privileges of honorary members only unless they shall have membership in Congregational Christian Associations regularly holding ministerial standing.

Honorary Members. Delegates from corresponding bodies and persons appointed to speak before the Conference, together with all persons heretofore constituted honorary members of the Massachusetts Home Missionary Society, such persons as may be made honorary members by a vote of the Board of Trustees, and such other persons as the Conference may from time to time vote to admit, shall be honorary members of the Conference, with the privilege of speaking, but without vote.

ARTICLE V

Officers

1. There shall be a Moderator, one or more vice-Moderators, a Recording Secretary, a Chairman and a vice-Chairman of the Department of Woman's Work (See Article VIII, Sec. 1, (b)), a Chairman and vice-Chairman of the Massachusetts Congregational Laymen's Council (See Article VIII, Sec. 2, (b)), all of whom shall be nominated by the Nominating Committee hereinafter provided for, and elected by ballot at each annual meeting of the Conference for a term of one year and until their respective successors are chosen.

2. The executive officers of the Conference shall be a President, a Secretary, a Treasurer, Field Secretaries, a Director of Woman's Work, a Minister of Missions and Stewardship, and a Minister of Christian Education. These officers shall constitute the Executive Staff. They shall be nominated by the Board of Trustees meeting in executive session, and elected by ballot at each annual meeting of the Conference for a term of one year and until their respective successors are chosen. They shall bear such additional titles as the Conference or the Board of Trustees may determine.

3. The Conference shall elect by ballot a Board of Trustees consisting of one member from each Association of churches, and six members-at-large who shall be known for their special knowledge of financial affairs, of whom one shall be chosen each even-numbered year and two, — beginning with the year 1935, — each odd-numbered year. The Chairman and Vice Chairman of the Woman's Department, the Chairman and Vice Chairman of the Massachusetts Laymen's Council, the President of the Massachusetts Pilgrim Fellowship and one Vice President (nominated by its executive committee), the Chairman of the Congregational Center Committee, and the Moderator shall also be members ex officiis. One-third of the representatives of the Associations upon the Board shall be ministers, one-third laymen, and one-third laywomen as nearly as may be. Nine members shall constitute a quorum. The term of office shall be four years, and no member having served a full term shall be eligible for re-election until after one year, but members-at-large, chosen for their knowledge of financial affairs, may serve for two consecutive terms. The present Trustees shall remain in office until the expiration of their terms.

The Conference shall from time to time designate the Associations from which Trustees are to be chosen in the successive years and determine whether the Trustee to be chosen from a particular Association in any year shall be a minister, a layman, or a laywoman.

Each Association shall be notified by the Secretary of the Conference on or before September 15 when it is its turn to propose to the nominating committee a candidate for membership upon the Board, and whether such candidate should be a minister, a layman or a laywoman, and the names of such candidates shall be reported to the Secretary before April 1, of each year. The Secretary upon the receipt of these names shall communicate them to the nominating committee on or before April 10. In case any Association fails to propose a candidate the Board of Trustees shall perform this duty. This method of choosing Trustees shall commence at the close of the 1933 Conference.

At its first meeting after each annual meeting of the Conference the Board shall choose one of its members to serve as chairman for the ensuing year. Except as otherwise provided in the charter of the Conference or in these by-laws, the Board shall administer and dispose of the property of the Conference and shall manage all its business and affairs, and all officers and agents of the Conference shall act under its direction. The Board shall cause the accounts of the Treasurer to be audited at least once each year by certified public accountants selected by the Board. Without restricting the generality of the foregoing, the Board shall in particular have the following powers:

(a) To choose a Clerk, to appoint its own meetings and form its own rules of business, to appoint sub-committees and to delegate any of its powers to such committees.

(b) To appoint and, at pleasure, remove all agents of the Conference and to define their duties.

(c) To fill any vacancy in any office of the Conference (including vacancies in the membership of the Board) until the vacancy shall be filled at a succeeding meeting of the Conference.

(d) To remove any officer of the Conference (other than members of the Board) who may be guilty of disregard of his duties or of such conduct as shall be seriously prejudicial to the interests of the Conference.

(e) To direct efforts to promote missionary interest and giving among the Congregational churches of the Commonwealth.

4. The terms of all officers, save when chosen to fill vacancies, shall begin at the close of the meeting at which they are elected.

ARTICLE VI

Duties of Officers

1. The Moderator, or in his absence, one of the vice-Moderators, shall preside over all meetings of the Conference.

2. The President shall be the chief executive officer of the Conference and shall, subject to the direction of the Conference and of its Board of Trustees, have general charge of its missionary and benevolent work and of its other activities. He shall be a member ex officio of all standing committees named in the by-laws with the exception of the nominating committee. He shall have the power to delegate to members of the Staff the authority to represent him upon any of the said standing committees. He shall be the representative of the Conference and of its Board of Trustees among all the churches (both those financially independent and those aided by the funds of the Conference) and in all denominational and interdenominational gatherings (including meetings of state Superintendents) unless representation is otherwise provided. He may seek to assist pastors and churches with fraternal counsel. He shall keep informed as to opportunities for extension work through founding new churches or strengthening old ones and shall recommend to the Conference and to the Board of Trustees measures for meeting such opportunities.

3. The Secretary shall keep the records of the Conference, except as hereinafter provided, and shall assist in its general work under the direction of the President. He shall devote himself in co-operation with the Field Secretaries and under the direction of the President, to counseling with and assisting the churches in the area assigned to him, and shall perform such other duties as may be assigned to him by the Board of Trustees or the President. He shall have the custody of the records and of all bonds given by the treasurer as hereinafter provided. He shall furnish copies of the record certified under the seal of the Conference (which shall be in his keeping) to such persons as may be entitled thereto.

The Secretary shall collect and publish in connection with the annual Report of the Conference the statistics of ministers and churches and make up the official roll of the ministers and churches in accordance with the usages of the denomination. He shall present to the Conference at its annual meeting a general statistical statement of the progress of religion in the churches for the past calendar year. He shall give suitable notice to the churches of the time and place of each annual meeting, notify officers and committees of their election or appointment and fulfill such other functions as the Conference or the Board of Trustees may from time to time direct.

4. The Treasurer shall receive and hold the property of the Conference subject to the direction of the Board of Trustees and shall keep particular accounts of the Conference's funds and of the disposal thereof. He shall, under the direction of the President, assist, so far as he may be able, in the general work of the Conference and shall perform such other duties as may be assigned to him by the Board of Trustees. He shall make a report at each annual meeting of the Conference and shall make such other reports as the Conference or the Board of Trustees may from time to time require. He shall receive all contributions for benevolences sent to him by the churches and by individuals and shall disburse the same in accordance with the instructions of the donors. He shall give such bonds for the faithful performance of his duties as may from time to time be required by the Board of Trustees.

5. The Field Secretaries shall counsel with and assist the churches in the area which may from time to time be assigned to them by the Board of Trustees or the President.

6. The Minister of Missions and Stewardship shall have the duty of advancing the interest of the churches in the work of missions at home and abroad. He shall, under the direction of the President, assist, so far as he may be able, in the general work of the Conference.

7. The Director of Woman's Work shall have special charge of promoting missionary interests and all other activities among the women of the Congregational churches of the Commonwealth. She shall, under the direction of the President, assist, so far as she may be able, in the general work of the Conference.

8. The Minister of Christian Education and the Associate in Christian Education, if any, shall encourage and promote the whole program of religious education as well as Christian living and Christian activities among the Congregational churches of the State. He, or she, or they, shall, under the direction of the President, assist so far as able, in the general work of the Conference.

9. The Recording Secretary shall record the complete minutes of each annual meeting and shall transcribe and deliver the same to the Secretary. The Board of Trustees may, in their discretion, appoint a deputy to assist in the keeping of the records under the direction of the Recording Secretary.

ARTICLE VII

Retirement and Annuity

1. No person who has attained the age of seventy years shall continue as a member of the Executive Staff. With respect to employees not members of the Executive Staff, it shall be the policy of the Conference to retire every such employee upon his or her attaining the age of seventy years, provided, however, that this shall not affect the power of the Trustees temporarily to employ from time to time persons who have passed that age (including former members of the executive staff) whenever in particular cases the Trustees shall deem such temporary employment essential to the efficient conduct of the Conference's work.

2. Ordained ministers who are members of the executive staff shall be expected to be members of the Annuity Fund for Congregational Ministers, and the Conference shall not provide for them any other retirement annuity, except in the case of ministers who are now members under the Original Plan. Toward each annual premium in the Annuity Fund of any member of the staff the Conference shall pay each year an amount equal to 8% of the charge on his salary, less such amount as the Conference shall pay the United States for his Social Security.

3. Lay members of the office staff shall be expected to be, so far as practicable, members of the Retirement Fund for Lay Workers, and the Conference shall pay, as the annual premium for each lay worker who is a member of the Fund, 8% of the charge on his salary, less such amount as the Conference shall pay the United States for his Social Security.

ARTICLE VIII

Departments and Affiliated Organizations

1. There shall be a Department of Woman's Work of the Conference.
    - (a) The object of this Department shall be to help to promote the entire work of the local church and to further in every way possible the cause of Christ throughout the world. The voting members of this Department shall be the women members of the Conference, together with such other women as may be determined by the rules of the Department. The Chairman, Vice-Chairman of the Department, the District Presidents, the women members of the Board of Trustees and the members of the Business Committee, as provided by the rules of the Department, shall constitute the members of the Executive Committee of the Woman's Department. This Executive Committee shall organize the membership of the Department in whatever manner it may deem needful for the effective carrying on of the Department's work.
    - (b) The Department shall provide by its rules for the appointment of a nominating committee. This committee shall annually propose to the nominating committee of the Conference from among its membership a chairman and a vice-chairman of the Department, who shall be ex officiis members of the Board of Trustees of the Conference. It shall also nominate such other officers and committees as the rules of the Department shall require, to be elected by the Department at its annual meeting.

2. There shall be a Department of Laymen's Work of the Conference. It shall be called the Massachusetts Congregational Laymen's Council.

(a) The object of this Department shall be: To inspire higher conceptions of Christian citizenship for the development of democratic society and the world-wide Kingdom of God; to promote a richer fellowship of Congregational laymen through conferences, retreats, and other meetings and to co-operate with laymen of other denominations in significant Christian projects; to encourage organized laymen's groups and classes in all our churches, especially the smaller ones; to rally more men to the support of the church and to train men in worship and leadership in their church and community life.

(b) The Massachusetts Congregational Laymen's Council shall consist of sixty-two members — two from each of the Associations in the State and twenty members-at-large, who shall be elected annually by the State Conference. The Conference Nominating Committee shall receive the names of two members from each Association — or its Laymen's Organization — and the names of twenty members-at-large from the Executive Committee of the Massachusetts Laymen's Council. Should an Association fail to name candidates, the nominations for that Association shall be made by the Executive Committee of the Laymen's Council. The officers of this organization shall be a Chairman, a vice-Chairman, a Secretary and a Treasurer.

3. There shall be a Department of Young People's Work of the Conference.

(a) There shall be a Massachusetts Council of Pilgrim Fellowship, composed of two representatives from each Association, to be named by the Association Pilgrim Fellowship or Congregational Young People's organization of the Association, whatever its name may be, as it or its Executive Committee may determine. If the Congregational young people of any Association are unorganized, the Association Committee on Religious Education may name two delegates to the Massachusetts Council of Pilgrim Fellowship. The Council shall hold its annual meeting in May or at such other time as its Executive Committee may determine. At its annual meeting the Council shall plan the State youth program and elect its officers for the ensuing year

(b) Unless otherwise determined by the Council, the State officers shall be (1) President, (2) four vice-Presidents, (3) Secretary, (4) Editor. The Executive Committee of Pilgrim Fellowship shall consist of (1) the officers, (2) the President of the preceding year, (3) an Adult Advisor to be chosen by the Council with the approval of the State Committee on Religious Education, and (4) one of the Secretaries of Religious Education on the staff of the Massachusetts Congregational Conference, who shall be designated as Executive Secretary of the Massachusetts Pilgrim Fellowship. The President and one of the vice-Presidents to be designated by the Executive Committee shall be ex officiis members of the Board of Trustees of the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society.

ARTICLE IX

Meetings

1. The Conference shall hold its regular annual meeting for the choice of officers, the hearing of reports, the discussion of matters of general interest and the transaction of other business at the appointed place on the third Monday of May, or at such other time in the month of May as the Board of Trustees may deem expedient.

2. Special meetings of the Conference shall be convened at such times and places as may be determined by the Board of Trustees, provided, however, that notice of any special meeting so convened shall, at least one week before the date of the meeting, be sent by mail to each of the churches connected with the Conference, posted in the general office of the Conference and printed in newspapers published in Boston, Worcester and Springfield, respectively.

3. The Moderator or, in his absence, one of the vice-Moderators or, in the absence of all of them some member of the Board of Trustees shall call the Conference to order.

4. At each annual meeting the Conference shall propose to the churches the annual contribution for the expenses of the General Council and for such expenses of the Conference and other purposes, as may be deemed equitable. The Trustees shall at each annual meeting present a recommendation as to the action to be taken at such meeting with reference to the allotment to be made at that meeting, unless the Conference shall have directed at a previous meeting that such recommendation be made by a designated committee.

ARTICLE X

Committees

1. Immediately after the opening of the annual meeting the Moderator shall appoint:

   (a) A Committee on Credentials, to which all credentials shall be referred.

   (b) A Business Committee, the duty of which shall be to prepare and present at each session all matters of business not presented through some other committee of the Conference.

2. The following standing committees shall be elected by viva voce vote:

   (a) A Nominating Committee composed of nine members, consisting of the retiring Moderator of each annual meeting, together with eight other members, of whom at least two shall be ministers, at least two shall be women and at least two shall be laymen. Each year the Board of Trustees, meeting in executive session, shall select four persons whom they shall nominate at the annual meeting of the Conference to be elected to serve for two years. The retiring members shall not be eligible for re-election for at least one year.

   This committee shall nominate all officers and committees whose nominations are not otherwise provided for in these by-laws.

(b) A Program Committee, of which the Secretary of the Conference and the pastor of the church which is to entertain the next annual meeting shall be members ex officiis. At each annual meeting two members shall be elected to serve for three years. This committee shall prepare the program for the next annual meeting and shall select the preacher of the annual sermon and the various speakers at each session.

(c) A Committee on Christian Education. At each annual meeting three members shall be elected to serve for three years. The duty of the Committee shall be to foster religious and missionary education in the churches and in the associations of Massachusetts. This Committee shall give advice and counsel in regard to the organized young people's work of the State. Among its various duties the Committee shall bear responsibility for planning and promoting summer camps and conferences.

(d) A Committee on Social Action, consisting of nine members, of whom three shall be elected at each annual meeting for a term of three years. It shall be the duty of the committee to promote interest in moral and social issues among the churches of the Conference. The committee shall be authorized to present and to support publicly such principles and measures as have been adopted by the Conference.

(e) A Committee on the Ministry consisting of thirty-one members: ten at large, three of whom shall be laymen or lay-women, two of the ten to be elected at each annual meeting for a term of five years; the remaining twenty-one to be composed of the Chairman of each Association Committee on the Ministry. It shall be the duty of this Committee to endeavor to establish and maintain high standards for our Congregational ministry and churches.

The Conference shall maintain a special roll of ministers to which names may have been transferred by the Associations. This special roll shall be in charge of the Conference Committee on the Ministry, and the presence of a name there shall constitute evidence that the man has been duly ordained and has had standing in a Congregational Association; but the Committee shall not issue credentials to a man whose name appears on this roll unless they find in concurrence with the Committee on the Ministry in his Association, that his character and qualifications are satisfactory.

(f) A Committee on Evangelism and Devotional Life, consisting of nine members, of whom three shall be elected at each annual meeting for a term of three years. It shall be the duty of the committee to serve as a cooperating agency of the national Commission on Evangelism and Devotional Life.

(g) A Missionary Committee. Each of the twenty-one Associations shall nominate a member of this Committee who shall represent the missionary committee of the Association. The term of office shall be three years, and the alphabetical list of Associations shall be divided into three groups, and these three groups shall rotate in making their elections.

In addition, there shall be six members-at-large, nominated by the Board of Trustees for a term of one year. Four of these persons shall be members of the Board of Trustees.

There shall also be three ex officiis members, representing the Woman's Department, the Layman's Council, and the Pilgrim Fellowship, respectively.

The Committee shall meet at least twice a year, and an executive committee shall be chosen, to meet as frequently as occasion requires. It shall be the duty of this Committee to advance the interest of the churches in the work of missions at home and abroad.

(h) A Committee on the Town and Country Church, consisting of nine members, of whom three shall be elected at each annual meeting for a term of three years. It shall be the duty of this Committee to co-operate with the national Commission on the Town and Country Church and to offer such practical helps and encouragement as may be possible and welcomed by our churches in the town and country areas.

(i) A Conference Center Committee. The operation and management of the Conference Center (to be known as "Conference Center" or some other name yet to be decided upon) shall be in the hands of a State Conference Committee, to be called the Conference Center Committee, as the agency of the Conference, responsible to the Board of Trustees. This Committee shall consist of thirty members—approximately one-third ministers, one-third laymen, and one-third lay-women—one member from each Association to be nominated annually by the Association, and nine members-at-large, to be nominated by the State Conference Nominating Committee for three-year terms, three to be elected each year —one minister, one layman, one lay-woman.

The Chairman of the Conference Center Committee shall be a member ex officio of the Board of Trustees of the State Conference and shall make a report at each meeting of the Board of Trustees.

The Conference Center Committee shall elect its own officers and sub-committee chairmen and may co-opt such additional persons as may be necessary to the effective functioning of the committees.

No member, elected or appointed, having served a full term of three consecutive years, shall be eligible to succeed himself until after the lapse of one year.

(j) A Committee on Churches and Colleges, consisting of nine members, of whom three shall be elected at each annual meeting for a term of three years. It shall be the duty of this Committee to study the needs and opportunities for developing a stronger religious program among students at the college and university level, especially as it relates to local Congregational Christian Churches; to cooperate with denominational and interdenominational agencies working in this specialized field; and to review requests for conference aid for the support of student projects within Massachusetts.

3. Such other committees as the Conference may vote to constitute shall be elected by viva voce vote at each annual meeting for such terms as the Conference shall determine. The Board of Trustees shall present at each annual meeting a list of the committees the appointment of which it recommends.

4. It shall be the general practice of the Conference, without making it an arbitrary rule, that at least one-third of its committee members be lay-women and one-third laymen.

5. The reports of all committees that are to be presented to the Conference shall be furnished to the Secretary on or before April first of each year, and shall be printed and distributed to the churches not less than two weeks before the annual meeting. These reports shall not be read to the Conference save by special order, but the Program Committee may arrange for the adequate discussion of any or all the topics presented in the reports.

ARTICLE XI

Board of Ministerial Aid

The Board of Ministerial Aid shall be the agent of the Conference in the work of aiding needy ministers and their families and shall make an annual report to the Conference. On notice of a vacancy in the membership of the Board of Ministerial Aid, the Conference shall nominate a person to fill the vacancy.

ARTICLE XII

Boston Seaman's Friend Society

The Boston Seaman's Friend Society shall be the agent of the Conference in the work of promoting the spiritual and temporal welfare of seamen and shall make an annual report to the Conference. The Conference shall annually elect five members of the Society for a term of three years each.

ARTICLE XIII

Board of Pastoral Supply

The Conference shall elect nine members to represent it on the Congregational Board of Pastoral Supply, three members to be elected each year to serve for a period of three years. The Board shall, through its Secretary, make an annual report to the Conference.

ARTICLE XIV

Corporate Seal

The seal of the Conference shall consist of two or more concentric circles, with the words "Massachusetts Congregational Christian Conference" around the circumference between these circles and the words "Inc., 1808" within the inner circle.

ARTICLE XV

Special Orders

1. The place of the next annual meeting shall be recommended each year by the Business Committee and designated by vote of the Conference.

2. All matters of business presented to the Conference, except those presented through duly appointed committees of the Conference, shall be referred to the Business Committee unless referred to some other committee by special vote of the Conference.

3. All matters of business referred to the Business Committee shall be reported for action before the final adjournment of the annual meeting.

4. As far as possible, all business of the Conference shall be completed by noon of the second day of the annual meeting.

ARTICLE XVI

Rules of Order

The Rules of Order shall be those of common parliamentary usage subject to the following specifications:

(a) No member shall speak more than twice on the same question without leave of the Conference.

(b) When a question is before the Conference the Moderator shall entertain motions only as follows: — to adjourn, to table, for the previous question, to postpone to a fixed time, to commit, to amend or to postpone indefinitely; these several motions shall have precedence in the foregoing order.

ARTICLE XVII

Amendments

1. These by-laws, except Articles II and III, may be amended at any regularly called meeting of the Conference by a two-thirds vote, provided the amendment was proposed at the preceding annual meeting of the Conference or is recommended by the Board of Trustees.

2. Articles II and III may be amended by a two-thirds vote, but only after the proposed amendment has been submitted to the Conference in writing at the previous annual meeting and notice has been sent to the several churches connected with the Conference at least three months prior to the meeting at which action is to be taken.

A supper was served at 6:00 P.M. at Bethany Church.

At 7:30 P.M. Mrs. Axel H. Anderson, Chairman, opened the evening session. Mrs. Sumner G. Whittier of Everett, wife of the Lieutenant Governor of Massachusetts, brought greetings to the delegates.

A dedication of the Woman's Second Mile Gift took place. Music for this service was furnished by the Ensemble Choir of the Lincoln Congregational Church of Brockton.

An address, "I Found the Church There Too!", was given by Miss Jennie M. Doidge, Associate Executive Secretary of the Missions Council.

LAYMEN'S PROGRAM

The meeting for laymen opened at 4:00 P.M. in the Quincy Point Congregational Church. Devotions were led by Mr. Roy A. Hovey of Wakefield.

Mr. Kenneth P. Burk of Brighton, Secretary of the Suffolk West Laymen's Council, gave an account of the work of that organization.

Plans and program of the State Laymen's Council for 1954–1955 were reported by the Vice Chairman, Mr. Charles G. Hansen of Winthrop. Then followed a discussion period, led by Rev. Baldwin W. Callahan and based on "Twelve Questions for Men to Answer Concerning the Church and its Purpose; the Christian Faith, Christian Vocations and the Meaning of Church Membership."

Mr. Lloyd Morton of Belmont spoke on "The Reporter" and the Laymen's Larger Fellowship. Three men of the Quincy Point Church told of work they had done in their church. More than eighty-five churches were represented.

At 6:30 ladies of the Quincy Point Church served supper for two hundred and fifty laymen and ministers.

Mr. Sterling L. Williams, Chairman of the State Laymen's Council, spoke on "Men in Action in Massachusetts," and was followed by Mr. Robert Cashman of Chicago, Moderator of the General Council, who spoke on "Dynamic Churchmanship."

Adjournment was at 9:25 P.M.

TUESDAY MORNING

Bethany Church was opened at 8:30 A.M. for registration and review of exhibits.

At 9:15 the Conference was officially opened with the call to order by the Moderator, Rev. Frederick M. Meek, of Boston.

The Chaplain, Rev. Kenneth R. Henley of Greenfield, led devotions.

Hon. Amelio Della Chiesa, Mayor of Quincy, and Rev. George E. Gilchrist, host pastor, gave greetings, to which the Moderator responded.

Mr. E. Russell Davis of Lincoln reported for the Board of Trustees.

Greetings from the General Council were brought by its Moderator, Mr. Robert Cashman of Chicago.

Killough, Winchendon; Rev. C. Ross Milley, Holyoke; Rev. Wayne K. Price, Becket; Rev. Horace Seldon, Beverly; Rev. Charles C. Thomas, Stoughton.

The report of the Treasurer, with a statement concerning the Massachusetts Congregational Fund, as presented by Mr. Arthur W. Davis, was accepted.

The Advance Reports were accepted for later discussion and action on any recommendations contained therein.

Dr. Albert Buckner Coe introduced members of the Staff and gave his annual report as Minister and President of the Conference.

Rev. Chauncey E. Blossom of Auburndale made the following recommendation on behalf of the Trustees:

> THAT the Conference take from the undesignated gifts to Our Christian World Mission an amount sufficient to make the total appropriation to the Conference equal 20% of the total giving to Our Christian World Mission, plus 1% for the Boston Seaman's Friend Society.

Rev. L. Byron Whipple of Danvers and Rev. Bedros Baharian of Quincy explained the reason for the recommendation and endorsed it. A substitute motion that this matter be referred to the churches, with definite information as to its reason, failed for lack of a second. The original motion was carried by a very substantial majority.

An address was given by Dr. Truman B. Douglass, Executive Vice President of the Board of Home Missions, on "A Congregational Christian Manifesto."

The Moderator announced the death of Dean Willard L. Sperry, Dean Emeritus of the Harvard Divinity School. A message of sympathy is to be sent from the Conference to Mrs. Sperry.

The session closed with hymn and prayer, led by the Chaplain.

TUESDAY AFTERNOON

A Religious Education luncheon was served in Bethany Church Social Hall at 12:15 P.M. Rev. Arthur C. Weil, Jr. of Springfield, Chairman, introduced representatives of Pilgrim Fellowship.

An address, "The Church's Teaching Ministry in Time of Crisis," was given by Rev. Frank Grebe, minister of the Madison Avenue Presbyterian Church, New York City.

The Conference convened again at 2:00 P.M., with hymn and prayer, led by Chaplain Henley.

Rev. Thomas A. Tripp, Director of Town and Country Work of the Board of Home Missions, spoke on "How Rural and How Religious is Rural America?"

The Moderator introduced Reverend Forrest Knapp, the new Executive Secretary of the Massachusetts Council of Churches, who spoke briefly.

Rev. Chauncy E. Blossom, speaking for the Trustees, introduced Rev. Bedros Baharian, who presented the following resolution, which was unanimously adopted:

WHEREAS Dr. Albert Buckner Coe, the Minister and President of the Massachusetts Congregational Christian Conference has been nominated for the office of Moderator of the General Council of the Congregational Christian Churches of the United States; and

WHEREAS Dr. Coe has served our churches with honor and distinction, first and always as a minister and pastor to people, but also as a wise, sympathetic and understanding leader of the councils and committees of our fellowship wherein he has given tirelessly of himself as National chairman during the hard war years of the Committee for War Victims and Services, as member of the Executive Committee of the General Council, and as chairman of that committee, as a member of the Prudential Committee of the American Board, and of many other committees representing the interests of the Congregational Christian churches and of the Ecumenical church; and,

WHEREAS as our leader in the Massachusetts Congregational Christian Conference we have personal experience of his dynamic leadership and compassionate understanding of the problems of churches great and small; be it

RESOLVED: that this conference rejoicing in the nomination of Dr. Coe, heartily endorses his nomination and commends him to the followship of our churches as a leader of great heart and spirit fully qualified to bring to our churches and our nation in these troublesome times a healing and constructive leadership.*

The following recommendation of the Trustees was enthusiastically adopted:

THAT Dr. John L. Lobingier be nominated Emeritus Secretary of Christian Education.

Dr. Robert Wood Coe, Secretary of the Massachusetts Bible Society, spoke on the work of the Board of Ministerial Aid, and an offering for this cause was taken, amounting to $350.

Rev. Victor Chicoine introduced the following resolution on behalf of the Trustees, which was adopted with hearty unanimity:

It is the sincere desire of the Board of Trustees of the Congregational Christian Conference of Massachusetts to go on record in an attempt to pay a fitting tribute to the work and leadership of Dr. John L. Lobingier, who has been the Conference Minister of Religious Education these past eleven years.

---

Note:* (It should be noted that the office of Moderator is purely honorary and carries no salary; in fact, it may involve expense to the incumbent.)

We think of him as a radiant personality. We were always certain that wherever he went and with whatever problem he dealt, he would do it wisely, if need be, swiftly, and always in a gracious manner.

He has written books and published many articles which will carry his influence far, and be a great blessing to many who have never met him.

He has spoken in our churches and advised us wisely.

In summer conference work he has, many times, made the most difficult problems appear easy to solve.

He has been in many of our homes and we have come to love him greatly.

He has directed the work of our youth in this Commonwealth with great insight and vision.

His love of Christ's work, his tolerance, his quiet, persistent balance, his seriousness at the proper moment, his patience with the impatient, and counting nothing as being too hard or too lowly for him to undertake, if it forwarded the work of the Kingdom, these characteristics have endeared him to us with the utmost finality.

Therefore, it is the earnest prayer of the members of the Board of Trustees of the Congregational Christian Conference of Massachusetts, that this beloved leader will dwell long and happily in our midst; be with us in all our deliberations; and continue to demonstrate to us the power of an irenic mind and spirit and thus bless us all the days of his life.

At this point the Vice Moderator, Mr. Julian D. Steele, assuming the chair, introduced Dr. Myron W. Fowell, who spoke concerning the educational campaign of the Massachusetts Council of Churches relative to delinquency and crime.

An address, "Juvenile Delinquency: the Challenge of Change," was given by Mr. Bertram M. Beck, the Director of the Special Juvenile Delinquency Project of the Children's Bureau, Washington, D. C. Following discussion of the address, the session was adjourned.

During the recess before supper, there were two showings of the motion picture, "The Beginning."

Mr. Blossom also introduced the following resolutions in regard to revisions in the By-Laws, all of which were unanimously adopted:

ARTICLE I Substitute "Massachusetts Congregational Christian Conference" in this article for the former name, "Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society."

ARTICLE V, Section 2 Change the title, "Secretary of Missions and Stewardship" to "Minister of Missions and Stewardship"; and the title "Secretary of Religious Education" to "Minister of Christian Education."

ARTICLE VI, Section 6 Change the second word of the sentence from "Secretary" to "Minister", making it read "The Minister of Missions and Stewardship."

ARTICLE VI, Section 8 Change the two titles at the beginning of the section to read "The Minister of Christian Education and the Associate in Christian Education . . . "

ARTICLE X, Section 2-c Change the name of the committee to "A Committee on Christian Education."

ARTICLE X Add a new paragraph, which would be as follows:

(j) A Committee on Churches and Colleges, consisting of nine members, of whom three shall be elected at each annual meeting for a term of three years. It shall be the duty of this Committee to study the needs and opportunities for developing a stronger religious program among students at the college and university level, especially as it relates to local Congregational Christian Churches; to cooperate with denominational and interdenominational agencies working in this specialized field; and to review requests for conference aid for the support of student projects within Massachusetts.

ARTICLE XIV (Corporate Seal) Substitute "Massachusetts Congregational Christian Conference" for "Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society."

The following recommendations of the Trustees were also adopted:

THAT the terms of the present members of the Committee on Churches and Colleges be extended one year, so that those whose terms now expire in 1954 will serve until May 1955; and those whose terms now expire in 1955 will serve until May 1956, and that the Nominating Committee be asked to nominate three new members of the committee at the annual meeting whose terms will expire in May 1957.

THAT the election of a delegate to the Advisory Board of the Student Christian Movement of New England be authorized, said delegate to be nominated by the Conference Nominating Committee, for a three year term.

TUESDAY EVENING

The annual Fellowship Supper was served in Bethany Church Social Hall, Dr. Frederick M. Meek presiding.

Rev. Claude A. Butterfield and Rev. Alden H. Clark were present, representing the men whose ordination occurred fifty years ago. Mr. Butterfield responded to the greetings given for the group.

Mr. John P. Flavin of the Quincy Chamber of Commerce presented to the Conference a wood carving, representing the John Quincy Adams Birthplace, as a souvenir of the Conference's visit to the city.

Greetings from representatives of associated organizations were brought by Rev. Glen W. Trimble, Massachusetts Council of Churches; Rev. Orin E. Dice, Boston Seaman's Friend Society; Rev. Harold D. Wilson, Massachusetts Temperance League, and Rev. G. Baughn Shedd, Lord's Day League of New England.

The meeting then adjourned to the auditorium of the Quincy High School, where worship was led by Chaplain Henley. Music was furnished by a community choir, representing South Shore Congregational churches and directed by Mr. Edward B. Whittredge, with Mrs. Agnes Ruggles Allen at the piano.

Mr. Bryan Meredith of the United Nations Radio Division spoke on "Working for Peace in the United Nations."

The session closed with hymn and benediction by Chaplain Henley.

WEDNESDAY MORNING

Communion was celebrated at 8:30, with Dr. Albert Buckner Coe leading, and meditation by Rev. Walter R. Greenwood of Rockport. Members of the Conference Staff served as deacons.

The business session was opened at 9:20, with hymn and prayer, led by Chaplain Henley.

Rev. Robert W. Little of Beverly presented the report of the Nominating Committee with reference to the Conference officers and staff. It was voted to accept the report and proceed to the election. The election, by ballot, resulted as reported on Pages 16 and 17.

Mr. Little then presented the remainder of the Nominating Committee's report, naming Conference committees, representatives serving on other boards, etc. The Recording Secretary was instructed to cast one ballot for the list as presented, and they were declared elected as recorded on Pages 18 to 28.

On recommendation of the Trustees, it was VOTED: That the Allotment assessment for the year 1954–1955 be 28¢ per member; 20¢ for the General Council and 8¢ for the Conference.

Reporting for the Business Committee, Rev. Clarence W. Fuller presented three resolutions on behalf of the Social Action Committee, and they were adopted as follows:

TEMPERANCE AND ALCOHOL CONTROL

WHEREAS intemperance is a contributing factor in juvenile delinquency and adult crime, and

WHEREAS the excessive use of liquor is detrimental to family life and a cause of divorce,

Therefore be it RESOLVED that we call upon our ministers and churches to promote temperance programs and to help establish alcoholic clinics where the need exists, and

Be it further RESOLVED that we urge our people to demand stricter enforcement of the liquor laws where laxity exists among law enforcement agencies, to support new laws which will help to control the problems caused by excessive use of alcohol and to cooperate wherever possible with other groups interested in this problem, such as the Massachusetts Temperance League, the Social Relations Department of the Massachusetts Council of Churches and the Massachusetts Commission on Alcohol.

Be it further RESOLVED that because we see in the widespread advertisements of alcoholic beverages in all of our mass media a constant and repeated emphasis on the social acceptability of drinking and a constant and continued silence on its disastrous social effects, this Conference, therefore, goes on record as supporting the Bryson Bill (H.R. 1227). This bill would eliminate the advertisements of all alcoholic beverages over the radio and television, and in newspapers and magazines in interstate commerce.

Be it further RESOLVED that notice of this action be sent to our Massachusetts Representatives and Senators in Washington.

CONSTITUTIONAL RIGHTS AND LIBERTIES

When our national security is threatened within and without the land Christian people and Christian Churches ought to give special attention to the foundations upon which our society rests. These foundations are freedom, justice, human rights and civil liberties, which in turn, depend upon the moral and spiritual foundations of our Christian faith. It is especially important for us to strengthen and declare such faith in a time of fear and insecurity that we may "hold fast to the liberty wherewith Christ hath set us free."

One of the basic concepts of our religious faith is that man is a son of God, made in the image of God and therefore worthy of the respect of other men and of a chance to live his life with dignity and freedom. We hold that loyalty to this basic truth is necessary to preserve political freedom as set forth in the American Declaration of Independence, the Constitution of the United States and the Bill of Rights.

Moved by this faith we deplore intimidation, careless accusations, abuse of political power, release of unevaluated information in committee files, malicious slander, premature assumption of guilt, the judgment of people on the basis of association rather than character and conduct. Such practices violate our religious convictions, our democratic traditions, and our constitutional rights and liberties.

We deplore the practice of casting suspicion upon those who do not conform to majority viewpoints, of interpreting honest mistakes as intentional disloyalty, of condemning persons now for acts which were lawful and acceptable when committed.

We believe that society profits from diversity of opinion, from the interplay of free minds and from the use of truth to counteract error. An atmosphere of confidence and freedom in our churches, schools, libraries, industries and in our institutions of government is a necessary condition for a strong and secure nation.

We call upon our people to be steadfast in their loyalty to freedom, express their honest views, encourage and honor others who do the same, and support those programs of education and action in our churches and society which will strengthen our fundamental faith, our sense of justice and our essential liberties.

SUPREME COURT DECISION

Be it RESOLVED that this Conference record its hearty approval of the recent decision of the Supreme Court outlawing segregation in the public schools, and welcome it as an opportunity to implement in the field of education our belief in the dignity of all men and their equality in the sight of God.

A fourth resolution, on Agriculture, was referred back to the Social Action Committee for revision and report at the afternoon session.

The Missionary Committee presented a panel discussion, "The Local Church Missionary Committee in Action — a Glimpse of How We Do It," with Rev. Baldwin W. Callahan as Chairman. Others participating were: Mrs. Myron W. Bemis, Mrs. Stanley Cummings, Miss Edna Morton, Miss Rosa Richard and the Reverend Messrs. Robert N. Foster, Robert W. Little, Harold Nevers, Roland W. Nye.

Rev. Horace G. Robson, Executive Director, gave a report for the Board of Pastoral Supply.

"The Church's Ministry to Students" was the subject of an address by Rev. W. S. McColm of Glasgow, Scotland, after which the session was closed by Chaplain Henley with hymn and prayer.

WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON

At 12:15 a Missionary Luncheon was served in the church social hall, with Rev. H. Gardner Andersen of Walpole presiding. The address, given by Prof. Elmer Homrighausen of Princeton Theological School, on "Choose Ye This Day," was very enthusiastically received.

Reconvening at 2:00 the Conference was called to order by Moderator-elect, Mr. Julian D. Steele. Chaplain Henley led in a hymn and prayer. Mr. Steele spoke briefly on "The Moral Use of Power."

Mr. Glen Cunningham of Cedar Point, Kansas, received much applause for his address on "Clean Living and the Race of Life."

Making further report for the Business Committee, Rev. Clarence W. Fuller introduced the resolution on Agriculture, as revised by the Social Action Committee, and it was adopted in the following form:

AGRICULTURE

WHEREAS the business of producing the food and fiber for the nation is of paramount importance; and

WHEREAS the maintenance of the fertility of the soil is essential to our prosperity; and

WHEREAS the problems related to American agriculture have been a matter of public concern for many years, as evidenced by the creation of the extension service, experiment stations, conservation works, etc.; and

WHEREAS as a result of this assistance and encouragement, food in quantities in excess of our minimum needs is being produced in our country,

Therefore be it RESOLVED that the government of the United States in the national interest has a responsibility to the producers of food and fiber to protect them from exploitation; and

Therefore be it further RESOLVED that increased effort be given to finding means of distributing our surplus foods among hungry people at home or abroad; and

Be it further RESOLVED that copies of this resolution be sent to the Senators and Congressmen from Massachusetts to the Governor of this Commonwealth and to the President of the United States.

Other resolutions presented on behalf of the Social Action Committee were adopted as follows:

JUVENILE DELINQUENCY AND CRIME

WHEREAS the churches of our denomination have joined, through the Social Relations Department of the Massachusetts Council of Churches, with other Protestant churches in an educational campaign relative to delinquency and crime, and

WHEREAS many of our churches have cooperated splendidly with this educational program, bringing the facts about the causes of delinquency to the attention of their people and helping to achieve the definite objectives of the program in terms of foster homes, more help for young people in prison and improved legislation to deal with delinquency and crime, Therefore be it RESOLVED that we commend this program as a plan of action and urge that more consideration be given by our churches, community agencies and public officials to strengthening the forces that make for the prevention of delinquency and crime. Be it further RESOLVED that we call upon our churches and their Social Action Committees to continue to work for the improvement of procedures related to criminal justice, to the treatment of offenders in our penal institutions and to help prisoners to make better adjustments upon their release from prison.

THE COUNCIL FOR SOCIAL ACTION

WHEREAS the report of the Board of Review on the activities of the Council for Social Action has been circulated among the churches of Massachusetts, and

WHEREAS the report has on the one hand justified the creation, general structure and function of the Council, and on the other has recommended strengthening its finances, educational duties, and sense of responsibility to our churches,

Be it RESOLVED that we approve the report of the Board of Review and that we strive to carry out in toto its recommendations.

GAMBLING

WHEREAS recent surveys have revealed an increase in organized gambling, especially in the form of "horse shop" and in-plant bookie betting, and

WHEREAS gambling represents a perversion of moral principles and a diversion of money from legitimate business and savings thereby weakening the moral and economic structure of society while at the same time fostering corruption in government and making for an increase of crime and other social evils, and

WHEREAS so-called minor forms of gambling along with so-called "give-away" advertising projects based on luck and chance tend to awaken an unwholesome desire to get something for nothing that stimulates the gambling mania with its consequent evils:

Be it RESOLVED that we condemn organized gambling and urge a strict enforcement of existing laws against it and call upon organizations and advertising agencies to refrain from the use of devices which stimulate the gambling fever.

INDUSTRIAL RELATIONS

WHEREAS sound labor-management relations constitute a fundamental element in a healthy economy for our Commonwealth and our nation; and

WHEREAS such relations break down by reason of ignorance, misinformation and suspicion as much as through genuine disparity of point of view;

WHEREAS it should be the aim of churches to create concord rather than division, to witness to community- rather than self-interest, and to be a source of understanding rather than prejudice:

Be it RESOLVED that we encourage promotion of more Industrial Institutes for the purpose of bringing together representatives of labor and management for informal discussions of common principles, methods, and objectives, that we encourage our churches to form study groups on our economic life as a part of their social action commitments, to prepare themselves to be centers of mediation and conciliation where disagreements and disputes arise.

WORLD AFFAIRS

WHEREAS Nationalism, which has emphasized self-sufficiency and separateness along with color barriers and the doctrine of white supremacy, has broken down in the world, and

WHEREAS Colonialism is under heavy attack in many parts of the world before a rising desire for freedom and a better life inspired often by the teachings of Christianity, and

WHEREAS the technical assistance programs supported by our government have raised the hopes of millions of people in areas of hunger and economic depression toward a better standard of life, and

WHEREAS the United Nations has proved itself to be an effective world forum in which explosive international issues can be discussed, has assisted dependent people in an orderly transition from colonial status to freedom, has ministered to displaced persons and refugees, while working effectively for the alleviation of hunger, disease and illiteracy:

Therefore be it RESOLVED that we urge our church people to study carefully proposals for revision of the United Nations' charter scheduled for consideration by the General Assembly of the U.N. in 1955 and that they make their hopes and desires relative to the future of the United Nations known to their representatives in Congress.

Be it further RESOLVED that we urge our government to continue its program of technical assistance to needy peoples, to regard it not as a temporary or emergency measure or to subordinate it to military aid or security objectives; but to offer it as an expression of our concern for people in need and as a practical and effective means of promoting peace and freedom in the world.

The following six resolutions were introduced by Mr. Fuller on behalf of the Committee on Religious Education, and all were adopted:

1. We wish to commend the churches that support the much needed program of Week Day Religious Education. We suggest that after adequate study and preparation in order to maintain high educational standards, more communities embark on this program, supporting it by paying salaries of its teachers at least on the level of public school teachers of that community.

2. We recommend that churches of our Conference study and follow "The Manual of Standards and Relationships for the Church and the Ministry of Christian Education" as prepared by The Department of the Ministry and the Division of Christian Education of the Congregational Christian Churches, so that (1) On entering the profession a Director or Minister of Christian Education will be certified by the Association, as outlined in the Manual; and (2) On accepting a new position, there will be a suitable Service of Recognition by the Association, local church, or both.

3. We recognize the importance of cooperating interdenominationally in Christian Education work through the Massachusetts Council of Churches, and encourage our churches to use all the facilities available.

4. Because of the great worth of summer conferences in the lives of our young people, and because some cannot afford the total expense involved, we recommend that our Associations and churches establish scholarship funds to help their young people attend summer conferences.

5. WHEREAS Christian Education Institutes sponsored by various Associations have proved so effective, it is hereby recommended that all Associations sponsor institutes for church school teachers and Pilgrim Fellowship advisors annually.

6. WHEREAS Dr. John L. Lobingier has given many years of devoted and consecrated service to the Massachusetts Congregational Conference as Secretary of Christian Education, be it RESOLVED that the Massachusetts Congregational Conference go on record as expressing its heartfelt appreciation and gratitude, and extending every good wish for his future.

An invitation from the Rollstone and Calvinistic Churches of Fitchburg for entertainment of the Conference in 1955 was approved and referred to the Trustees for action.

A statement from the Committee for the Continuation of the Congregational Christian Churches was read. This communication required no action by the Conference.

Five further resolutions were offered by the Business Committee and were adopted as follows:

REFUGEES

WHEREAS there are a great many refugees in Europe who need to be resettled, and

WHEREAS the denominational opportunities for helping in the resettlement program will be on a "first come, first served" basis, and

WHEREAS many of our churches have already known the joy of helping resettle homeless people through the so-called Displaced Persons Program, and

WHEREAS "Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these, my brethren, ye have done it unto me," is an imperative of the Christian Gospel, and

WHEREAS the Congregational Christian Service Committee is seeking 75 assurances in Massachusetts within the next two months, and

WHEREAS the Social Action Committee of our Congregational Christian Conference has accepted this quota,

Be it RESOLVED that the Massachusetts Congregational Conference strongly favors the program for the resettlement of regugees, and urges the churches in the state to do all that is within their power to assist in this program at the earliest possible moment.

IN DEFENSE OF CONSCIENCE AND FREEDOM

WHEREAS we have defended freedom generally, and

WHEREAS it is sometimes good to be specific and defend freedom singularly, and

WHEREAS some of our members and ministers have been carelessly accused before the House Un-American Activities Committee and by other organizations with a restricted idea of the limits of freedom, and

WHEREAS the integrity of our members and ministers have been reaffirmed by their own churches and associations, therefore

Be it RESOLVED that we honor the churches and associations that have shown courage in reaffirming the principles of Christian freedom, and

Be it further RESOLVED that we urge our churches and associations to stand firmly behind those who follow their Christian conscience in the midst of the complex needs and differing opinions of the day.

THE OFFICE OF PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES

WHEREAS we have in our democratic traditions always upheld the integrity and trust of the office of the President of the United States, and

WHEREAS we are greatly disturbed by the efforts of a few to undermine the integrity of this honored office,

Be it RESOLVED that we reaffirm our trust in the office of President.

Be it further RESOLVED that we commend the President for his sincere efforts to give spiritual leadership to the nation.

FOREIGN POLICY

WHEREAS in any crisis, including the present Indo China one, the welfare of mankind and therefore of the United States must always be on the side of freedom, a higher standard of living, and cultural and religious fulfillment; and

WHEREAS our foreign policy in Asia is in a fluid state and needs the direction of Christian hearts and minds; therefore

Be it RESOLVED that we express to the leaders of our nation our Christian concern that in the Asian foreign policy the ultimate goals of political independence in Indo China be recognized, that a higher standard of living through economic aid to depressed areas be advanced through the United Nations, and that as a nation under God we give willingly as Christian stewards whatever is necessary for peace and justice.

EXPRESSION OF GRATITUDE

WHEREAS the Congregational Christian Conference recognizes the many hours of careful planning involved to make this, our 155th Annual Meeting, outstanding in every respect, and

WHEREAS we gratefully acknowledge the abundance of spiritual and material blessings that have been made possible for us to enjoy, be it

RESOLVED that we extend a sincere expression of thanks

1. To the people of Bethany Church, Rev. Mr. and Mrs. George E. Gilchrist, the Associate Minister, Rev. Kenneth C. Bunker, the officers and staff, the committees on hospitality and arrangements, and for the excellent music of Mrs. Agnes Ruggles Allen
2. To the neighboring churches who generously offered their resources and whose members served on the various committees and joined in the ministry of music under the direction of Mr. Edward B. Whittredge
3. To the many homes which were opened to us that we could have comfortable lodging
4. To the members of the press who have given adequate news coverage to the meetings of the Conference
5. To the Mayor, the City Manager and City officials of Quincy, the members of the Police Department for their cooperation in making parking facilities available and for their kind and courteous help.

And be it further RESOLVED: That we gratefully acknowledge the inspiration brought by our Chaplain, the Rev. Kenneth R. Henley

That we express our thanks and debt of gratitude to our Moderator, Rev. Dr. Frederick M. Meek, for his keen understanding, his clarity of thought and effective handling of the Conference business at all times

And to our Minister and President, Dr. Albert Buckner Coe, we would again pledge our loyalty and devotion, and enthusiastically rededicate ourselves to the support of his leadership, and to his efficient and capable staff of officers who serve the Conference with vision and untiring effort throughout the year.

The President of the Conference read the list of ministers who have died in the past year, and the assembly rose in respect to their memory.

Miss Antonia H. Froendt of New York City, representing the American Staff of the World Council, gave an address on "The Forthcoming Assembly of the World Council of Churches."

Rev. John A. Douglas presented the following report for the Credentials Committee:

Delegates......	290
Ministers.......	295
Guests.........	657
Ex Officiis......	63
Total......	1305

Number of Churches represented 342

The Conference adjourned with a hymn and the following prayer by Chaplain Henley.

CLOSING PRAYER BY CHAPLAIN AT STATE CONFERENCE

Eternal God, our Father, we thank Thee for these mountain-top experiences which have meant so much to us. Grant, we pray Thee, that the spiritual refreshment they have given us may not be left behind nor forgotten as we go out into the world where greed and poverty, misunderstanding and ignorance, take their toll. In the days ahead may we contribute so much of our faith and works that Thy Church may be as a lighthouse of truth and a citadel of faith. But before we go, may we once more look upward and see Thee Whom to know is life eternal, and inward and see ourselves as instruments of Thy purpose, and outward and see people as persons for whom Christ lived and died. And may the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit, be with us all. Amen.

May 12, 1954

The Reverend Albert Buckner Coe, D.D., President
Massachusetts Congregational Christian Conference
Boston, Massachusetts

We have examined the balance sheets of Massachusetts Congregational Christian Conference (formerly Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society) and of Massachusetts Congregational Christian Conference, Trustee, as at March 31, 1954, and the related statements of income for the year ended at that date. Our examination was made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, and accordingly included such tests of the accounting records and such other auditing procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances.

The securities representing the invested funds at March 31, 1954, were verified by inspection or confirmation and the cash in banks and in office by certificate or count.

In our opinion, the accompanying balance sheets and related statements of income present fairly the financial position of the Conference and of the Conference as Trustee, respectively, at March 31, 1954, and the results of their operations for the year ended at that date, in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles applied on a basis consistent with that of the preceding year.

PATTERSON, TEELE & DENNIS

ALLOTMENT ACCOUNT

In 1927 the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and the Massachusetts Home Missionary Society were united in a single corporation. Previous to that time, the National Council of Congregational Churches and the Conference had paid their expenses for meetings and administration by thirteen cents collected for each church member. It seems right that the Conference part of our organization should still pay its own charges. Twenty-eight cents per member is asked this year of the Churches. Twenty cents of the twenty-eight goes to the General Council (formerly The National Council) and eight cents is kept by the Conference. The collection of the eight cents per member is the attempt of the Conference part of our organization to pay its expenses and not to become a charge upon missionary funds.

BEQUESTS

Bequests to the Massachusetts Congregational Christian Conference are used to aid weak churches and to promote the work and interests of the Conference in the State. Bequests may be made permanent funds by the donor, and the Conference restricted to the use of the income only. The practice of the Conference is to divide unrestricted legacies into three equal parts. One part is used for current work, one part is added to the Permanent Legacy Fund, the income only of which is used for general purposes; and the third part is added to a Contingent Fund, the principal of which may be drawn upon to care for special undertakings or to avoid a deficit.

If, on the other hand, a testator specifies that his entire legacy is to be expended as current income and that he does not wish it invested in whole or in part, these directions will be carefully observed.

Bequests to the Massachusetts Congregational Christian Conference pay no Massachusetts inheritance tax.

GRANTS FROM THE MASSACHUSETTS CONGREGATIONAL CHRISTIAN CONFERENCE

1. Wherever a community is too far from a church to benefit from its privileges, the Conference encourages the establishment of regular religious services, and, if possible, the organization of a church, or a branch of a neighboring church.

2. Applications by any church for financial aid should be made by the vote of the church, and upon forms furnished by the Conference, and should have the approval of the Advisory or Grants Committee of the local Association of Churches.

3. Churches applying for aid should show that they have met in full all financial obligations to their ministers and are doing their utmost toward self-support.

4. In granting aid the Conference will appropriate different amounts according to the necessity, importance, and prospects of each field.

5. Every church aided by the Conference should consult the President or Secretary before making arrangements for pastoral service.

6. Whenever the service of the minister or other worker, for whose support an appropriation is made, shall terminate, the appropriation shall lapse, except for special reasons satisfactory to the President.

7. The Conference advocates adequate compensation for every minister and worker.

8. The Conference favors hearty co-operation with other denominations, the avoidance of overlapping and competing work, and the consolidation or federation of churches of different denominations in over-churched communities.

9. We are indicating in this copy of the Minutes the churches that received Conference grants in the year 1953-1954 by placing the reference § before the names of these churches in the section of the Minutes entitled "Associations of Churches and Ministerial Standing." In cases where the grant was discontinued during the year the letter "d" appears. Where the pastor's service ended during the year, the reference "†" appears. Special grants will be listed, as usual, on the following page.

STATISTICAL TABLES

EXPLANATORY

The tables which follow comprise:

1. The statistics of the churches, giving the ministers, church membership, additions, removals, Sunday school membership, and the amount of benevolences and expenses. These tables, in accordance with the vote of the Conference in 1887, are made to conform to those in the Year Book;

2. The Associations of the churches, with the names of officers;

3. The Ministerial Standing, giving the date of ordination of each minister, the date of membership in the Association, the residence and his "employment";

4. The Ministerial Record, containing lists of ordinations and deaths.

The tables of the first part contain the names of all the Congregational churches in Massachusetts, the towns and cities being arranged alphabetically. In cases where the post office name of the church and the town differ, heavy type indicates the postal address (or in some cases, the political township), and a cross reference on the page where the post office name would naturally be found will direct the reader to the town name.

Church members are reported as numbered January 1, 1954. Admissions and removals cover the year 1953. "Sunday school" includes total membership of officers, teachers and scholars January 1, 1954, or when the school is in operation (if not at that date), covering "branch schools", "mission schools" and "home departments" so far as maintained by the reporting church.

The months and days in the dates of the organization of churches are omitted. They will be found in the publications of 1873, those of churches since organized being given in the "Minutes" of each year. Months and days in the dates of ordination of Congregational ministers may be found in the lists of the local Associations which follow the tables.

Abbreviations in schedule headings are:
"Ord." — Ordained
"Cld." — Called
"To." or "T." — Total
"Ab." — Absentee
"C." — Confession
"D." — Death
"L." — Letter

Reference marks are used as follows:

[] Around a pastor's name signify he is not in full standing as a Congregational Christian minister, nor a denominational licentiate, nor an approved lay preacher, nor a candidate in care of a local association.

y Pastor serves more than one church.
i Pastor installed by Council.
r Pastor recognized by Council.
x Includes cost of new building or improvements.
—No answer can be given.
* Value of church property includes parsonage.
★ Per Capita paid in full by church.

|| When a church has made no report, items of membership in church, Sunday School and young people's organizations, also home expense and value of property, are inserted from the previous Year Book and marked || in the first column of the statistical report. This is done that these items may be included in the summaries and comparative tables, thus minimizing the danger of falsifying the comparisons.

Under church "Members" the number "Absent" are included in the "Total." Amount of "Home Expenses" includes all salaries, together with missionary aid received, operating expenses and repairs for church, Sunday School, choir and parish. An x before "Value Church Property" denotes expenditures for new buildings or improvements during the year. The total expended is given at the end of the Conference schedule.

In reporting the statistics of federated churches, figures given pertaining to membership and gifts on the apportionment are for the Congregational church within the federated church. Figures pertaining to average attendance, Church School enrollment, membership in young people's organizations, contributions to home expenses are usually for all the churches grouped together in the federated church.

CONDITIONAL GIFTS

The Conference receives conditional gifts, subject to annuity agreements with the donors, and encourages this method for those who wish any part of their property to be applied to our work after their death, and desire an assured income from their property for themselves, or for others whom they may designate as beneficiaries, as long as they live. Correspondence with the Treasurer concerning such annuity agreements is invited.

TRUST FUNDS

The Massachusetts Congregational Fund, organized during the year 1945 under the auspices of the Conference, is now administering trust funds of Congregational churches and organizations in Massachusetts aggregating $5,000,000, including the funds of the Conference.

It is not an easy matter for church or parish committees, often made up of those without broad experience in investment matters, to guard the safety of church trust funds. We welcome inquiries from Congregational churches in Massachusetts relative to caring for their trust or endowment funds.

HISTORICAL SKETCH

The Massachusetts Missionary Society was organized on May 29, 1799, in Boston. There were thirty-eight charter members, mainly followers of the theology of Samuel Hopkins. They were "impelled by a deep commiseration for the unhappy state of those who were perishing for lack of those precious means of salvation which we enjoy." Their intention was to spread "the knowledge of the glorious Gospel of Christ among the poor Heathens and in those remote parts of our country in which the inhabitants had not enjoyed the benefits of a Christian ministry and Christian ordinances," i.e., outside Massachusetts. Nathaniel Emmons, fifty-four years pastor at Franklin, was the first president.

Origin of Domestic Missionary Society

In 1827 the Massachusetts Missionary Society and the Domestic Missionary Society of Massachusetts Proper (which had come into being in 1818 to "see every parish in the State well supplied with a faithful Minister of Christ"), were united under the name of the Massachusetts Missionary Society. This meant that while the Domestic Missionary Society of Massachusetts Proper lost its name, the Massachusetts Missionary Society was henceforth to work almost exclusively in Massachusetts.

The Massachusetts Missionary Society became the Massachusetts "Home" Missionary Society in 1844. This was simply to emphasize that the work of the Society had become exclusively for America and for the Massachusetts part of America.

Origin of Massachusetts Conference

The Massachusetts Home Missionary Society and the Massachusetts Congregational Conference were united under the name of the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society in 1927. This was the result of twenty-seven years' agitation, accelerated by a recommendation of the National Council in 1907. The charter of the Massachusetts Home Missionary Society was used as the basis for the union of the two organizations. In 1953 the name was changed to Massachusetts Congregational Christian Conference. The Conference assumes responsibility for all Congregational missionary work done in Massachusetts. It supports a staff of eleven persons who give ministerial and executive leadership to a broad program of work designed to help the churches, to develop the fellowship of the ministers and churches, and to cultivate practical support for denominational and interdenominational projects and programs.

BY-LAWS OF THE MASSACHUSETTS CONGREGATIONAL CHRISTIAN CONFERENCE

ARTICLE I

Terminology

Whenever in these by-laws the word "Conference" is used it shall be held to refer to the Massachusetts Congregational Christian Conference.

Denominational Basis

Following Congregational principles, this Conference shall under no circumstances exercise authority over churches or individuals or interfere with the government or discipline of the churches. It shall advise and counsel the churches when requested, but it is recognized that each church has the power of self-determination in all matters.

ARTICLE III

Doctrinal Basis

This Conference declares its steadfast allegiance to the faith which our fathers confessed, which, from age to age, has found its expression in the historic creeds of the Church Universal and of this Communion.

ARTICLE IV

Membership

Voting Members. Every Church or Congregation which is or shall become a member of a Congregational or a Congregational Christian Association of Churches in Massachusetts may annually choose two delegates (of whom it is suggested one shall be a layman and the other a laywoman) and these delegates, together with the pastor or pastors of each church (who shall be members ex officiis), the officers of the Conference (including the members of the Board of Trustees and any person who shall have been elected an Officer Emeritus), the committee members of the Conference and those persons who, prior to May 22, 1923, became life members of the Massachusetts Home Missionary Society, shall constitute the voting membership of the Conference; provided, however, that pastors shall have the privileges of honorary members only unless they shall have membership in Congregational Christian Associations regularly holding ministerial standing.

Honorary Members. Delegates from corresponding bodies and persons appointed to speak before the Conference, together with all persons heretofore constituted honorary members of the Massachusetts Home Missionary Society, such persons as may be made honorary members by a vote of the Board of Trustees, and such other persons as the Conference may from time to time vote to admit, shall be honorary members of the Conference, with the privilege of speaking, but without vote.

ARTICLE V

Officers

1. There shall be a Moderator, one or more vice-Moderators, a Recording Secretary, a Chairman and a vice-Chairman of the Department of Woman's Work (See Article VIII, Sec. 1, (b)), a Chairman and vice-Chairman of the Massachusetts Congregational Laymen's Council (See Article VIII, Sec. 2, (b)), all of whom shall be nominated by the Nominating Committee hereinafter provided for, and elected by ballot at each annual meeting of the Conference for a term of one year and until their respective successors are chosen.

2. The executive officers of the Conference shall be a President, a Secretary, a Treasurer, an Assistant Treasurer, Field Secretaries, a Director of Woman's Work, a Minister of Missions and Stewardship, and a Minister of Christian Education and Associate in Christian Education. These officers shall constitute the Executive Staff. They shall be nominated by the Board of Trustees meeting in executive session, and elected by ballot at each annual meeting of the Conference for a term of one year and until their respective successors are chosen. They shall bear such additional titles as the Conference or the Board of Trustees may determine.

3. The Conference shall elect by ballot a Board of Trustees consisting of one member from each Association of churches, and six members-at-large who shall be known for their special knowledge of financial affairs, of whom one shall be chosen each even-numbered year and two, — beginning with the year 1935, — each odd-numbered year. The Chairman and Vice Chairman of the Woman's Department, the Chairman and Vice Chairman of the Massachusetts Laymen's Council, the President of the Massachusetts Pilgrim Fellowship and one Vice President (nominated by its executive committee), the Chairman of the Congregational Center Committee, and the Moderator shall also be members ex officiis. One-third of the representatives of the Associations upon the Board shall be ministers, one-third laymen, and one-third laywomen as nearly as may be. Nine members shall constitute a quorum. The term of office shall be four years, and no member having served a full term shall be eligible for re-election until after one year, but members-at-large, chosen for their knowledge of financial affairs, may serve for two consecutive terms. The present Trustees shall remain in office until the expiration of their terms.

The Conference shall from time to time designate the Associations from which Trustees are to be chosen in the successive years and determine whether the Trustee to be chosen from a particular Association in any year shall be a minister, a layman, or a laywoman.

Each Association shall be notified by the Secretary of the Conference on or before September 15 when it is its turn to propose to the nominating committee a candidate for membership upon the Board, and whether such candidate should be a minister, a layman or a laywoman, and the names of such candidates shall be reported to the Secretary before April 1, of each year. The Secretary upon the receipt of these names shall communicate them to the nominating committee on or before April 10. In case any Association fails to propose a candidate the Board of Trustees shall perform this duty. This method of choosing Trustees shall commence at the close of the 1933 Conference.

At its first meeting after each annual meeting of the Conference the Board shall choose one of its members to serve as chairman for the ensuing year. Except as otherwise provided in the charter of the Conference or in these by-laws, the Board shall administer and dispose of the property of the Conference and shall manage all its business and affairs, and all officers and agents of the Conference shall act under its direction. The Board shall cause the accounts of the Treasurer to be audited at least once each year by certified public accountants selected by the Board. Without restricting the generality of the foregoing, the Board shall in particular have the following powers:

(a) To choose a Clerk, to appoint its own meetings and form its own rules of business, to appoint sub-committees and to delegate any of its powers to such committees.

(b) To appoint and, at pleasure, remove all agents of the Conference and to define their duties.

(c) To fill any vacancy in any office of the Conference (including vacancies in the membership of the Board) until the vacancy shall be filled at a succeeding meeting of the Conference.

(d) To remove any officer of the Conference (other than members of the Board) who may be guilty of disregard of his duties or of such conduct as shall be seriously prejudicial to the interests of the Conference.

(e) To direct efforts to promote missionary interest and giving among the Congregational churches of the Commonwealth.

4. The terms of all officers, save when chosen to fill vacancies, shall begin at the close of the meeting at which they are elected.

ARTICLE VI

Duties of Officers

1. The Moderator, or in his absence, one of the vice-Moderators, shall preside over all meetings of the Conference.

2. The President shall be the chief executive officer of the Conference and shall, subject to the direction of the Conference and of its Board of Trustees, have general charge of its missionary and benevolent work and of its other activities. He shall be a member ex officio of all standing committees named in the by-laws with the exception of the nominating committee. He shall have the power to delegate to members of the Staff the authority to represent him upon any of the said standing committees. He shall be the representative of the Conference and of its Board of Trustees among all the churches (both those financially independent and those aided by the funds of the Conference) and in all denominational and interdenominational gatherings (including meetings of state Superintendents) unless representation is otherwise provided. He may seek to assist pastors and churches with fraternal counsel. He shall keep informed as to opportunities for extension work through founding new churches or strengthening old ones and shall recommend to the Conference and to the Board of Trustees measures for meeting such opportunities.

3. The Secretary shall keep the records of the Conference, except as hereinafter provided, and shall assist in its general work under the direction of the President. He shall devote himself in co-operation with the Field Secretaries and under the direction of the President, to counseling with and assisting the churches in the area assigned to him, and shall perform such other duties as may be assigned to him by the Board of Trustees or the President. He shall have the custody of the records and of all bonds given by the treasurer as hereinafter provided. He shall furnish copies of the record certified under the seal of the Conference (which shall be in his keeping) to such persons as may be entitled thereto.

The Secretary shall collect and publish in connection with the annual Report of the Conference the statistics of ministers and churches and make up the official roll of the ministers and churches in accordance with the usages of the denomination. He shall present to the Conference at its annual meeting a general statistical statement of the progress of religion in the churches for the past calendar year. He shall give suitable notice to the churches of the time and place of each annual meeting, notify officers and committees of their election or appointment and fulfill such other functions as the Conference or the Board of Trustees may from time to time direct.

4. The Treasurer shall receive and hold the property of the Conference subject to the direction of the Board of Trustees and shall keep particular accounts of the Conference's funds and of the disposal thereof. He shall, under the direction of the President, assist, so far as he may be able, in the general work of the Conference and shall perform such other duties as may be assigned to him by the Board of Trustees. He shall make a report at each annual meeting of the Conference and shall make such other reports as the Conference or the Board of Trustees may from time to time require. He shall receive all contributions for benevolences sent to him by the churches and by individuals and shall disburse the same in accordance with the instructions of the donors. He shall give such bonds for the faithful performance of his duties as may from time to time be required by the Board of Trustees. The Assistant Treasurer shall perform such duties as may be assigned by the Treasurer, and act in his stead in event of incapacity or absence.

5. The Field Secretaries shall counsel with and assist the churches in the area which may from time to time be assigned to them by the Board of Trustees or the President.

6. The Minister of Missions and Stewardship shall have the duty of advancing the interest of the churches in the work of missions at home and abroad. He shall, under the direction of the President, assist, so far as he may be able, in the general work of the Conference.

7. The Director of Woman's Work shall have special charge of promoting missionary interests and all other activities among the women of the Congregational churches of the Commonwealth. She shall, under the direction of the President, assist, so far as she may be able, in the general work of the Conference.

8. The Minister of Christian Education and the Associate in Christian Education, if any, shall encourage and promote the whole program of religious education as well as Christian living and Christian activities among the Congregational churches of the State. He, or she, or they, shall, under the direction of the President, assist so far as able, in the general work of the Conference.

9. The Recording Secretary shall record the complete minutes of each annual meeting and shall transcribe and deliver the same to the Secretary. The Board of Trustees may, in their discretion, appoint a deputy to assist in the keeping of the records under the direction of the Recording Secretary.

ARTICLE VII

Retirement and Annuity

1. No person who has attained the age of seventy years shall continue as a member of the Executive Staff. With respect to employees not members of the Executive Staff, it shall be the policy of the Conference to retire every such employee upon his or her attaining the age of seventy years, provided, however, that this shall not affect the power of the Trustees temporarily to employ from time to time persons who have passed that age (including former members of the executive staff) whenever in particular cases the Trustees shall deem such temporary employment essential to the efficient conduct of the Conference's work.

2. Ordained ministers who are members of the executive staff shall be expected to be members of the Annuity Fund for Congregational Ministers, and the Conference shall not provide for them any other retirement annuity, except in the case of ministers who are now members under the Original Plan. Toward each annual premium in the Annuity Fund of any member of the staff the Conference shall pay each year an amount equal to 8% of the charge on his salary, less such amount as the Conference shall pay the United States for his Social Security.

3. Lay members of the office staff shall be expected to be, so far as practicable, members of the Retirement Fund for Lay Workers, and the Conference shall pay, as the annual premium for each lay worker who is a member of the Fund, 8% of the charge on his salary, less such amount as the Conference shall pay the United States for his Social Security.

ARTICLE VIII

Departments and Affiliated Organizations

1. There shall be a Department of Woman's Work of the Conference.

   (a) The object of this Department shall be to help to promote the entire work of the local church and to further in every way possible the cause of Christ throughout the world. The voting members of this Department shall be the women members of the Conference, together with such other women as may be determined by the rules of the Department. The Chairman, Vice-Chairman of the Department, the District Presidents, the women members of the Board of Trustees and the members of the Business Committee, as provided by the rules of the Department, shall constitute the members of the Executive Committee of the Woman's Department. This Executive Committee shall organize the membership of the Department in whatever manner it may deem needful for the effective carrying on of the Department's work.

   (b) The Department shall provide by its rules for the appointment of a nominating committee. This committee shall annually propose to the nominating committee of the Conference from among its membership a chairman and a vice-chairman of the Department, who shall be ex officiis members of the Board of Trustees of the Conference. It shall also nominate such other officers and committees as the rules of the Department shall require, to be elected by the Department at its annual meeting.

2. There shall be a Department of Laymen's Work of the Conference. It shall be called the Massachusetts Congregational Laymen's Council.

(a) The object of this Department shall be: To inspire higher conceptions of Christian citizenship for the development of democratic society and the world-wide Kingdom of God; to promote a richer fellowship of Congregational laymen through conferences, retreats, and other meetings and to co-operate with laymen of other denominations in significant Christian projects; to encourage organized laymen's groups and classes in all our churches, especially the smaller ones; to rally more men to the support of the church and to train men in worship and leadership in their church and community life.

(b) The Massachusetts Congregational Laymen's Council shall consist of sixty-two members — two from each of the Associations in the State and twenty members-at-large, who shall be elected annually by the State Conference. The Conference Nominating Committee shall receive the names of two members from each Association — or its Laymen's Organization — and the names of twenty members-at-large from the Executive Committee of the Massachusetts Laymen's Council. Should an Association fail to name candidates, the nominations for that Association shall be made by the Executive Committee of the Laymen's Council. The officers of this organization shall be a Chairman, a vice-Chairman, a Secretary and a Treasurer.

3. There shall be a Department of Young People's Work of the Conference.

(a) There shall be a Massachusetts Council of Pilgrim Fellowship, composed of two representatives from each Association, to be named by the Association Pilgrim Fellowship or Congregational Young People's organization of the Association, whatever its name may be, as it or its Executive Committee may determine. If the Congregational young people of any Association are unorganized, the Association Committee on Religious Education may name two delegates to the Massachusetts Council of Pilgrim Fellowship. The Council shall hold its annual meeting in May or at such other time as its Executive Committee may determine. At its annual meeting the Council shall plan the State youth program and elect its officers for the ensuing year

(b) Unless otherwise determined by the Council, the State officers shall be (1) President, (2) four vice-Presidents, (3) Secretary, (4) Editor. The Executive Committee of Pilgrim Fellowship shall consist of (1) the officers, (2) the President of the preceding year, (3) an Adult Advisor to be chosen by the Council with the approval of the State Committee on Religious Education, and (4) one of the Secretaries of Religious Education on the staff of the Massachusetts Congregational Conference, who shall be designated as Executive Secretary of the Massachusetts Pilgrim Fellowship. The President and one of the vice-Presidents to be designated by the Executive Committee shall be ex officiis members of the Board of Trustees of the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society.

ARTICLE IX

Meetings

1. The Conference shall hold its regular annual meeting for the choice of officers, the hearing of reports, the discussion of matters of general interest and the transaction of other business at the appointed place on the third Monday of May, or at such other time in the month of May as the Board of Trustees may deem expedient.

2. Special meetings of the Conference shall be convened at such times and places as may be determined by the Board of Trustees, provided, however, that notice of any special meeting so convened shall, at least one week before the date of the meeting, be sent by mail to each of the churches connected with the Conference, posted in the general office of the Conference and printed in newspapers published in Boston, Worcester and Springfield, respectively.

3. The Moderator or, in his absence, one of the vice-Moderators or, in the absence of all of them some member of the Board of Trustees shall call the Conference to order.

4. At each annual meeting the Conference shall propose to the churches the annual contribution for the expenses of the General Council and for such expenses of the Conference and other purposes, as may be deemed equitable. The Trustees shall at each annual meeting present a recommendation as to the action to be taken at such meeting with reference to the allotment to be made at that meeting, unless the Conference shall have directed at a previous meeting that such recommendation be made by a designated committee.

ARTICLE X

Committees

1. Immediately after the opening of the annual meeting the Moderator shall appoint:

   (a) A Committee on Credentials, to which all credentials shall be referred.

   (b) A Business Committee, the duty of which shall be to prepare and present at each session all matters of business not presented through some other committee of the Conference.

2. The following standing committees shall be elected by viva voce vote:

   (a) A Nominating Committee composed of nine members, consisting of the retiring Moderator of each annual meeting, together with eight other members, of whom at least two shall be ministers, at least two shall be women and at least two shall be laymen. Each year the Board of Trustees, meeting in executive session, shall select four persons whom they shall nominate at the annual meeting of the Conference to be elected to serve for two years. The retiring members shall not be eligible for re-election for at least one year.

   This committee shall nominate all officers and committees whose nominations are not otherwise provided for in these by-laws.

(b) A Program Committee, of which the Secretary of the Conference and the pastor of the church which is to entertain the next annual meeting shall be members ex officiis. At each annual meeting two members shall be elected to serve for three years. This committee shall prepare the program for the next annual meeting and shall select the preacher of the annual sermon and the various speakers at each session.

(c) A Committee on Christian Education. At each annual meeting three members shall be elected to serve for three years. The duty of the Committee shall be to foster religious and missionary education in the churches and in the associations of Massachusetts. This Committee shall give advice and counsel in regard to the organized young people's work of the State. Among its various duties the Committee shall bear responsibility for planning and promoting summer camps and conferences.

(d) A Committee on Social Action, consisting of nine members, of whom three shall be elected at each annual meeting for a term of three years. It shall be the duty of the committee to promote interest in moral and social issues among the churches of the Conference. The committee shall be authorized to present and to support publicly such principles and measures as have been adopted by the Conference.

(e) A Committee on the Ministry consisting of thirty-one members: ten at large, three of whom shall be laymen or lay-women, two of the ten to be elected at each annual meeting for a term of five years; the remaining twenty-one to be composed of the Chairman of each Association Committee on the Ministry. It shall be the duty of this Committee to endeavor to establish and maintain high standards for our Congregational ministry and churches.

The Conference shall maintain a special roll of ministers to which names may have been transferred by the Associations. This special roll shall be in charge of the Conference Committee on the Ministry, and the presence of a name there shall constitute evidence that the man has been duly ordained and has had standing in a Congregational Association; but the Committee shall not issue credentials to a man whose name appears on this roll unless they find in concurrence with the Committee on the Ministry in his Association, that his character and qualifications are satisfactory.

(f) A Committee on Evangelism and Devotional Life, consisting of nine members, of whom three shall be elected at each annual meeting for a term of three years. It shall be the duty of the committee to serve as a cooperating agency of the national Commission on Evangelism and Devotional Life.

(g) A Missionary Committee. Each of the twenty-one Associations shall nominate a member of this Committee who shall represent the missionary committee of the Association. The term of office shall be three years, and the alphabetical list of Associations shall be divided into three groups, and these three groups shall rotate in making their elections.

In addition, there shall be six members-at-large, nominated by the Board of Trustees for a term of one year. Four of these persons shall be members of the Board of Trustees.

There shall also be three ex officiis members, representing the Woman's Department, the Layman's Council, and the Pilgrim Fellowship, respectively.

The Committee shall meet at least twice a year, and an executive committee shall be chosen, to meet as frequently as occasion requires. It shall be the duty of this Committee to advance the interest of the churches in the work of missions at home and abroad.

(h) A Committee on the Town and Country Church, consisting of nine members, of whom three shall be elected at each annual meeting for a term of three years. It shall be the duty of this Committee to co-operate with the national Commission on the Town and Country Church and to offer such practical helps and encouragement as may be possible and welcomed by our churches in the town and country areas.

(i) A Conference Center Committee. The operation and management of the Conference Center (to be known as "Conference Center" or some other name yet to be decided upon) shall be in the hands of a State Conference Committee, to be called the Conference Center Committee, as the agency of the Conference, responsible to the Board of Trustees. This Committee shall consist of thirty members—approximately one-third ministers, one-third laymen, and one-third lay-women—one member from each Association to be nominated annually by the Association, and nine members-at-large, to be nominated by the State Conference Nominating Committee for three-year terms, three to be elected each year —one minister, one layman, one lay-woman.

The Chairman of the Conference Center Committee shall be a member ex officio of the Board of Trustees of the State Conference and shall make a report at each meeting of the Board of Trustees.

The Conference Center Committee shall elect its own officers and sub-committee chairmen and may co-opt such additional persons as may be necessary to the effective functioning of the committees.

No member, elected or appointed, having served a full term of three consecutive years, shall be eligible to succeed himself until after the lapse of one year.

(j) A Committee on Churches and Colleges, consisting of nine members, of whom three shall be elected at each annual meeting for a term of three years. It shall be the duty of this Committee to study the needs and opportunities for developing a stronger religious program among students at the college and university level, especially as it relates to local Congregational Christian Churches; to cooperate with denominational and interdenominational agencies working in this specialized field; and to review requests for conference aid for the support of student projects within Massachusetts.

3. Such other committees as the Conference may vote to constitute shall be elected by viva voce vote at each annual meeting for such terms as the Conference shall determine. The Board of Trustees shall present at each annual meeting a list of the committees the appointment of which it recommends.

4. It shall be the general practice of the Conference, without making it an arbitrary rule, that at least one-third of its committee members be lay-women and one-third laymen.

5. The reports of all committees that are to be presented to the Conference shall be furnished to the Secretary on or before April first of each year, and shall be printed and distributed to the churches not less than two weeks before the annual meeting. These reports shall not be read to the Conference save by special order, but the Program Committee may arrange for the adequate discussion of any or all the topics presented in the reports.

ARTICLE XI

Board of Ministerial Aid

The Board of Ministerial Aid shall be the agent of the Conference in the work of aiding needy ministers and their families and shall make an annual report to the Conference. On notice of a vacancy in the membership of the Board of Ministerial Aid, the Conference shall nominate a person to fill the vacancy.

ARTICLE XII

Boston Seaman's Friend Society

The Boston Seaman's Friend Society shall be the agent of the Conference in the work of promoting the spiritual and temporal welfare of seamen and shall make an annual report to the Conference. The Conference shall annually elect five members of the Society for a term of three years each.

ARTICLE XIII

Board of Pastoral Supply

The Conference shall elect nine members to represent it on the Congregational Board of Pastoral Supply, three members to be elected each year to serve for a period of three years. The Board shall, through its Secretary, make an annual report to the Conference.

ARTICLE XIV

Corporate Seal

The seal of the Conference shall consist of two or more concentric circles, with the words "Massachusetts Congregational Christian Conference" around the circumference between these circles and the words "Inc., 1808" within the inner circle.

ARTICLE XV

Special Orders

1. The place of the next annual meeting shall be recommended each year by the Business Committee and designated by vote of the Conference.

2. All matters of business presented to the Conference, except those presented through duly appointed committees of the Conference, shall be referred to the Business Committee unless referred to some other committee by special vote of the Conference.

3. All matters of business referred to the Business Committee shall be reported for action before the final adjournment of the annual meeting.

4. As far as possible, all business of the Conference shall be completed by noon of the second day of the annual meeting.

ARTICLE XVI

Rules of Order

The Rules of Order shall be those of common parliamentary usage subject to the following specifications:

(a) No member shall speak more than twice on the same question without leave of the Conference.

(b) When a question is before the Conference the Moderator shall entertain motions only as follows: — to adjourn, to table, for the previous question, to postpone to a fixed time, to commit, to amend or to postpone indefinitely; these several motions shall have precedence in the foregoing order.

ARTICLE XVII

Amendments

1. These by-laws, except Articles II and III, may be amended at any regularly called meeting of the Conference by a two-thirds vote, provided the amendment was proposed at the preceding annual meeting of the Conference or is recommended by the Board of Trustees.

2. Articles II and III may be amended by a two-thirds vote, but only after the proposed amendment has been submitted to the Conference in writing at the previous annual meeting and notice has been sent to the several churches connected with the Conference at least three months prior to the meeting at which action is to be taken.

Light, Miss Edith Grant, Miss Isabel Miller, and Rev. Horace G. Robson, Secretary of the Board of Pastoral Supply.

Presenting his annual report, Dr. Coe spoke enthusiastically of the growth of Congregationalism in the state, in numbers and in giving.

Action on recommendations of the Trustees, was as follows:

VOTED: That the Conference allotment assessment for the year 1955–1956 be twenty-eight cents per member; twenty cents for the General Council and eight cents for the conference.

VOTED: That the conference take from the undesignated gifts to Our Christian World Mission an amount sufficient to make the total appropriation to the conference equal to 20% of the total giving to our Christian World Mission, plus 1% for the Boston Seaman's Friend Society.

VOTED: That Miss Pauline Cutler be elected Assistant Treasurer of the conference, her name to be placed in nomination with the executive staff at the annual meeting of the conference.

VOTED: That Article V, section 2 (executive officers) be amended by inserting after the word "treasurer," the words, "Assistant Treasurer" and that Article VI, Section 4 (duties) be amended by adding the following sentence: "The Assistant Treasurer shall perform such duties as may be assigned by the Treasurer, and act in his stead in event of incapacity or absence."

VOTED: That Article V, Section 2 (executive officers) be amended by the insertion after the words, "Minister of Christian Education" of the words, "And Associate in Christian Education."

The Business Committee presented the following resolutions on behalf of the Social Action Committee, which were adopted:

IMMIGRATION

WHEREAS the McCarran-Walter Act enacted in 1953 represents an immigration policy and procedure that is discriminatory and un-American and makes a democratic foreign policy impossible,

Therefore be it RESOLVED that the Massachusetts Congregational Christian Conference urge our representatives in Congress to revise the immigration law in accord with the President's Commission on Immigration and Naturalization submitted January 1, 1953. This report recommends:

1. A unified quota system allocating visas without regard to race, creed, or color, but based on the right of asylum, the reunion of families, vocational skills needed in the United States and emergency resettlement needs.

2. A maximum annual quota of ⅙ of 1% of nationality groups determined by the most recent census.

3. A completely new law to provide fair hearings and procedures concerning admissions, deportations and the acquisition or retention of citizenship.

SURPLUS FOOD

Inasmuch as the quantity of surplus food in the United States has now reached its highest total of over six billion dollars in value while many millions of the people of the world are underfed and in many cases sick and starving from malnutrition,

Be it RESOLVED that we urge our churches to support our Relief and Reconstruction Program in the distribution of surplus food through Church World Service, Care and Share our Surplus organizations, and that we urge our representatives in Washington to develop and support supplementary programs for the distribution of surplus commodities.

MENTAL ILLNESS

WHEREAS recent national statistics show that at least ten million Americans are now suffering from some form of mental illness and that nearly three-quarters of a million people are under care in our nation's mental hospitals, involving costs of more than a billion dollars a year from tax funds, and

WHEREAS here in Massachusetts over 31,000 persons are hospitalized because of some form of mental illness — more people than are hospitalized for all other kinds of illness combined, and

WHEREAS in spite of an ambitious building program our mental hospitals are still greatly over-crowded and under-staffed, with out-patient clinics developing long waiting lists, and

WHEREAS present needs relative to mental illness include: research into the causes and the prevention of mental illness, improved treatment facilities, more professionally trained personnel, and greater public awareness of the factors that influence good mental health, Therefore be it RESOLVED that we urge upon our ministers and churches continued cooperation with the educational program of the Massachusetts Council of Churches concerning an adequate ministry to the people in our mental institutions, and

Be it further RESOLVED that we urge our church people to support generously the $5,000,000 fund being raised nationally for additional scientific research relative to mental illness.

On motion from the floor, it was voted that action on all resolutions be by standing vote.

Reporting further for the Social Action Committee, the Business Committee presented the following resolutions, which were adopted:

DESEGREGATION

We rejoice in the substantial progress that has been made in recent years, especially since the United States Supreme Court decision of May 17, 1954, toward the desegregation of the Negro in American communities.

Especially encouraging have been the positive and forward steps taken by southern colleges, universities, church groups and social agencies interested in inter-group relations. Southern newspapers have helped greatly to prevent the development of hysteria in some critical situations.

It is obvious that it will take some time to bring an end to segregation. We appreciate the wisdom of the Supreme Court decision which allows time for the accomplishment of this end. However, we believe there is a latent danger in the philosophy of gradualism as it is being applied to the desegregation problem. It is quite possible that much of the moral value of the Supreme Court decision may be nullified and lost if too much time is consumed in making the adjustments necessary to bring about the full integration of Negroes in community life.

We believe that more concern must be given to the patterns of living in our northern cities where unwritten restrictive covenants and realtors' agreements often make it difficult for Negroes and other minority groups to own property, and to the inclusion in our churches of all racial and cultural groups represented in their communities.

Therefore be it RESOLVED that we urge our ministers and churches to help fulfill the purpose of the Supreme Court decision by doing everything possible to develop non-segregated churches in non-segregated communities.

CHRISTIAN VOCATION

WHEREAS the growing emphasis on the function of the laity is not merely a means to supplement an overburdened, ordained ministry but springs from the rediscovery of the true nature of the church as the "people of God," and

WHEREAS only by the witness of a spiritually and intelligently active laity can the church meet the modern world in its actual perplexities and life situations,

Be it therefore RESOLVED that the Massachusetts Congregational Christian Conference strengthen its efforts to help its ministers and churches to recognize that the real battles of faith are being fought "in factories, shops, offices, on farms, radio and television and in the relationship of nations."

Be it further RESOLVED that the church should be concerned in all of these spheres and that it should encourage its people to study such documents as the report of section 6 on the laity, "The Christian and His Vocation," of the Second Assembly of the World Council of Churches and take appropriate steps to make the ministry of the laity articulate, visible and active in the world.

President Charles W. Cole of Amherst College spoke interestingly and informatively on "Religion and the Colleges."

The session closed at noon with a hymn and prayer by the Chaplain.

TUESDAY AFTERNOON

The Conference luncheon was served at 12:15 P.M. in Fitchburg City Hall. Prayer was offered by Rev. Clarence W. Fuller of Melrose. With Dr. Coe presiding, a panel discussion was conducted on "What Is the Work of the Church?" Other participants were Rev. Robert E. Burtt of Wellesley, Rev. Myron W. Fowell, Rev. Clarence W. Fuller of Melrose, Rev. Paul B. Myers, Rev. Edmund W. Nutting, Wakefield.

The conference reconvened in Rollstone Church at 2:15, with a hymn and a prayer led by Rev. William J. Hamilton, Jr.

An address, "The Family and the Kingdom," was given by Dr. Elton Trueblood of Washington, D.C., Chief of Religious Information, United States Information Agency.

The Business Committee introduced the following resolutions, which were adopted:

Be it RESOLVED that the Massachusetts Conference of Congregational Christian Churches give its enthusiastic support to the current program of the Massachusetts Council of Churches in which it seeks to raise an emergency budget over and above its regular budget enabling this group of which we are an important part to enlarge the unified presentation of the Gospel of Jesus Christ in our Commonwealth through more and better radio and television service, more adequate public relations, and more efficient and forceful promotion of Christian leadership.

WORLD AFFAIRS

WHEREAS our national policy and program of desegregation has been regarded with favor throughout the world, and

WHEREAS the Point Four and the Technical Assistance programs of our government have given new hope to many backward nations, and

WHEREAS the United States has embarked upon a plan for sharing atomic materials and skills with other nations for the purpose of improved health and higher standards of living, Therefore be it RESOLVED that we urge our church people to support these national programs, that we request our legislators to develop and support a foreign policy which will give encouragement to native movements of social and economic reform and that will strengthen the many agencies of the United Nations working toward world peace.

REFUGEES

WHEREAS our churches have provided 35 assurances for refugees during the past year as compared to the quota of 75 accepted by our Social Action Committee and endorsed by last year's annual meeting, and

WHEREAS the great improvement in the economy of Western Germany has enabled many more of the German escapees and expellees to make permanent resettlement in Western Germany than was considered possible when the Refugee Act of 1953 was passed, and

WHEREAS the great remaining needs in this humanitarian project are among people in the following four categories:

1. Families of mixed marriage (Protestant — Catholic), (Christian — Jewish), (Christian — Mohammedan).
2. Individuals and families of the Greek, Russian or Albanian Orthodox faith.
3. Single men from Balkan Countries.
4. Orientals (5,000 in number, mostly in Hong Kong).

Therefore be it RESOLVED that we urge our churches to offer as speedily as possible the forty additional assurances needed to complete our quota and to relate them as much as possible to the refugees in the categories of greatest need.

A resolution on Constitutional Rights and Liberties was returned to the Business Committee for further study and report at a later session.

A resolution on Alcohol was adopted as follows:

ALCOHOL

WHEREAS there are now four million alcoholics and three million additional problem drinkers in this country, and

Because alcohol is a major contributing cause of divorce, delinquency, highway accidents and economic loss, and

WHEREAS our churches are indifferent to this critical problem, and

WHEREAS more stringent laws and more effective enforcement is necessary,

Therefore be it RESOLVED that we call upon our ministers and churches to promote actively education concerning the destructive effects of alcohol on the individual and society; to cooperate with other interested groups in the establishment of more clinics for the treatment of problems related to alcohol and urge our legislators (state and national) to recognize this growing problem and to develop remedial measures to deal with it.

A resolution on Delinquency and Crime was referred back to the committee for further study and report at a later session.

Action on a resolution on the International Christian University was deferred until copies were made available.

The Business Committee reported a resolution from the Committee on Christian Education, which was adopted as follows:

WHEREAS the public school is basic in our democracy with its freedom to study, learn and believe:

Be it therefore RESOLVED that our churches be alert to any force or forces which tend to encroach upon that freedom;

Be it further RESOLVED that we support the public school by being aware of its problems in our particular communities, and

Be it further RESOLVED that the proper means be found through which the Congregational conscience may use its influence to strengthen this basis institution in our democratic way of life.

A resolution from the Social Action Committee, presented through the Business Committee, on Universal Military Training was discussed at length and adopted, as follows:

WHEREAS the National Council of Churches has declared:

"We believe it is one thing to acknowledge the necessity of drafting men for a limited period to meet a specific international emergency. It is another, and quite different thing for the churches to support the conscription of each succeeding generation of the nation's youth for a program of universal military training. It is not in accord with our heritage as a free nation under God, permanently to recruit our youth under the banners of the military. To do this would be to take a long step in the direction of the garrison state."

(General Board of the NCC, New York, January 30, 1952)

And WHEREAS the Massachusetts Council of Churches has recently reaffirmed its position in opposition to the adoption of UMT in peacetime, at its State Conference at Worcester, Nov. 15, 1954, and

WHEREAS many other religious bodies have taken a similar stand against this system, and

WHEREAS the Bill now before Congress, H.R. 5297, known as the Compulsory Reserve-UMT Bill, provides for a system of UMT in connection with the plans for the reserve system, and embodies many of the evils of permanent military conscription,

Be it RESOLVED that we oppose this plan to adopt UMT as a permanent measure in our American life, and urge our ministers and lay members to make their convictions known to their Senators and Representatives in Congress, and that copies of this resolution be sent by telegraph to all Representatives in Congress from Massachusetts.

The Business Committee presented a resolution from the Education for Union Committee of the Board of Trustees and also a substitute resolution offered by the Continuation Committee. Action on these was postponed to the Wednesday morning session.

The meeting adjourned at 4:30.

TUESDAY EVENING

A Fellowship Dinner was served in the City Hall at 6:00 o'clock, Mr. Julian Steele presiding.

Prayer was offered by the Chaplain.

Mr. Willard I. Shattuck, Jr., Assistant City Solicitor, brought greetings on behalf of the Mayor of Fitchburg. Dr. Coe responded.

The following ministers, in the fiftieth year of their ordination, were given recognition by Rev. Myron W. Fowell, and Rev. Horace F. Holton responded for the group: Rev. Silas W. Anthony, Braintree Highlands: Rev. Osmond J. Billings, Amherst; Dr. Fred Field Goodsell, Waban; Rev. William R. Hamlin, Bay Head, New Jersey; Dr. Horace F. Holton, Wellesley; Rev. Henry Francis Smith, Winchester; Rev. Henry W. Smith, Lee; Rev. John F. Snyder, East Orange, New Jersey.

Rev. John L. Lobingier spoke on "This Matter of Retirement."

The meeting reconvened at 8:00 o'clock in Rollstone Church, with a Worship Service conducted by the Chaplain. Anthems by a combined mixed chorus, representing the host churches, were offered, with Mrs. Marjorie Marshall Field as organist and Choir Director.

An offering for the Board of Ministerial Relief was received, amounting to $352.

Mrs. Sara F. Corman of Pittsburgh, Pa., a leader in the Evangelical and Reformed Church, spoke on "Out of His Fullness — Gifted Men."

The Chaplain led in a closing hymn and benediction.

WEDNESDAY MORNING

This session began with a Communion Service at 8:30 A.M., conducted by Dr. Coe. Rev. Ray A. Eusden of Newton gave the meditation, and members of the Conference Staff served as deacons.

At the opening of the business session, Rev. Robert W. Little, Chairman, presented the report of the Nominating Committee. The printed ballot for Conference Officers and Staff was passed and resulted in election of those names by 238 votes. Mimeographed copies of other nominations were distributed and it was voted that all names on the list, together with such as shall be later nominated by Associations to complete the list, be placed in nomination. The vote resulted in the unanimous election of those so named. See pages 16–26.

Mrs. Myron W. Bemis spoke briefly on behalf of ADVANCE. The Business Committee then introduced a resolution from the Education for Union Committee, as follows:

RESOLVED that the Massachusetts Congregational Christian Conference, at its annual meeting at Fitchburg, May 16–18, 1955, reaffirms its action in previous years approving the proposed union of the Congregational Christian Churches and the Evangelical and Reformed Church, and now approves the action of the Executive Committee of the General Council taken at Cleveland, Ohio last October, which calls for the consummation of this union at a convening General Synod in 1957.

After those for and against had been given equal opportunity for discussion, the resolution was adopted by a vote of 317 in favor, 23 against, and 1 abstention.

The Business Committee then introduced the following resolutions, which were unanimously and enthusiastically adopted:

EXPRESSION OF GRATITUDE

WHEREAS the Congregational Christian Conference recognizes the many hours of careful planning involved to make this, our 156th Annual Meeting, significant in the life of our Churches, and

WHEREAS we have jointly and severally benefitted by these preparations and now desire to express our deep appreciation, be it

RESOLVED that we extend a sincere expression of thanks

1. To the people of the Host Churches: Rollstone Congregational, Calvinistic Congregational, The Finnish Congregational and Trinity Congregational; to their Ministers: Rev. Paul J. Bowman, Rev. Robert N. Foster, Rev. William A. Sumner and Rev. Murray F. Sleeper; to the joint committees on hospitality and arrangements, under the chairmanship of Mrs. Arthur W. Nugent and Mrs. Edwin W. Clark; and for the excellent music of Mrs. Marjorie Marshall Field and the mixed chorus
2. To the many homes which were opened to us for our entertainment
3. To the members of the press who have given adequate news coverage to the meetings of the Conference
4. To Mr. Willard I. Shattuck, Jr., Assistant City Solicitor of Fitchburg, and through him, to the responsible Officers of the City whom he represents; and to the Police Department for their cooperation in making parking facilities available and for their kind and courteous help.

And be it further RESOLVED that we gratefully acknowledge our indebtedness to our Chaplain, the Rev. Raymond E. Gibson for the spirit of our corporate worship

That we express our sense of indebtedness to our Moderator, Mr. Julian D. Steele, for his time and energy, his efficient and good-humored leadership, and for his demonstration of a layman's concern for the Church

And to our Minister and President, Dr. Albert Buckner Coe, we would express our continuing appreciation for his unique combination of humility and courage, for his constant concern for the spiritual and material well-being of his fellow ministers, and for the "reflected glory" conferred upon our Conference through his leadership of the General Council

WHEREAS Dr. Douglas Horton has announced his resignation as Minister of the General Council, and

WHEREAS in entering his new duties as Dean of Harvard Divinity School, he will reside in Massachusetts

Therefore be it RESOLVED that we express the appreciation of our Conference for his leadership of the General Council throughout this vital period in the life of our Churches, and that we express to him our warm welcome as we anticipate his fellowship with us here in the years ahead.

An address: "Toward a Better Witnessing Church," was given by the Rev. Fred S. Buschmeyer, Associate Minister of the General Council of the Congregational Christian Churches.

WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON

Three simultaneous luncheons were held:

MISSIONARY LUNCHEON in the Calvinistic Church, Rev. Roland W. Nye, Wollaston, Chairman. Dr. Lavinia Scott, principal of Inanda Seminary, spoke on "Our Stake in a Changing South Africa."

CHURCHES AND COLLEGES LUNCHEON in Trinity Church, Mr. Stephen W. Grant, Wellesley, Chairman. A panel presentation, "Our Ministry to College Students in Massachusetts," was given by Rev Chalmers Coe, Boston, Rev. Leonard G. Clough, Cambridge, Chaplain William A. Overholt of Boston University and Chaplain Albert L. Seely of the University of Massachusetts.

TOWN AND COUNTRY LUNCHEON in the Finnish Congregational Church, Rev. Walter R. Kraft, Dover, Chairman. Rev. Kenneth D. Beckwith gave a report from the field. "The Time of Day in Town and Country Work" was the subject of an address by Rev. Charles N. Forsberg of the Massachusetts Baptist Convention.

The afternoon session was opened with hymn and prayer, led by the Chaplain.

The First Church in Williamstown extended a cordial invitation for the Annual Meeting in 1956. A resolution was passed as follows:

WHEREAS the American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions was founded by six Williams College students who met and prayed under a haystack in Williamstown, Mass. in the summer of 1806, and

WHEREAS next year will be the 150th anniversary of this great event, and

WHEREAS the facilities of Williams College are wonderfully adequate and available — and the scenery of the Berkshires incomparable — (and our new moderator living close by),

Be it RESOLVED that the 157th Annual Meeting of the Massachusetts Conference of Congregational Christian Churches be held in Williamstown, Mass. at a date mutually acceptable by the College and the Conference.

The Business Committee reported a resolution from the Social Action Committee on Constitutional Rights and Liberties, and it was adopted as follows:

CONSTITUTIONAL RIGHTS AND LIBERTIES

WHEREAS as Christians we believe in the equality of all men before God, and as Americans we believe in the equality of all men before the law, and

WHEREAS in recent years we have seen numerous instances of the invasion of constitutional rights destroying the equality of men before the law,

Therefore be it RESOLVED that this Conference deplores intimidation, careless accusations, abuse of political power, release of unevaluated information in committee files, malicious slander, premature assumption of guilt and the judgment of people on basis of association rather than character and conduct.

Therefore be it RESOLVED that this Conference urge the members of its churches to protest the irresponsible use of uncorroborated evidence in Congressional inquiries and insists that witnesses be allowed to know and face their accusers and have the right of counsel.

A telegram, conveying the greetings of the Protestant Episcopal Convention, meeting at Springfield, were received, and the Secretary of the Conference was instructed to send suitable greetings to that body on our behalf.

Dr. Albert Terrill Rasmussen of Colgate-Rochester Divinity School spoke on "Shared Witness for Christ."

The Registration Committee reported as follows:

Delegates.......	364
Ministers.......	316
Guests.........	632
Total......	1312

Number of Churches represented 342

This report was adopted subject to any later corrections.

The new Moderator, Rev. Victor B. Chicoine, was introduced by the retiring Moderator, and spoke briefly, dedicating himself to the service of the churches.

The Conference adjourned with a hymn and the following prayer by the Chaplain:

O God, Our Help in Ages Past

O Thou who art the source of all that is good, all that is holy, to Thee be glory and praise, power and dominion.

We thank Thee for the guidance of Thy Holy Spirit, for every glimpse that we have had of Thy purpose, for every call that has challenged us to nobler things, for every warning that would caution us against evil, for every prompting that would turn us to the gospel of Thy Son Jesus Christ.

We thank Thee for the blessings of these days together, for sharing, for encouragement, for the building up in us of the holy things of the church, for work and worship, for inspiration and insight, for the call to action.

Help each of us to return to his home in safety, and in the coming days to be used of Thee more worthily for having shared in this experience.

Guide and uphold the officers and leaders of this conference during the coming year. Cause to prosper the Cause of Christ in all our member churches, strengthen Thy ministers, whom Thou hast set to be pastors over Thy flock, that with righteousness, faith and devotion they may lead Thy people in all godliness and truth.

Give unto the laity, who are Thy ministers too, the grace to witness to the faith.

Endue us all with zeal and love, both for Thy Son and for the Gospel, that many may be turned to righteousness, and that we may at last obtain the crown of everlasting joy.

Guide us by Thy wisdom, uphold us by Thy power, surround us by Thy mercy, keep us in Thy truth, lead us in Thy righteousness, redeem us in Thy love . . . Through Thy Son, our Savior, Jesus Christ, our Lord

Now unto him that is able to keep us from falling, and to present us before the presence of His glory with exceeding joy, to the only wise God, our Saviour, be glory and majesty, dominion and power, now and forever.

The grace of our Lord, Jesus Christ, be with us all. Amen.

THE REVEREND ALBERT BUCKNER COE, D.D., President
BOSTON, MASSACHUSETTS

We have examined the balance sheets of Massachusetts Congregational Christian Conference and of Massachusetts Congregational Christian Conference, Trustee, as at March 31, 1955, and the related statements of income for the year ended at that date. Our examination was made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, and accordingly included such tests of the accounting records and such other auditing procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances.

The securities representing the invested funds at March 31, 1955, were verified by inspection or confirmation, and the cash in banks and in office by certificate or count.

In our opinion, the accompanying balance sheets and related statements of income present fairly the financial position of the Conference and of the Conference as Trustee, respectively, at March 31, 1955, and the results of their operations for the year ended at that date, in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles applied on a basis consistent with that of the preceding year.

ALLOTMENT ACCOUNT

In 1927 the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and the Massachusetts Home Missionary Society were united in a single corporation. Previous to that time, the National Council of Congregational Churches and the Conference had paid their expenses for meetings and administration by thirteen cents collected for each church member. It seems right that the Conference part of our organization should still pay its own charges. Twenty-eight cents per member is asked this year of the Churches. Twenty cents of the twenty-eight goes to the General Council (formerly The National Council) and eight cents is kept by the Conference. The collection of the eight cents per member is the attempt of the Conference part of our organization to pay its expenses and not to become a charge upon missionary funds.

BEQUESTS

Bequests to the Massachusetts Congregational Christian Conference are used to aid weak churches and to promote the work and interests of the Conference in the State. Bequests may be made permanent funds by the donor, and the Conference restricted to the use of the income only. The practice of the Conference is to divide unrestricted legacies into three equal parts. One part is used for current work, one part is added to the Permanent Legacy Fund, the income only of which is used for general purposes; and the third part is added to a Contingent Fund, the principal of which may be drawn upon to care for special undertakings or to avoid a deficit.

If, on the other hand, a testator specifies that his entire legacy is to be expended as current income and that he does not wish it invested in whole or in part, these directions will be carefully observed.

Bequests to the Massachusetts Congregational Christian Conference pay no Massachusetts inheritance tax.

GRANTS FROM THE MASSACHUSETTS CONGREGATIONAL CHRISTIAN CONFERENCE

Grants for the aid of churches and certain other types of work are made by the Conference through the Board of Trustees, following recommendation by the Grants Committee of the Board of Trustees.

The Grants Committee considers applications for grants to local churches (to strengthen the ministry of the church); to hospital chaplaincies; to week-day religious education programs in certain churches; to St. Mark Social Center; to other interdenominational projects in Massachusetts; to Hospitality House at Ayer (Fort Devens), and other work as need arises. In co-operation with the Churches and Colleges Committee it also receives applications for grants for student work both on campus and in churches near campuses.

Requests for grants come to the committee through the member of the conference executive staff who is particularly concerned either with the area or the type of work.

Grants to local churches are made under the following circumstances:

1. Where a community is too far from a church to benefit from its privileges, the Conference encourages the establishment of regular religious services, and, if possible, the organization of a church, or a branch of a neighboring church.

2. Applications by any church for financial aid should be made by the vote of the church, and upon forms furnished by the Conference, and should have the approval of the Advisory or Grants Committee of the local Association of Churches.

3. Churches applying for aid should show that they have met in full all financial obligations to their ministers and are doing their utmost toward self-support.

4. In granting aid different amounts will be appropriated according to the necessity, importance, and prospects of each field.

5. Every church aided by the Conference should consult the Area Minister or President before making arrangements for pastoral service.

6. When the service of the minister or other worker, for whose support an appropriation is made, shall terminate, the appropriation shall lapse, except for special reasons satisfactory to the President.

The Conference advocates adequate compensation for every minister and worker.

The Conference favors hearty co-operation with other denominations, the avoidance of overlapping and competing work, and the consolidation or federation of churches of different denominations in over-churched communities.

We are indicating in this copy of the Minutes the churches that received Conference grants in the year 1954–1955 by placing the reference "§" before the names of these churches in the section of the Minutes entitled "Associations of Churches and Ministerial Standing." In cases where the grant was discontinued during the year the letter "d" appears. Where the pastor's service ended during the year, the reference "†" appears. Special grants are listed on page 57.

STATISTICAL TABLES

EXPLANATORY

The tables which follow comprise:

1. The statistics of the churches, giving the ministers, church membership, additions, removals, Sunday school membership, and the amount of benevolences and expenses. These tables, in accordance with the vote of the Conference in 1887, are made to conform to those in the Year Book;
2. The Associations of the churches, with the names of officers;
3. The Ministerial Standing, giving the date of ordination of each minister, the date of membership in the Association, the residence and his "employment";
4. The Ministerial Record, containing lists of ordinations and deaths.

The tables of the first part contain the names of all the Congregational churches in Massachusetts, the towns and cities being arranged alphabetically. In cases where the post office name of the church and the town differ, heavy type indicates the postal address (or in some cases, the political township), and a cross reference on the page where the post office name would naturally be found will direct the reader to the town name.

Church members are reported as numbered January 1, 1955. Admissions and removals cover the year 1954. "Sunday school" includes total membership of officers, teachers and scholars January 1, 1955, or when the school is in operation (if not at that date), covering "branch schools", "mission schools" and "home departments" so far as maintained by the reporting church.

The months and days in the dates of the organization of churches are omitted. They will be found in the publications of 1873, those of churches since organized being given in the "Minutes" of each year. Months and days in the dates of ordination of Congregational ministers may be found in the lists of the local Associations which follow the tables.

Abbreviations in schedule headings are:

"Ord." — Ordained	"Ab." — Absentee
"Cld." — Called	"C." — Confession
"To." or "T." — Total	"D." — Death
	"L." — Letter

Reference marks are used as follows:

[] Around a pastor's name signify he is not in full standing as a Congregational Christian minister, nor a denominational licentiate, nor an approved lay preacher, nor a candidate in care of a local association.

y Pastor serves more than one church.	x Includes cost of new building or improvements.
i Pastor installed by Council.	—No answer can be given.
r Pastor recognized by Council.	* Value of church property includes parsonage.
	★ Per Capita paid in full by church.

|| When a church has made no report, items of membership in church, Sunday School and young people's organizations, also home expense and value of property, are inserted from the previous Year Book and marked || in the first column of the statistical report. This is done that these items may be included in the summaries and comparative tables, thus minimizing the danger of falsifying the comparisons.

Under church "Members" the number "Absent" are included in the "Total." Amount of "Home Expenses" includes all salaries, together with missionary aid received, operating expenses and repairs for church, Sunday School, choir and parish. An x before "Value Church Property" denotes expenditures for new buildings or improvements during the year. The total expended is given at the end of the Conference schedule.

In reporting the statistics of federated churches, figures given pertaining to membership and gifts on the apportionment are for the Congregational church within the federated church. Figures pertaining to average attendance, Church School enrollment, membership in young people's organizations, contributions to home expenses are usually for all the churches grouped together in the federated church.

CONDITIONAL GIFTS

The Conference receives conditional gifts, subject to annuity agreements with the donors, and encourages this method for those who wish any part of their property to be applied to our work after their death, and desire an assured income from their property for themselves, or for others whom they may designate as beneficiaries, as long as they live. Correspondence with the Treasurer concerning such annuity agreements is invited.

TRUST FUNDS

The Massachusetts Congregational Fund, organized during the year 1945 under the auspices of the Conference, is now administering trust funds of Congregational churches and organizations in Massachusetts aggregating $6,600,000, including the funds of the Conference.

It is not an easy matter for church or parish committees, often made up of those without broad experience in investment matters, to guard the safety of church trust funds. We welcome inquiries from Congregational churches in Massachusetts relative to caring for their trust or endowment funds.

HISTORICAL SKETCH

The Massachusetts Missionary Society was organized on May 29, 1799, in Boston. There were thirty-eight charter members, mainly followers of the theology of Samuel Hopkins. They were "impelled by a deep commiseration for the unhappy state of those who were perishing for lack of those precious means of salvation which we enjoy." Their intention was to spread "the knowledge of the glorious Gospel of Christ among the poor Heathens and in those remote parts of our country in which the inhabitants had not enjoyed the benefits of a Christian ministry and Christian ordinances," i.e., outside Massachusetts. Nathaniel Emmons, fifty-four years pastor at Franklin, was the first president.

Origin of Domestic Missionary Society

In 1827 the Massachusetts Missionary Society and the Domestic Missionary Society of Massachusetts Proper (which had come into being in 1818 to "see every parish in the State well supplied with a faithful Minister of Christ"), were united under the name of the Massachusetts Missionary Society. This meant that while the Domestic Missionary Society of Massachusetts Proper lost its name, the Massachusetts Missionary Society was henceforth to work almost exclusively in Massachusetts.

The Massachusetts Missionary Society became the Massachusetts "Home" Missionary Society in 1844. This was simply to emphasize that the work of the Society had become exclusively for America and for the Massachusetts part of America.

Origin of Massachusetts Conference

The Massachusetts Home Missionary Society and the Massachusetts Congregational Conference were united under the name of the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society in 1927. This was the result of twenty-seven years' agitation, accelerated by a recommendation of the National Council in 1907. The charter of the Massachusetts Home Missionary Society was used as the basis for the union of the two organizations. In 1953 the name was changed to Massachusetts Congregational Christian Conference. The Conference assumes responsibility for all Congregational missionary work done in Massachusetts. It supports a staff of eleven persons who give ministerial and executive leadership to a broad program of work designed to help the churches, to develop the fellowship of the ministers and churches, and to cultivate practical support for denominational and interdenominational projects and programs.

BY-LAWS OF THE MASSACHUSETTS CONGREGATIONAL CHRISTIAN CONFERENCE

ARTICLE I

Terminology

Whenever in these by-laws the word "Conference" is used it shall be held to refer to the Massachusetts Congregational Christian Conference.

Denominational Basis

Following Congregational principles, this Conference shall under no circumstances exercise authority over churches or individuals or interfere with the government or discipline of the churches. It shall advise and counsel the churches when requested, but it is recognized that each church has the power of self-determination in all matters.

ARTICLE III

Doctrinal Basis

This Conference declares its steadfast allegiance to the faith which our fathers confessed, which, from age to age, has found its expression in the historic creeds of the Church Universal and of this Communion.

ARTICLE IV

Membership

Voting Members. Every Church or Congregation which is or shall become a member of a Congregational or a Congregational Christian Association of Churches in Massachusetts may annually choose two delegates (of whom it is suggested one shall be a layman and the other a laywoman) and these delegates, together with the pastor or pastors of each church (who shall be members ex officiis), the officers of the Conference (including the members of the Board of Trustees and any person who shall have been elected an Officer Emeritus), the committee members of the Conference and those persons who, prior to May 22, 1923, became life members of the Massachusetts Home Missionary Society, shall constitute the voting membership of the Conference; provided, however, that pastors shall have the privileges of honorary members only unless they shall have membership in Congregational Christian Associations regularly holding ministerial standing.

Honorary Members. Delegates from corresponding bodies and persons appointed to speak before the Conference, together with all persons heretofore constituted honorary members of the Massachusetts Home Missionary Society, such persons as may be made honorary members by a vote of the Board of Trustees, and such other persons as the Conference may from time to time vote to admit, shall be honorary members of the Conference, with the privilege of speaking, but without vote.

ARTICLE V

Officers

1. There shall be a Moderator, one or more vice-Moderators, a Recording Secretary, a President and a vice-President of the Massachusetts Fellowship of Congregational Christian Women (See Article VIII, Sec. 1, (b)), a President and vice-President of the Massachusetts Congregational Laymen's Council (See Article VIII, Sec. 2, (b)), all of whom shall be nominated by the Nominating Committee hereinafter provided for, and elected by ballot at each annual meeting of the Conference for a term of one year and until their respective successors are chosen.

2. The executive officers of the Conference shall be a President, a Secretary, a Treasurer, an Assistant Treasurer, Field Secretaries, a Director of Woman's Work, a Minister of Missions and Stewardship, and a Minister of Christian Education and Associate in Christian Education. These officers shall constitute the Executive Staff. They shall be nominated by the Board of Trustees meeting in executive session, and elected by ballot at each annual meeting of the Conference for a term of one year and until their respective successors are chosen. They shall bear such additional titles as the Conference or the Board of Trustees may determine.

3. The Conference shall elect by ballot a Board of Trustees consisting of one member from each Association of churches, and six members-at-large who shall be known for their special knowledge of financial affairs, of whom one shall be chosen each even-numbered year and two, — beginning with the year 1935, — each odd-numbered year. The President and vice-President of the Massachusetts Fellowship of Congregational Christian Women, the President and vice-President of the Massachusetts Laymen's Council, the President of the Massachusetts Pilgrim Fellowship and one other officer (nominated by its executive committee), the Chairman of the Congregational Center Committee, the Moderator and the vice-Moderators, shall also be members ex officiis. One-third of the representatives of the Associations upon the Board shall be ministers, one-third laymen, and one-third laywomen as nearly as may be. Nine members shall constitute a quorum. The term of office shall be four years, and no member having served a full term shall be eligible for re-election until after one year, but members-at-large, chosen for their knowledge of financial affairs, may serve for two consecutive terms. The present Trustees shall remain in office until the expiration of their terms.

The Conference shall from time to time designate the Associations from which Trustees are to be chosen in the successive years and determine whether the Trustee to be chosen from a particular Association in any year shall be a minister, a layman, or a laywoman.

Each Association shall be notified by the Secretary of the Conference on or before September 15 when it is its turn to propose to the nominating committee a candidate for membership upon the Board, and whether such candidate should be a minister, a layman or a laywoman, and the names of such candidates shall be reported to the Secretary before April 1, of each year. The Secretary upon the receipt of these names shall communicate them to the nominating committee on or before April 10. In case any Association fails to propose a candidate the Board of Trustees shall perform this duty. This method of choosing Trustees shall commence at the close of the 1933 Conference.

At its first meeting after each annual meeting of the Conference the Board shall choose one of its members to serve as chairman for the ensuing year. Except as otherwise provided in the charter of the Conference or in these by-laws, the Board shall administer and dispose of the property of the Conference and shall manage all its business and affairs, and all officers and agents of the Conference shall act under its direction. The Board shall cause the accounts of the Treasurer to be audited at least once each year by certified public accountants selected by the Board. Without restricting the generality of the foregoing, the Board shall in particular have the following powers:

(a) To choose a Clerk, to appoint its own meetings and form its own rules of business, to appoint sub-committees and to delegate any of its powers to such committees.

(b) To appoint and, at pleasure, remove all agents of the Conference and to define their duties.

(c) To fill any vacancy in any office of the Conference (including vacancies in the membership of the Board) until the vacancy shall be filled at a succeeding meeting of the Conference.

(d) To remove any officer of the Conference (other than members of the Board) who may be guilty of disregard of his duties or of such conduct as shall be seriously prejudicial to the interests of the Conference.

(e) To direct efforts to promote missionary interest and giving among the Congregational churches of the Commonwealth.

4. The terms of all officers, save when chosen to fill vacancies, shall begin at the close of the meeting at which they are elected.

ARTICLE VI

Duties of Officers

1. The Moderator, or in his absence, one of the vice-Moderators, shall preside over all meetings of the Conference.

2. The President shall be the chief executive officer of the Conference and shall, subject to the direction of the Conference and of its Board of Trustees, have general charge of its missionary and benevolent work and of its other activities. He shall be a member ex officio of all standing committees named in the by-laws with the exception of the nominating committee. He shall have the power to delegate to members of the Staff the authority to represent him upon any of the said standing committees. He shall be the representative of the Conference and of its Board of Trustees among all the churches (both those financially independent and those aided by the funds of the Conference) and in all denominational and interdenominational gatherings (including meetings of state Superintendents) unless representation is otherwise provided. He may seek to assist pastors and churches with fraternal counsel. He shall keep informed as to opportunities for extension work through founding new churches or strengthening old ones and shall recommend to the Conference and to the Board of Trustees measures for meeting such opportunities.

3. The Secretary shall keep the records of the Conference, except as hereinafter provided, and shall assist in its general work under the direction of the President. He shall devote himself in co-operation with the Field Secretaries and under the direction of the President, to counseling with and assisting the churches in the area assigned to him, and shall perform such other duties as may be assigned to him by the Board of Trustees or the President. He shall have the custody of the records and of all bonds given by the treasurer as hereinafter provided. He shall furnish copies of the record certified under the seal of the Conference (which shall be in his keeping) to such persons as may be entitled thereto.

The Secretary shall collect and publish in connection with the annual Report of the Conference the statistics of ministers and churches and make up the official roll of the ministers and churches in accordance with the usages of the denomination. He shall present to the Conference at its annual meeting a general statistical statement of the progress of religion in the churches for the past calendar year. He shall give suitable notice to the churches of the time and place of each annual meeting, notify officers and committees of their election or appointment and fulfill such other functions as the Conference or the Board of Trustees may from time to time direct.

4. The Treasurer shall receive and hold the property of the Conference subject to the direction of the Board of Trustees and shall keep particular accounts of the Conference's funds and of the disposal thereof. He shall, under the direction of the President, assist, so far as he may be able, in the general work of the Conference and shall perform such other duties as may be assigned to him by the Board of Trustees. He shall make a report at each annual meeting of the Conference and shall make such other reports as the Conference or the Board of Trustees may from time to time require. He shall receive all contributions for benevolences sent to him by the churches and by individuals and shall disburse the same in accordance with the instructions of the donors. He shall give such bonds for the faithful performance of his duties as may from time to time be required by the Board of Trustees. The Assistant Treasurer shall perform such duties as may be assigned by the Treasurer, and act in his stead in event of incapacity or absence.

5. The Field Secretaries shall counsel with and assist the churches in the area which may from time to time be assigned to them by the Board of Trustees or the President.

6. The Minister of Missions and Stewardship shall have the duty of advancing the interest of the churches in the work of missions at home and abroad. He shall, under the direction of the President, assist, so far as he may be able, in the general work of the Conference.

7. The Director of Woman's Work shall have special charge of promoting missionary interests and all other activities among the women of the Congregational churches of the Commonwealth. She shall, under the direction of the President, assist, so far as she may be able, in the general work of the Conference.

8. The Minister of Christian Education and the Associate in Christian Education, if any, shall encourage and promote the whole program of religious education as well as Christian living and Christian activities among the Congregational churches of the State. He, or she, or they, shall, under the direction of the President, assist so far as able, in the general work of the Conference.

9. The Recording Secretary shall record the complete minutes of each annual meeting and shall transcribe and deliver the same to the Secretary. The Board of Trustees may, in their discretion, appoint a deputy to assist in the keeping of the records under the direction of the Recording Secretary.

ARTICLE VII

Retirement and Annuity

1. No person who has attained the age of seventy years shall continue as a member of the Executive Staff. With respect to employees not members of the Executive Staff, it shall be the policy of the Conference to retire every such employee upon his or her attaining the age of seventy years, provided, however, that this shall not affect the power of the Trustees temporarily to employ from time to time persons who have passed that age (including former members of the executive staff) whenever in particular cases the Trustees shall deem such temporary employment essential to the efficient conduct of the Conference's work.

2. Ordained ministers who are members of the executive staff shall be expected to be members of the Annuity Fund for Congregational Ministers, and the Conference shall not provide for them any other retirement annuity, except in the case of ministers who are now members under the Original Plan. Toward each annual premium in the Annuity Fund of any member of the staff the Conference shall pay each year an amount equal to 8% of the charge on his salary, less such amount as the Conference shall pay the United States for his Social Security.

3. Lay members of the office staff shall be expected to be, so far as practicable, members of the Retirement Fund for Lay Workers, and the Conference shall pay, as the annual premium for each lay worker who is a member of the Fund, 8% of the charge on his salary, less such amount as the Conference shall pay the United States for his Social Security.

ARTICLE VIII

Departments and Affiliated Organizations

1. There shall be a Department of Woman's Work of the Conference. It shall be called the Massachusetts Fellowship of Congregational Christian Women.

   (a) The object of this Department shall be to help to promote the entire work of the local church and to further in every way possible the cause of Christ throughout the world. The voting members of the Massachusetts Fellowship of Congregational Christian Women shall be such women as may be determined by its rules and the women members of the Conference. The President, Vice-President of the Massachusetts Fellowship of Congregational Christian Women, the District Presidents, the women members of the Board of Trustees and the members of the Business Committee shall constitute the members of its Executive Committee. This Executive Committee shall organize the membership of the Massachusetts Fellowship of Congregational Christian Women in whatever manner it may deem needful for the effective carrying on of its work.

   (b) The Massachusetts Fellowship of Congregational Christian Women shall provide by its rules for the appointment of a nominating committee. This committee shall annually propose to the Nominating Committee of the Conference from among its membership a President and a Vice-President who shall be ex officiis members of the Board of Trustees of the Conference. This committee shall also nominate such other officers and committees as the rules of the Fellowship shall require, to be elected at the annual meeting of the Fellowship.

2. There shall be a Department of Laymen's Work of the Conference. It shall be called the Massachusetts Congregational Laymen's Council.

(a) The object of this Department shall be: To inspire higher conceptions of Christian citizenship for the development of democratic society and the world-wide Kingdom of God; to promote a richer fellowship of Congregational laymen through conferences, retreats, and other meetings and to co-operate with laymen of other denominations in significant Christian projects; to encourage organized laymen's groups and classes in all our churches, especially the smaller ones; to rally more men to the support of the church and to train men in worship and leadership in their church and community life.

(b) The Massachusetts Congregational Laymen's Council shall consist of sixty-two members — two from each of the Associations in the State and twenty members-at-large, who shall be elected annually by the State Conference. The Conference Nominating Committee shall receive the names of two members from each Association — or its Laymen's Organization — and the names of twenty members-at-large from the Executive Committee of the Massachusetts Laymen's Council. Should an Association fail to name candidates, the nominations for that Association shall be made by the Executive Committee of the Laymen's Council. The officers of this organization shall be a President, a Vice-President, a Secretary and a Treasurer.

3. There shall be a Department of Young People's Work of the Conference.

(a) There shall be a Massachusetts Council of Pilgrim Fellowship, composed of two representatives from each Association, to be named by the Association Pilgrim Fellowship or Congregational Young People's organization of the Association, whatever its name may be, as it or its Executive Committee may determine. If the Congregational young people of any Association are unorganized, the Association Committee on Religious Education may name two delegates to the Massachusetts Council of Pilgrim Fellowship. The Council shall hold its annual meeting in May or at such other time as its Executive Committee may determine. At its annual meeting the Council shall plan the State youth program and elect its officers for the ensuing year

(b) Unless otherwise determined by the Council, the State officers shall be President, Member-at-large, Secretary, Editor, Vice-President in charge of Christian Faith Commission, Vice-President in charge of Christian Action Commission, Vice-President in charge of Christian Fellowship Commission, the four delegates to the National Council of Pilgrim Fellowship.

The Executive Committee of Pilgrim Fellowship shall consist of the above officers, the President of the preceding year, an Adult Adviser to be chosen by the Council, with the approval of the State Committee on Christian Education, and one of the Secretaries of Christian Education on the staff of the Massachusetts Congregational Christian Conference, who shall be designated as Executive Secretary of the Massachusetts Pilgrim Fellowship. The President and one other officer, to be designated by the Executive Committee shall be ex officiis members of the Board of Trustees of the Massachusetts Congregational Christian Conference.

ARTICLE IX

Meetings

1. The Conference shall hold its regular annual meeting for the choice of officers, the hearing of reports, the discussion of matters of general interest and the transaction of other business at the appointed place on the third Monday of May, or at such other time in the month of May as the Board of Trustees may deem expedient.

2. Special meetings of the Conference shall be convened at such times and places as may be determined by the Board of Trustees, provided, however, that notice of any special meeting so convened shall, at least one week before the date of the meeting, be sent by mail to each of the churches connected with the Conference, posted in the general office of the Conference and printed in newspapers published in Boston, Worcester and Springfield, respectively.

3. The Moderator or, in his absence, one of the vice-Moderators or, in the absence of all of them some member of the Board of Trustees shall call the Conference to order.

4. At each annual meeting the Conference shall propose to the churches the annual contribution for the expenses of the General Council and for such expenses of the Conference and other purposes, as may be deemed equitable. The Trustees shall at each annual meeting present a recommendation as to the action to be taken at such meeting with reference to the allotment to be made at that meeting, unless the Conference shall have directed at a previous meeting that such recommendation be made by a designated committee.

ARTICLE X

Committees

1. Immediately after the opening of the annual meeting the Moderator shall appoint:

   (a) A Committee on Credentials, to which all credentials shall be referred.

   (b) A Business Committee, the duty of which shall be to prepare and present at each session all matters of business not presented through some other committee of the Conference.

2. The following standing committees shall be elected by viva voce vote:

   (a) A Nominating Committee composed of nine members, consisting of the retiring Moderator of each annual meeting, together with eight other members, of whom at least two shall be ministers, at least two shall be women and at least two shall be laymen. Each year the Board of Trustees, meeting in executive session, shall select four persons whom they shall nominate at the annual meeting of the Conference to be elected to serve for two years. The retiring members shall not be eligible for re-election for at least one year.

   This committee shall nominate all officers and committees whose nominations are not otherwise provided for in these by-laws.

(b) A Program Committee, of which the Secretary of the Conference and the pastor of the church which is to entertain the next annual meeting shall be members ex officiis. At each annual meeting two members shall be elected to serve for three years. This committee shall prepare the program for the next annual meeting and shall select the preacher of the annual sermon and the various speakers at each session.

(c) A Committee on Christian Education. At each annual meeting three members shall be elected to serve for three years. The duty of the Committee shall be to foster religious and missionary education in the churches and in the associations of Massachusetts. This Committee shall give advice and counsel in regard to the organized young people's work of the State. Among its various duties the Committee shall bear responsibility for planning and promoting summer camps and conferences.

(d) A Committee on Social Action, consisting of nine members, of whom three shall be elected at each annual meeting for a term of three years. It shall be the duty of the committee to promote interest in moral and social issues among the churches of the Conference. The committee shall be authorized to present and to support publicly such principles and measures as have been adopted by the Conference.

(e) A Committee on the Ministry consisting of thirty-one members: ten at large, three of whom shall be laymen or lay-women, two of the ten to be elected at each annual meeting for a term of five years; the remaining twenty-one to be composed of the Chairman of each Association Committee on the Ministry. It shall be the duty of this Committee to endeavor to establish and maintain high standards for our Congregational ministry and churches.

The Conference shall maintain a special roll of ministers to which names may have been transferred by the Associations. This special roll shall be in charge of the Conference Committee on the Ministry, and the presence of a name there shall constitute evidence that the man has been duly ordained and has had standing in a Congregational Association; but the Committee shall not issue credentials to a man whose name appears on this roll unless they find in concurrence with the Committee on the Ministry in his Association, that his character and qualifications are satisfactory.

(f) A Committee on Evangelism and Devotional Life, consisting of nine members, of whom three shall be elected at each annual meeting for a term of three years. It shall be the duty of the committee to serve as a cooperating agency of the national Commission on Evangelism and Devotional Life.

(g) A Missionary Committee. Each of the twenty-one Associations shall nominate a member of this Committee who shall represent the missionary committee of the Association. The term of office shall be three years, and the alphabetical list of Associations shall be divided into three groups, and these three groups shall rotate in making their elections.

In addition, there shall be six members-at-large, nominated by the Board of Trustees for a term of one year. Four of these persons shall be members of the Board of Trustees.

There shall also be three ex officiis members, representing the Massachusetts Fellowship of Congregational Christian Women, the Laymen's Council, and the Pilgrim Fellowship, respectively.

The Committee shall meet at least twice a year, and an executive committee shall be chosen, to meet as frequently as occasion requires. It shall be the duty of this Committee to advance the interest of the churches in the work of missions at home and abroad.

(h) A Committee on the Town and Country Church, consisting of nine members, of whom three shall be elected at each annual meeting for a term of three years. It shall be the duty of this Committee to co-operate with the national Commission on the Town and Country Church and to offer such practical helps and encouragement as may be possible and welcomed by our churches in the town and country areas.

(i) A Conference Center Committee. The operation and management of the Conference Center (to be known as "Conference Center" or some other name yet to be decided upon) shall be in the hands of a State Conference Committee, to be called the Conference Center Committee, as the agency of the Conference, responsible to the Board of Trustees. This Committee shall consist of thirty members—approximately one-third ministers, one-third laymen, and one-third lay-women—one member from each Association to be nominated annually by the Association, and nine members-at-large, to be nominated by the State Conference Nominating Committee for three-year terms, three to be elected each year —one minister, one layman, one lay-woman.

The Chairman of the Conference Center Committee shall be a member ex officio of the Board of Trustees of the State Conference and shall make a report at each meeting of the Board of Trustees.

The Conference Center Committee shall elect its own officers and subcommittee chairmen and may co-opt such additional persons as may be necessary to the effective functioning of the committees.

No member, elected or appointed, having served a full term of three consecutive years, shall be eligible to succeed himself until after the lapse of one year.

(j) A Committee on Churches and Colleges, consisting of nine members, of whom three shall be elected at each annual meeting for a term of three years. It shall be the duty of this Committee to study the needs and opportunities for developing a stronger religious program among students at the college and university level, especially as it relates to local Congregational Christian Churches; to cooperate with denominational and interdenominational agencies working in this specialized field; and to review requests for conference aid for the support of student projects within Massachusetts.

3. Such other committees as the Conference may vote to constitute shall be elected by viva voce vote at each annual meeting for such terms as the Conference shall determine. The Board of Trustees shall present at each annual meeting a list of the committees the appointment of which it recommends.

4. It shall be the general practice of the Conference, without making it an arbitrary rule, that at least one-third of its committee members be lay-women and one-third laymen.

5. The reports of all committees that are to be presented to the Conference shall be furnished to the Secretary on or before April first of each year, and shall be printed and distributed to the churches not less than two weeks before the annual meeting. These reports shall not be read to the Conference save by special order, but the Program Committee may arrange for the adequate discussion of any or all the topics presented in the reports.

ARTICLE XI

Board of Ministerial Aid

The Board of Ministerial Aid shall be the agent of the Conference in the work of aiding needy ministers and their families and shall make an annual report to the Conference. On notice of a vacancy in the membership of the Board of Ministerial Aid, the Conference shall nominate a person to fill the vacancy.

ARTICLE XII

Boston Seaman's Friend Society

The Boston Seaman's Friend Society shall be the agent of the Conference in the work of promoting the spiritual and temporal welfare of seamen and shall make an annual report to the Conference. The Conference shall annually elect five members of the Society for a term of three years each.

ARTICLE XIII

Board of Pastoral Supply

The Conference shall elect seven members to represent it on the Congregational Board of Pastoral Supply, two members to be elected each year to serve for a period of three years, and a third member to be elected in any year to serve for a period of three years whenever necessary to satisfy the requirement of seven members. The Board shall, through its Secretary, make an annual report to the Conference.

ARTICLE XIV

Corporate Seal

The seal of the Conference shall consist of two or more concentric circles, with the words "Massachusetts Congregational Christian Conference" around the circumference between these circles and the words "Inc., 1808" within the inner circle.

ARTICLE XV

Special Orders

1. The place of the next annual meeting shall be recommended each year by the Business Committee and designated by vote of the Conference.

2. All matters of business presented to the Conference, except those presented through duly appointed committees of the Conference, shall be referred to the Business Committee unless referred to some other committee by special vote of the Conference.

3. All matters of business referred to the Business Committee shall be reported for action before the final adjournment of the annual meeting.

4. As far as possible, all business of the Conference shall be completed by noon of the second day of the annual meeting.

ARTICLE XVI

Rules of Order

The Rules of Order shall be those of common parliamentary usage subject to the following specifications:

(a) No member shall speak more than twice on the same question without leave of the Conference.

(b) When a question is before the Conference the Moderator shall entertain motions only as follows: — to adjourn, to table, for the previous question, to postpone to a fixed time, to commit, to amend or to postpone indefinitely; these several motions shall have precedence in the foregoing order.

ARTICLE XVII

Amendments

1. These by-laws, except Articles II and III, may be amended at any regularly called meeting of the Conference by a two-thirds vote, provided the amendment was proposed at the preceding annual meeting of the Conference or is recommended by the Board of Trustees.

2. Articles II and III may be amended by a two-thirds vote, but only after the proposed amendment has been submitted to the Conference in writing at the previous annual meeting and notice has been sent to the several churches connected with the Conference at least three months prior to the meeting at which action is to be taken.

The Business Committee reported the following resolutions on behalf of the Social Action Committee, all of which were adopted:

CIVIL LIBERTIES

WHEREAS a living trust in God leads to reliance on the spirit and practice of freedom; and

WHEREAS devotion to freedom and liberty has been a basic factor in making the United States of America great and strong; and

WHEREAS our heritage of freedom and the spiritual health and strength of our country are endangered today by attitudes and practices of intimidation, careless accusations, abuse of political power, malicious slander, premature assumption of guilt, and judgment of people on the basis of associations rather than of character and conduct,

Therefore be it RESOLVED that we call upon the people of our churches: (1) to emphasize the close relation of Christian faith to the maintenance of civil rights and liberties, (2) to defend in our communities the practice of the freedoms guaranteed in the Bill of Rights, and (3) to champion for all persons, qualified under our laws, the right to vote, to participate in political activity, to influence the decisions of government and to receive the full protection of the law.

RACE RELATIONS

WHEREAS we believe that the gospel of Jesus Christ proclaims the full brotherhood of all men, and

WHEREAS our nation, through decisions made by its highest court, is now committed to eradicate segregation based on race from its publicly supported institutions, including public schools, and

WHEREAS residential segregation is the most crucial factor in perpetuating segregation in neighborhoods, schools, churches, and other community associations where patterns of restriction are based on race and are maintained in the housing market by many realtors, builders, mortgagers and often by government housing agencies,

Be it RESOLVED that we urge our fellow church members to observe and support policies of nonsegregation in respect to housing, business practices and other aspects of community life regardless of race, color, or religion.

We express our concern for churches and individuals in areas where progress in racial integration is more difficult than here. We pledge those individuals and churches our sympathetic understanding, our encouragement and when necessary, our financial support.

(The last paragraph of this resolution was adopted on Wednesday.)

INTERNATIONAL AFFAIRS

WHEREAS the United States has been thrust into a position of major responsibility in the contemporary world, and

WHEREAS the policies of our government should reflect our Christian belief in the brotherhood of man and the basic sympathy of the American people with the struggles of Asian, African and other peoples for freedom and equality, and

WHEREAS the progress and development of people in the contemporary world requires emphasis on interdependence, international responsibility, and political maturity, as well as on the right to independence,

Be it therefore RESOLVED (1) that we support a larger program of economic and technical aid to Asia, Africa, the Middle East, and Latin America through both American governmental and private agencies and increasingly through the United Nations; (2) that we follow domestic and international practices which will facilitate a greater flow of international trade; (3) that we support the United States and United Nations atoms-for-peace programs; (4) that we work increasingly for a reduction in armaments, on a multilateral basis, with adequate safeguards against evasion of agreements; and (5) that we support generously the Special United Nations Fund for Economic Development (SUNFED).

IMMIGRATION

WHEREAS the McCarran-Walter Act enacted in 1953 represents an immigration policy and procedure that is discriminatory and un-American and makes a democratic foreign policy difficult,

We urge the liberalization of our national immigration laws to bring them in line with our national character and position in the world today by: (a) taking a more humanitarian position regarding sick and dependent members of immigrants' families even at the hazard of incurring some public charge; (b) revising the present quota system so that all discrimination against nations or areas is eliminated; (c) reviewing the affidavit or assurance requirements, looking toward their simplification; (d) eliminating those parts of the McCarran-Walter Act which put any of the rights and privileges of citizenship of our naturalized citizens in jeopardy.

UNITED NATIONS

We reaffirm our support of the United Nations as an indispensable instrument for the discussion of international problems and for cooperative action on behalf of world peace and welfare. We believe the United Nations to be an important means through which Christians can make meaningful and practical their devotion to human brotherhood and mutual aid. We believe the United Nations can give most effective service as it becomes increasingly universal in membership. We applaud the purposes and program of UNESCO and acclaim its program for education, better health, crops and child care and its work toward free schooling for all children. We further urge that our churches support the program of the United Nations Children's Fund (UNICEF) by promoting the study of UNICEF in the churches and schools, and by organizing in their local communities the nation-wide Halloween Treat for the World's Children.

An address, "From the Haystack to the World-Wide Church," given by Mr. Mark Tokutaro Kawai, Japanese student from Harvard University, was most enthusiastically received.

The session closed with a hymn and prayer by Chaplain Rathnam.

At noon the following luncheons were served: African Luncheon, Second Congregational Church; Indian Luncheon, Saint John's Episcopal Church; Japanese Luncheon, Baptist Church; Mexican Luncheon, White Oaks Congregational Church; Near East Luncheon, the Williams Inn; South Seas Luncheon, Methodist Church.

TUESDAY AFTERNOON

At 2:20 an organ recital was given in Chapin Hall by Miss Ruth R. Imperial, a student at Union Theological Seminary from the Philippines.

An address, "The Church of Christ in India," was given by Mr. Mathai Zachariah of Travancore, South India, a student at Yale Divinity School.

At 3:30 there was a teaching demonstration, "Literacy, a Continuing Missions Challenge," by Rev. Stewart Meacham, Associate Secretary of the Committee on World Literacy and Christian Literature of the National Council of Churches.

Chinese tea was served in the Faculty House and at Williams Inn at 4:00 o'clock.

At 4:45 the Moderator called a business session and introduced Mrs. Myron Bemis, who made a statement concerning ADVANCE, asking support through increased subscriptions.

The Business Committee introduced the following resolutions, all of which were adopted:

FOREIGN STUDENTS

WHEREAS (in the words of Dr. John R. Mott) "The presence within our gates of successive generations of the flower of the students of all lands, races, and communions, presents one of the really great opportunities for international and interracial service as well as for world-wide influence. These foreign students, in years to come, on their return to their native lands will furnish a disproportionately large number of the leaders in the realm of thought and action. They come among us as strangers. It is of the utmost importance that we befriend them and unselfishly serve them in every way in our power."

Be it therefore RESOLVED that we urge our churches and our church families to invite the foreign students attending nearby colleges and universities to share on appropriate occasions, especially on holidays and weekends, the hospitality of their homes and the fellowship of church groups. (Foreign student advisors on the campuses may be called upon for help in making arrangements.)

SEMINARY STUDENTS

WHEREAS our theological seminaries in New England are receiving and training for Christian leadership increasing numbers of students from other lands, and

WHEREAS these native student leaders working side by side with American missionaries in foreign countries are giving a great new impetus to our Christian work abroad, and

WHEREAS our seminaries are undertaking to raise scholarship funds to support students from abroad, and

WHEREAS our American Board under its authorized Special Gifts Program is eagerly seeking scholarship aid to the amount of $6,000 for students from India and Ceylon, $3,000 for students from Japan, $2,500 for students from the Philippines, $4,500 for students from Africa, and $1,500 for students from Mexico,

Be it therefore RESOLVED that we urge our churches, our church organizations and our Congregational families to support generously this program through scholarship grants to seminaries and to the American Board.

CLOTHES FOR ATHENS COLLEGE

WHEREAS a call for help in meeting an emergency need has come from the American Friends Service Committee in respect to the need for men's and boys' clothing at Athens College in Greece, and

WHEREAS approximately half the students at this important educational institution receive scholarship assistance which ranges from full board and tuition to supplementary food and clothing, and

WHEREAS, about five tons of clothing are needed for the next academic year, 1956–1957,

Therefore be it RESOLVED that we refer this need and commend this cause to our churches with the suggestion that those who wish to help should send gifts of clothing to the Congregational Service Committee, 110 East 29th St., New York or to the American Friends Service Committee Clothing Center, 5 Longfellow Park, Cambridge, Mass., and mark them for Athens College.

Rev. Richard A. Wolff, reporting for the Committee on Education for Union, told of a growing enthusiasm for union with the Evangelical and Reformed Churches, and urged that we go forward. Mr. Wolff presented the following resolution, which was adopted by a vote of 354 to 19.

UNION WITH THE EVANGELICAL AND REFORMED CHURCH

The Massachusetts Congregational Christian Conference, meeting at Williamstown in celebration of the 150th anniversary of the Haystack Prayer Meeting, out of which came the organization of the American Board and so the beginning of the foreign missionary movement in this country, records its hope

That the General Council of the Congregational Christian Churches at its coming meeting in Omaha will approve the consummation of our union with the Evangelical and Reformed Church in 1957, which may well be the beginning of a large-scale movement toward uniting Protestant churches in the United States.

A resolution was offered by Rev. Joseph J. Russell of Holbrook, commending to the churches for their serious consideration such resolutions as those recently adopted by Pilgrim Church, Duluth, Minnesota; the Church in the Gardens, Forest Hills, N. Y.; and Old South Church, Boston, relative to the union with the Evangelical and Reformed Church. The resolution was defeated by a vote of 315 to 34.

A motion picture, "A Gift from my Son," was shown.

TUESDAY EVENING

A Fellowship Dinner was served in the college Dining Hall. Dr. Fowell presented, with appropriate words of greeting, the Rev. William Boicourt of Watertown, the Rev. Norman King of Dorchester and the Rev. Enoch Hughes of Palmer, who were in the fiftieth year of their ordination. He then read the names of the following, also in the fifty-year group, who were not able to be present: Rev. Ellery C. Clapp, Leeds; Rev. Thomas M. Corson, Puerto Rico; Rev. Warren A. Leonard, Halifax; Rev. Albert A. Madsen, Washington, N. H.; Rev. Alexander Mage, Paris, France. Mr. Boicourt responded in behalf of the fifty-year group.

At 8:00 o'clock there was a panel discussion, "This Revolutionary World," led by Rev. Ray Gibbons, Director of the Council for Social Action, with the following students participating: Mr. Giragos H. Chopourian (from Cyprus), Andover Newton Theological School, Newton Center; Mr. Ian H. Eyvers (from South Africa), Harvard Divinity School, Cambridge; Mr. Matthew Fong (Secretary of the Chinese Y.M.C.A. in Hong Kong), Yale Divinity School, New Haven; Rev. John K. C. Ma (Pastor of the China Congregational Church in Hong Kong), Union Theological Seminary, New York; Mr. K. C. Matthew (from India), Hartford Seminary Foundation, Hartford.

The session ended with a hymn and prayer by the Chaplain.

WEDNESDAY MORNING

The chaplain opened the session with hymn and prayer.

Ballots for the election of officers of the Conference, as prepared by the Nominating Committee, were distributed. There being no further nominations from the floor, the motion was carried that nominations be closed and that we proceed to ballot. The result reported later showed a total of 216 ballots and the entire slate elected (see pages 16–18).

The Nominating Committee further reported nominations for Conference Committees and delegates to various bodies and the Secretary was authorized by vote to cast one ballot for those so nominated and they were declared elected. (See pages 19–28.)

The Business Committee introduced the following addition to the resolutions on Race Relations and it was adopted: "We express our concern for churches and individuals in areas where progress in racial integration is more difficult than here. We pledge those individuals and churches our sympathetic understanding, our encouragement and when necessary, our financial support."

The Business Committee introduced the following resolutions, which were adopted:

3. To the people of Williamstown who so kindly entertained us in their homes; to the Police Department and other officials of the town who through their courtesy and help made our stay a pleasant one.

And be it further RESOLVED that we record our grateful appreciation to our Chaplain, the Rev. P. Yesu Rathnam, who so wonderfully lifted our thoughts God-ward.

That we record our indebtedness to our Moderator, Rev. Victor B. Chicoine, who so ably guided our deliberations.

That we record our gratitude for the able and sincere leadership given us by our Minister and President, Rev. Albert Buckner Coe. Truly he is among us "as one who serves."

THE REVEREND ALBERT BUCKNER COE, D.D., President
BOSTON, MASSACHUSETTS

We have examined the balance sheets of Massachusetts Congregational Christian Conference and of Massachusetts Congregational Christian Conference, Trustee, as at March 31, 1956, and the related statements of income for the year ended at that date. Our examination was made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, and accordingly included such tests of the accounting records and such other auditing procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances.

The securities representing the invested funds at March 31, 1956, were verified by inspection or confirmation, and the cash in banks and in office by certificate or count.

In our opinion, the accompanying balance sheets and related statements of income present fairly the financial position of the Conference and of the Conference as Trustee, respectively, at March 31, 1956, and the results of their operations for the year ended at that date, in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles applied on a basis consistent with that of the preceding year.

*Income paid direct to church by Massachusetts Congregational Fund.

ALLOTMENT ACCOUNT

In 1927 the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and the Massachusetts Home Missionary Society were united in a single corporation. Previous to that time, the National Council of Congregational Churches and the Conference had paid their expenses for meetings and administration by thirteen cents collected for each church member. It seems right that the Conference part of our organization should still pay its own charges. Twenty-eight cents per member is asked this year of the Churches. Twenty cents of the twenty-eight goes to the General Council (formerly The National Council) and eight cents is kept by the Conference. The collection of the eight cents per member is the attempt of the Conference part of our organization to pay its expenses and not to become a charge upon missionary funds.

BEQUESTS

Bequests to the Massachusetts Congregational Christian Conference are used to aid weak churches and to promote the work and interests of the Conference in the State. Bequests may be made permanent funds by the donor, and the Conference restricted to the use of the income only. The practice of the Conference is to divide unrestricted legacies into three equal parts. One part is used for current work, one part is added to the Permanent Legacy Fund, the income only of which is used for general purposes; and the third part is added to a Contingent Fund, the principal of which may be drawn upon to care for special undertakings or to avoid a deficit.

If, on the other hand, a testator specifies that his entire legacy is to be expended as current income and that he does not wish it invested in whole or in part, these directions will be carefully observed.

Bequests to the Massachusetts Congregational Christian Conference pay no Massachusetts inheritance tax.

GRANTS FROM THE MASSACHUSETTS CONGREGATIONAL CHRISTIAN CONFERENCE

Grants for the aid of churches and certain other types of work are made by the Conference through the Board of Trustees, following recommendation by the Grants Committee of the Board of Trustees.

The Grants Committee considers applications for grants to local churches (to strengthen the ministry of the church); to hospital chaplaincies; to week-day religious education programs in certain churches; to St. Mark Social Center; to other interdenominational projects in Massachusetts; to Hospitality House at Ayer (Fort Devens), and other work as need arises. In co-operation with the Churches and Colleges Committee it also receives applications for grants for student work both on campus and in churches near campuses.

Requests for grants come to the committee through the member of the conference executive staff who is particularly concerned either with the area or the type of work.

Grants to local churches are made under the following circumstances:

1. Where a community is too far from a church to benefit from its privileges, the Conference encourages the establishment of regular religious services, and, if possible, the organization of a church, or a branch of a neighboring church.

2. Applications by any church for financial aid should be made by the vote of the church, and upon forms furnished by the Conference, and should have the approval of the Advisory or Grants Committee of the local Association of Churches.

3. Churches applying for aid should show that they have met in full all financial obligations to their ministers and are doing their utmost toward self-support.

4. In granting aid different amounts will be appropriated according to the necessity, importance, and prospects of each field.

5. Every church aided by the Conference should consult the Area Minister or President before making arrangements for pastoral service.

6. When the service of the minister or other worker, for whose support an appropriation is made, shall terminate, the appropriation shall lapse, except for special reasons satisfactory to the President.

The Conference advocates adequate compensation for every minister and worker.

The Conference favors hearty co-operation with other denominations, the avoidance of overlapping and competing work, and the consolidation or federation of churches of different denominations in over-churched communities.

We are indicating in this copy of the Minutes the churches that received Conference grants in the year 1955–1956 by placing the reference "§" before the names of these churches in the section of the Minutes entitled "Associations of Churches and Ministerial Standing." In cases where the grant was discontinued during the year the letter "d" appears. Where the pastor's service ended during the year, the reference "†" appears. Special grants are listed on page 57.

STATISTICAL TABLES

EXPLANATORY

The tables which follow comprise:

1. The statistics of the churches, giving the ministers, church membership, additions, removals, Sunday school membership, and the amount of benevolences and expenses. These tables, in accordance with the vote of the Conference in 1887, are made to conform to those in the National Year Book;

2. The Associations of the churches, with the names of officers;

3. The Ministerial Standing, giving the date of ordination of each minister, the date of membership in the Association, the residence and his "employment";

4. The Ministerial Record, containing lists of ordinations and deaths.

The tables of the first part contain the names of all the Congregational churches in Massachusetts, the towns and cities being arranged alphabetically. In cases where the post office name of the church and the town differ, heavy type indicates the postal address (or in some cases, the political township), and a cross reference on the page where the post office name would naturally be found will direct the reader to the town name.

Church members are reported as numbered January 1, 1956. Admissions and removals cover the year 1955. "Sunday school" includes total membership of officers, teachers and scholars January 1, 1956, or when the school is in operation (if not at that date), covering "branch schools", "mission schools" and "home departments" so far as maintained by the reporting church.

The months and days in the dates of the organization of churches are omitted. They will be found in the publications of 1873, those of churches since organized being given in the "Minutes" of each year. Months and days in the dates of ordination of Congregational ministers may be found in the lists of the local Associations which follow the tables.

Abbreviations in schedule headings are:
"Ord." — Ordained
"Cld." — Called
"To." or "T." — Total
"Ab." — Absentee
"C." — Confession
"D." — Death
"L." — Letter

Reference marks are used as follows:

y Pastor serves more than one church.
i Pastor installed by Council.
r Pastor recognized by Council.
x Includes cost of new building or improvements.
—No answer can be given.
* Value of church property includes parsonage.
★ Per Capita paid in full by church.

‖ When a church has made no report, items of membership in church, Sunday School and young people's organizations, also home expense and value of property, are inserted from the previous Year Book and marked ‖ in the first column of the statistical report. This is done that these items may be included in the summaries and comparative tables, thus minimizing the danger of falsifying the comparisons.

Under church "Members" the number "Absent" are included in the "Total." Amount of "Home Expenses" includes all salaries, together with missionary aid received, operating expenses and repairs for church, Sunday School, choir and parish. An x before "Value Church Property" denotes expenditures for new buildings or improvements during the year. The total expended is given at the end of the Conference schedule.

In reporting the statistics of federated churches, figures given pertaining to membership and gifts on the apportionment are for the Congregational church within the federated church. Figures pertaining to average attendance, Church School enrollment, membership in young people's organizations, contributions to home expenses are usually for all the churches grouped together in the federated church.

MASSACHUSETTS CONVENTION OF CONGREGATIONAL MINISTERS

Dates from the earliest times of the colony. Annual Business and Public meeting is held in alternate years in the Old South Church in Boston and the First Church in Boston at 10:30 A.M. in May, on the day appointed, with addresses. At this service a collection is taken which, with the income of the Convention fund, is distributed to the needy widows and daughters of deceased Congregational ministers.

Every minister of a Congregational church in Massachusetts (whether Trinitarian or Unitarian) is ex officio a member of the Convention.

OFFICERS: — Rev. Dona M. Greeley, 355 Boylston Street, Boston 16, MODERATOR; Rev. Bradford E. Gale, 28 Chestnut Street, Salem, Treasurer; to either of whom applications for aid may be addressed.

Rev. Richard D. Pierce, 37 Beacon Street, Boston, Scribe.

CONDITIONAL GIFTS

The Conference receives conditional gifts, subject to annuity agreements with the donors, and encourages this method for those who wish any part of their property to be applied to our work after their death, and desire an assured income from their property for themselves, or for others whom they may designate as beneficiaries, as long as they live. Correspondence with the Treasurer concerning such annuity agreements is invited.

TRUST FUNDS

The Massachusetts Congregational Fund, organized during the year 1945 under the auspices of the Conference, is now administering trust funds of Congregational churches and organizations in Massachusetts aggregating $7,700,000, including the funds of the Conference.

It is not an easy matter for church or parish committees, often made up of those without broad experience in investment matters, to guard the safety of church trust funds. We welcome inquiries from Congregational churches in Massachusetts relative to caring for their trust or endowment funds.
